CHARITY SERMON,
THE ANNUAL CHARITY SERMON in aid of the Funds of the PROTESTANT FEMALE ORPHAN SCHOOL of Limerick, will be preached on SUNDAY, the 27th Instant, in the Cathedral, by the REV. CHARLES FORSTER, B. D.
Domestic Chaplain to the Lord Bishop of Limerick.
A generous Public has hitherto extended its support to this Asylum of the Orphan and Fatherless. Its Funds are now not only exhausted but a considerable debt contracted, and the result of this appeal will decide whether a number of helpless Females are still to be preserved from the contamination of vice, or by being sent into the world, exposed to all the horrors of misery and guilt.
A detailed account of the present state of its Funds will be given in the next Chronicle.
Limerick, 19th July, 1823.

ROYAL EXCHANGE ASSURANCE,
Established by Royal Charter and Act of Parliament.
In the Year 1720.
FOR ASSURING BUILDINGS, GOODS, AND SHIPS FROM FIRE,
AND ALSO FOR THE ASSURANCE OF LIVES.
Office, No. 117, George's-street, Limerick:—
WHERE Assurance on Lives, and against Fire, can be obtained more cheaply and effectually than at any other Insurance Establishment in Ireland: Free Policies are issued at once, without either waiting for them to England, or consulting Directors, as must be done at other Offices; and Persons, whose lives are to be assured, have only to appear before the Agent; who does not require Medical Certificates.
Lives Insured as high as £10,000; and at the advanced age of Seventy-five years.
Persons whose lives are assured by this Company, are allowed to pass in decked vessels from one part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to another, and to and from the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, and also to pass, in time of peace only, in decked vessels, from British ports and places to any foreign port between Flushing and Usant, without extra premium, and without being subjected to apply, as heretofore, to the Office, for special permission.

DEATHS.
On Thursday, in Dublin, the Lady of the Rev. John Petrick, Minister to the Independent Church, daughter of the late William Wallace, Esq. of this City. A last illness deeply and sincerely regretted by a numerous circle of friends and connections.
On Monday last, at Kilsyth, Miss Eliza Rumley, aged 81 years, daughter of the late Forward Rumley, Esq. of Kilsyth, County Tyrone.
At Ballymore, Co. Sligo, Mrs. James, deeply regretted, by all who were acquainted with her.
At Williamsburgh College, near Kells, Mrs. Barnes, widow, and Eliza, fifth daughter of the late Caleb Barnes, Esq. of Malinstown, County Meath.
At Turinlea, County Tyrone, Theobald Baile, Esq.
At Carrick-on-Suir, Captain Theobald Mandeville.
At Chalfont, County Leinton, James Johnston, Esq.
At Westport, Mr. John Armstrong.
At Galais, in France, John Rovann, Esq. of Thullars, County Kerry. He survived his amiable Lady, (whose death we lately announced,) only eight days.
In Cork, Mr. James Ryan.
At Covee, aged 22 years, Mr. Matthew Dowds, only son of Mr. Denis Dowds, for many years a respectable teacher in that town.
At Bellef, Co. Donegal, Elizabeth, wife of Lieut. W. H. Armstrong, (late 81st Regt.) 21 Royal Veteran Battalion.
At Kinsale, Thomas Cochrane, Esq. the eldest Lieutenant in the Rifle Brigade—a Gentleman deservedly lamented—His death was caused by an injured constitution acquired during the various campaigns which he was engaged in during the Peninsular War.
In Kandy, India, Patrick O'Brien, late 33rd Regiment.
At Stovera Leone, on the 15th May, the Rev. Henry Palmer, youngest son of the Rev. Arthur Palmer, late Chancellor of the Cathedral of St. Canice, Kilkenny, aged 30 years. He had been lately sent out as Chaplain to the Colony at Frog Town, full of zeal in the Gospel of Jesus Christ; but his constitution, already broken by long service in the 23d Royal Fusiliers, in Portugal, and in Waterloo, was unable to cope with that destructive climate, and in six weeks after his arrival, he fell a victim to it—leaving a young wife, near her confinement of her first child, to mourn over her loss.
