

ingly Hazardous Premium will cover general contained in Corn Stores with Kilns, ought to examine their Policies, in order to ascertain if rties be at all Insured:—So large a sum as £3000 insured on Mill Risks.

principles, and honest practices, pursued by the ION of the ROYAL EXCHANGE ASSURANCE dur-
 d exceeding a Century—their consequent accu-
 of riches and reputation—and their unrivalled have obtained for this Establishment the first among the Insurance Institutions of the Empire—
 it a corresponding public confidence—and given t of business, in this country, unattained by any pany.

sons Insured at this Office do not depend upon in fund or contribution—are neither subject to nor liable by Acts of Parliament, to make losses which may happen—the real Capital Stock corporation being an unquestionable Security to the re paid, in full, without delay; and documents

 nts are prepared gratis.

Rates, and every other information respecting given by

JAMES MORGAN, AGENT,

No. 117, George's-street, Limerick.

complete Fire Engine Establishment is kept up, at the expense, for the safety of the City.

premiums on Fire Assurances due at Minas quarter, are to be paid on or before 14th October inst. as the usual fifteen allowed for renewing will then expire.

THE MARKETS.

ng Wednesday, our Corn Market was not as well
 it is generally on Saturday—what Wheat ap-at off freely at from 11d. to 14½d. per stone for om 13d. to 16d. per stone for white; one load of white obtained 16½d. Butter is in good supply and and, at 80s. 74s. 68s. 62s. and 56s. per cwt. to the 12s. 6d. has been given for some Jobbers' parcels,
 per cwt. between 1st and 2d qualities, and 8s. per ven the other sorts. Weighed in month ended 30th 10 firkins.—Oats, 9d.—Barley, 10d. per stone.

arkets, Monday.—The New Corn Market opened by the annexed Return, it will be observed that the
 is very limited:—Wheat weighed, 8 barrels—6½ barrels—Sold, from 17s. to 23s. Oats weighed,
 2—assessed, 16½.—Sold, from 9s. 0d. to 9s. 9d.
 of 14 stone. No change in Flour.

Prices of Butter in Cork Yesterday.

ants, .....	75s. 71s. 66s. 64s. 56s.
ry, .....	64s. 60s. 56s. 52s. 46s.

ord Markets.—The receipts of Corn from Farmers large at Saturday's Market. Wheat and Oats advance—Barley stationary. Wheat 20s. to 22s.
 rrel; B. ley 12s. to 14s. and in some instances Oats 10s. to 11s.; Second Flour 36s. to 39s. per
 a few cases 40s.; Thirds, 26s. to 30s.; Fourths,
 ; Oatmeal, 14s. to 15s.; per cwt., dull sale.—
 ouring Butter 77s. to 77s. 6d.

lin Corn Exchange, September 27.

arket continues extremely heavy; the supply of ncipally new) was tolerably abundant this day,
 the demand not being adequate, a considerable ned undisposed of. Prices were nearly the same nesday. Flour, 18s. to 20s.; Oatmeal, 11s. to
 wt. both, dull sale; Rapeseed, 26s. to 27s. per

don Corn Exchange, September 26.

in the shape of business has been transacted in t this morning, the millers still adhering to their t to buy, while they have any Wheat left in their
 as a matter of course, we remain in the same ate—but had any sales been effected, not the least entertained, that lower prices would have been sub-therefore we must quote nominally our prices the last Wednesday.

MARRIAGES.

At Newcastle Church, on Sunday, by the Rev. T. Locke,
 Mr. John Vickers, of the 1st Battalion Rifle Brigade, to Miss Catherine Fitzgibbon, of Ballygibbin, in this County.

In Dublin, Richard, son of Mr. Spencer Ford, late of Cork, to Miss Bolton, of the Theatre Royal, Hawkins-street.

In Stillorgan Church, the Rev. John Kinahan, to Emily, daughter of John George, Esq.

Henry Hutton, Esq. of Bardsloe, to Letitia, daughter of John Hutton, of Kilmore, County Dublin, Esq.

In Dublin, William Stace, Esq. of Woolwich, to Sarah,
 daughter of the late Parsons Frayne, of Bormount, County Wexford, Esq.

Frederick W. Macauley, Esq. of Belfast, Solicitor, to the daughter of the late Robert Hyndman, of Portview, Esq.

In Galway, Mark Lynch, Esq. to Miss D'Arcy, daughter of the late John D'Arcy, of Houndswood, Co. Mayo, Esq.

At Knarethoro', Adderly Beamish, Esq. of Palace-Ann,
 Co. Cork, to Fanny, daughter of the late General Bernard, of Heion-Lodge, Co. Cork.

Lionel Cottingham, Esq. to Eliza, daughter of the late Thomas Skeggs, of Farnborough, Kent, Esq.

At Rochester, John S. Grant, Esq. East India Company's Service, to Eliza, daughter of the late Francis Barrow, Esq.

At Saugborough, the seat of Lord Anson, the Rev. Charles Okeover, to Anne, daughter of General Sir George Anson.

At Wanstead, George Blair Hall, Esq. to Laura, daughter of the late Sir W. Plomer.

At Madras, Henry Byrne, Esq. Barrister at Law, and of the Supreme Court, &c. to Isabella Selina, eldest daughter of T. H. Goodinge, Esq. of Londonderry.

In London, Joseph Taylor, Esq. Royal Navy, to Harriet, daughter of the late Lieutenant-Colonel William Duncan,
 of the First (or Royal) Regiment of Foot.

Captain Phillips, R. N. to the daughter of W. Nicholson,
 Esq. of Rochester.

Captain Clarke, 46th Regiment, to the widow of the Rev.
 Edward Clarke.

DEATHS.

At his father's house, Shanagolden, the Rev. Mr. O'Brien, R. C. Curate of St. Michael's Parish, in this city.

George Daker, of Burgage, County Wicklow, Esq.

In Cumberland-street, Dublin, Mrs Birch, wife of William Ryves Birch, Esq.

On Monday, at his seat, Mount Music, County Cork, Timothy O'Driscoll, Esq.

In Dublin, Peter Fox, Esq. Barrister at Law.

At Dandstown, County Kildare, James Archbold, Esq.

At Brooklodge, the Rev. James Stopford, Prebendary of Killaspigmillane, in the Diocese of Cork.

Suddenly, in Bandon, John Cotter, Esq. Town Clerk of that Corporation.

In Dublin, the Lady of John Milliken, Esq. half-pay of the Royal Staff Corps.

At Knapelagh, Mr. Robert Macklin, of Whitefriar-street,
 The wife of Robert Walker, of Springpark, Co. Dublin.

At Lisburn, much regretted, John Hancock, Esq.

Mr. James Mugee, of Belfast.

At Bullinrobe, the eldest son of Courtney Kenny, Esq.

At his Son's, (Counsellor M. Carthy,) Cook-street, Cork, aged 69, Mr. Dan. M'Carthy.

In Kilkenny, Patrick Kearney, Esq. formerly Proprietor of the Leinster Journal.

At Cirencester, Doctor Matthew Baillie, one of the eminent Physicians who attended his late Majesty.

Lord Yarborough; his Lordship is succeeded in his title
 by his eldest son, Charles Anderson.

At Edinburgh, Dr. John Smith, physician.

At Glasgow, Captain Duncan Stewart, late 79th Regiment

At Twickenham, the Honourable Mrs. Butler.

At Edinburgh, Captain Alexander Skene, of his Majesty's ship Britannia.

Aged 84, Sir Allen Chambre, late Judge of the Common Pleas.

Captain Skene, R. N.

Mary, relict of the late Mr. Thomas Gurney, of Peel's
 Coffee-house, Fleet-street, London.

At Penzance, the wife of Serjeant-Major Richards, late of the Royal Cornwall Militia.

At St. John's, Newfoundland, the Rev. John Power, of the Order of St. Francis, formerly of Waterford.

Of typhus fever, the Rev. John Leigh, Ecclesiastical Commissary at Newfoundland.