ASSURANCE Established by Royal Charter and Act of Parliament, In the Year 1720,

FOR ASSURING BUILDINGS, GOODS, AND SHIPS FROM FIRE,

AND ALSO FOR THE

ASSURANCE OF LIVES.

Office, No. 117, George's-street, Limetick !-

HERE Assurance on Lives, and against Fire, can be sooner and easier effected than at any other lustrance Establishment in Ireland: Fire Policies are issued At owes, without either sending for them to England, or con sulting Directors, as must be done at other Offices; and Persons, whose lives are to be assured, have only to appear before the Agent i who does not require Medical Certificates.

Lives Insured as high as £10,000; and at the advanced age of Seventy-five years.

Persons whose lives are assured by this Conjount, are allowed to pass in decked vessels from one part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to another, and to and from the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderbey, Sark and Mah, and also to pass, in time of peace only, in decked vessels, from British ports and places to any foreign port between Flushing and Ushant, without extra premium, and without being subjected to apply, as heretofore, to the Office, for special permission.

Manufactories, Buildings, and Goods of every description-Farm Houses, Cattle, and Haggarts-Ships in barbour, in dock, or while repairing, Insured at a moment's notice.

The following are some of the rates of Premiums on Assurance against Fire, viz. :-Common Assurance 2s. per Cent ;

that this Singly Hazardous Premium will cover general Merchandize contained in Corn Stores with Kilns, ought to carefully examine their Policies, in order to ascertain if their properties be at all Insured; So large a sum as £3000 may be Assured on Mill Risks.

The wise principles, and honest practices, pursued by the Corporation of the Royal Exchange Assurance dising a period exceeding a Century—their consequent accumulation of riches and reputation—and their convenient liberality, have obtained for this Establishment the first character among the Insurance Institutions of the Empiresecured for it a corresponding public confidence—and given it an extent of business, in this country, unattained by any The Persons Insured at this Office do not depend upon an uncertain fund or contribution - are neither subject covenants, nor liable by Acts of Parliament, to make of the Corporation being an unquestionable Security to the Losses are paid, in full, without delay ; and documents for Claimants are prepared gratis.
