ATLAS Assurance Company.
ESTABLISHED ON THE EQUITABLE PLAN,
CAPITAL, £1,200,000, Sterling.
FIRE DEPARTMENT.
Fire Policies falling due the 29th Sept. inst. require to be Renewed within fifteen days after, otherwise they become void.

EVERY FIFTH Year the Assured WILL BE PAID A Return of the Premiums he has lodged with the Company, in proportion to the surplus Sum that may be in reserve, after payment of Losses.
The Return shall be to the Policy Holders for the five years ending at Christmas, 1823.

WAS 25 PER CENT, BEING A BONUS OF ONE-FOURTH Of the Premiums Deposited in that Period.
LIFE DEPARTMENT.

EVERY SEVENTH Year an ADDITION will be made to the sum assured by the Policy, on the principle so beneficially practised by the EQUITABLE OFFICE. Under this principle the sum to be paid under a Policy assuring £1,000 only, may become £1,500 or £2,000 payable without the payment of any extra Premium.

Note.—The usual reference to Medical and other Friends will be dispensed with by the ATLAS, in cases where the parties may desire the same, when the life to be assured appears before any of the Committee of Proprietors in Ireland and is approved of by them.

The ATLAS was the first Company to permit persons whose lives are assured, to pass in docketed vessels, whether propelled by steam or otherwise, between the British Isles, or to or from certain parts of the Continent.
