THANKS.

THE LABOURERS and TRADESMEN of the Town of Drooncollochee return their sincere Thanks to ROBERT J. STEVENS, Esq. for the kind and consistent feeling for their Wants, which has induced him to set a large tract of Land adjacent to the town, in lots of not less than one acre each. He has also offered the advantage of potato-ground, at a very moderate rent, which they would otherwise have found it difficult to procure, even on the most exorbitant terms. They at the same time gratefully acknowledge that some of the very many occasions on which they have derived benefit from his assistance, and truly liberal attention of MR. ROBERT J. STEVENS, and his highly respected Father, to their wants and comforts.
 Drooncollochee, May 24th, 1823.

ADDRESS TO MAJOR HALL.

O'Brien's-Brigade, Petty Sessions, May 24, 1823.
 DEAR SIR,
THE BENCH OF MAGISTRATES assembled in Petty Sessions at O'Brien's-Brigade, cannot allow you to quit this Country without returning you their sincere thanks for your valuable assistance during the time you acted as their Secretary.
 They deeply regret the family reasons which render it necessary for you to leave this neighbourhood, and which they hope change of situation may obviate—but while they deplore your loss as a friend and neighbour esteemed and regarded by every individual of the Bench, they are sensible that as a Magistrate your departure must be felt as a public loss.
 The upright and honorable discharge of your duty in that situation has been of material advantage in assisting to promote the peace and tranquillity of this part of the Country, and we feel much pleasure in presenting you with this assurance of the public esteem and private regard in which we hold your character, and which has been unanimously voted to you by the Magistracy of your neighbourhood.
 We remain,
 Dear Sir,
 Very truly your obedient Servants,
 James Martin, sen.
 H. O'Donnell, C. B.
 Thomas Westrip
 D. M. Boncher.
 Thomas O'Reilly,
 Andrew Welch.
 To T. M. Hall, Esq. Erins.
 Castle-Connell, May 14th, 1823.

GENTLEMEN,
 I have been this day honored with your kind letter conveying the expression of your regret at my departure from this country, and your very flattering approval of my conduct as a Magistrate in your district. It is most gratifying to me to feel, in the esteem and affectionate regards of such respectable persons, and to find that my public life has merited their approbation;—be assured, Gentlemen, that the value of this mark of your esteem and good wishes is duly appreciated by me, and that I deeply lament that family circumstances should compel me to leave my country at the present moment. I have, however, the pleasure to reflect, that I leave it in good hands, and that the peace and tranquillity must be the effect of a steady adherence to our present system of dispensing Justice. With fervent and hearty prayers that these my hopes may be realized, and with sincere wishes for your health and prosperity, believe me, Gentlemen, your very faithful and obliged humble servant,
 TOWNSEND M. HALL.
