DEATHS.

At St. Malo's, in France, a few days ago, most lamented by his family and friends, Sixteen Bayles, Esq. much distinguished for his talents, in the following manner:
At Bunratty Castle, County Clare, on Thursday evening, aged 83 years, Mrs. Fizz Gerald, relict of James Fizz Gerald, Esq. late of Shipperton, in that County. She departed this life in a most humble and comfortable hope of eternal rest, peace, and glory, through the merits and mediation alone of HIM who died for our sins, and to save that which was lost; and to give his life a ransom for many." Her life was devoted to the relief of her fellow creatures, in imitation of the example, and in obedience to the commands of the Redeemer of a guilty world, "who went about continually doing good, and healing all manner of sicknesses, in the midst of his teaching and his power of God." That to do good, and to distribute, we should not forget, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased."

At Wellington Place, Cork, on Tuesday morning, the wife of G. R. Payne, Esq. a Lady adorned with every amiable quality that could recommend her in life. By this sore stroke of affliction, an affectionate husband has been bereft of a fond and loving wife, a young family, a devoted mother; a numerous circle of relations and friends, of one whom they valued; but they enjoy consolation from the promise of the Gospel, which has brought life and immortality to light. Having remembered her Creator in the days of her youth, she continued to walk in his ways during her illness. - He sent her the Heavenly Comforter, and in the last moment, when her breathing and flesh failed, she was wont to do good, and to distribute, we should not forget, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased."

This morning, at the house of Matthew Fitz Clares-street, after a long illness, which she bore with truly Christian resignation, Sarah Cantrell, one of the Society of Friends.

In Dublin, Mrs. Dwy, wife of Robert Day, Esq. late second wife of the Court of King's Bench.
In Cork, Robert Cleburne, Esq.
In Malrow, aged 23 years, Mrs. Perse, wife of Captain Perse, 2d Dragoon Guards. Her remains passed through Ennis on Wednesday for interment in the Abbey.
At Callowry, on Saturday Inst. David Murphy, Esq. late Captain in the Kerry Militia.
In Arranagh, Edward Aikinson, Esq. M. D.
On Saturday, in Dublin, of a rapid death, James Phillips, Esq. Surgeon, son of the late Surgeon J. H. Phillips, of Cloume; a young gentleman of eminent talents and most amiable disposition.

In Cork, Mrs. Alice Elizabeth Graebeck, relict of the late Captain M. Graebeck, Surgeon of the Royal Navy.
In Dublin, George Moore, Esq. formerly of Waterford.
In Bristol, John Haydn, once a celebrated Comedian.
Mary, infant daughter of Lord George Guin.
In London, James Bayes, Esq.
The wife of the Bishop of Norwich.
The widow of Admiral Sir Frankland.
Captain Keith Maxwell, Royal Navy.
