THOMAS ELLIS.

The Directors beg leave to call the attention of the Public to the grounds on which they rest their claim to confidence and support. They are simply these—A Capital of sufficient magnitude to answer with promptitude all demands for Losses—Premiums on Life Insurance at the reduced rates, which the more recent calculations have lately introduced—and Fire and Marine Insurance on the most liberal terms, with a disposition formed on principle, to settle with the Insured, in case of Loss, with the utmost firmness and alacrity; while to many, perhaps to most of those whom the Directors address, it may be a matter of consideration, that in resorting to an Irish Company, they promote National Industry, and assist in preventing the drain of Money annually transmitted as premium and profit to the English Companies, to an extent hardly credible.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

Life Insurance is of material concern to those who possess income dependant on Life, enabling such to provide for the Widow, Child, or whomever he may desire to leave in comfort, at the trifling sacrifice of an annual premium—It affords also collateral security to persons advancing Money or Annuities, or otherwise. Losses determinable on one or more Lives may be rendered nearly equal to Freehold Estates, by insuring the amount of the fine payable on the decease of the parties inserted in such Leases, so as to produce the sum required for renewal. It further applies to relieve the anxieties of those engaged in extended undertakings. To persons in possession of good Estates, it will provide a sum of ready money for the purpose of discharging incumbrances, immediately at the death of the party whose Life is insured, a circumstance frequently desirable at such a time. And it will be further proved applicable in a variety of circumstances too numerous for recital.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The inestimable value of security against Loss by Fire, is too obvious to need enforcement. It is a precaution which, it is presumed, no prudent person neglects to take.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

In this branch of Insurance, the Directors will guide themselves by the nature of transactions, such as they are in Commerce; and wishing to act with perfect liberality, they trust their fellow-citizens and countrymen in general, will enable them so to do, by placing before them, in common with the other Insurance Companies, and the Under-writers at Lloyd's, such Risks as they wish to have Insured against the dangers of Navigation.

JAMES O'HARA, Secretary.

N. B. Lives Assured with this Office, shall be at liberty to pass by Sea in Steam or other decked vessels, to or from any one part of the United Kingdom, to any other part thereof; and in time of peace to or from any part of the said United Kingdom, direct to or from any part of the Continent, situate between the Elbe and Brest, without being required to pay any additional premium; or to procure a license from the Court of Directors.

Dublin 18, Oct. 1823.

The Directors announce to the Public that they have this day elected their Agent for Limerick, and its District, of whom may be had, the Company's Rates and Proposals, for the Life and Fire Departments of Assurance.

MR. CHARLES O'HARA

By Order,

JAMES O'HARA, Secretary.

ATLAS

Assurance Company,

ESTABLISHED ON THE EQUITABLE PLAN, CAPITAL, £1,200,000, Sterling.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Fire Policies falling due the 29th Sept. inst. require to be Renewed within fifteen days after, otherwise they become void.

EVERY FIFTH Year the Assured WILL BE PAID a Return of the Premiums he has lodged with the Company, in proportion to the surplus Sum that may be in reserve, after payment of Losses.

The Return paid to Fire Policy Holders for the five years ending at Christmas, 1823,

WAS 25 PER CENT,

BEING

A BONUS OF ONE-FOURTH

Of the Premiums Deposited in that Period.

LIFE DEPARTMENT,

Every SEVENTH Year an ADDITION will be made to the sum assured by the Policy, on the principle so beneficially practised by the EQUITABLE OFFICE. Under this principle the sum to be paid under a Policy assuring £1,000 only, may become £1500 or £2,000 payable without the payment of any extra Premium.

Note—The usual reference to Medical and other Friends will be dispensed with by the ATLAS, in cases where the parties may desire the same, when the life to be assured appears before any of the Committee of Proprietors in Ireland and is approved of by them.

The ATLAS was the first Company to permit persons whose lives are assured, to pass in decked vessels, whether propelled by steam or otherwise, between the British Isles, or to or from certain ports of the Continent.
