LIFE DEPARTMENT.

Life Insurance is of material concern to those who possess income dependant on Life, enabling such to provide for the Widow, Child, or whomever he may alseire to leave in confort, at the triding sacrifice of an annual premium—It affords also collateral security to persons advancing Money or. Annuties, or otherwise. Leases determinable on one or more Lives may be rendered nearly sequal to Frezhold Estates, hy insuring the amount of the fine payable on the decease of the parties inserted in such Laues, so at to the decease of the parties inserted in such Laues, so at to the decease of the parties inserted in such Laues, so at to the decease of the parties inserted in such Laues, so at the continuous contribution. To persons in possession of good Estates, it will provide a sum of ready money for the purpose of discharging incumbrances, immediately at the death of the party whose Lafe is insured, a circumstance frequently desirable at such at time. And it will be further proved applicable in a variety of circumstances too numerous for rectual.

The inestimable value of security against Loss by Fre, is too obvious to med enforcement, it is a precaution which, it is presumed, no prudent person neglects to take.
