

County Cork, and demanded the house of John Allen they found opposed their taking, on which down and severely beaten. An place at Churchtown, before Esq. late High Sheriff, and the Rector of the Parish, from appeared strong grounds for suspensions had not come of any without the knowledge of the his is the favourable opinion those Gentlemen, but in all pro- trage was committed by their hours.

evening, the house of Mr. Pur- ear Liscarroll, was attacked and The robbery is supposed to mitted by some wretches return- ir of that town, where there is as planned. Mr. Purdon some nformation against a fellow who expressions in a public-house in ng outrages were committed week, in the parish of Mourne miles from Mallow :--- property of Thomas Roynane, and stabbed in several parts of onging to Patrick Mullane, had quite close to the skull.

property of Timothy Horrigan, and inhumanly stabbed. A cow enis Graney was also houghed.

y circumstance took place during at the tanyard of Mr. McManara

. A poor man named Callaghan over a hole, which was filled g liquor used in tanning, when, that a fit seized him, and he fell g liquid. He was taken up in a and died in a few hours afterwards. subject to epilepsy.

of Cork contains one million and the late census returned and two thousand depending e assistance for support!!!

of all the late Post-Office regula- seems to be to retard, rather than e conveyance of Correspondence.

ter Saturday next the post for be dispatched from Cork at 6 a. m.

8 p. m. This, as will at once tard the Correspondence an entire eas an answer may now be recei- merick on the morning of the y the proposed regulation it cannot ll the third.

low Fox-hounds will meet at the es, in the month of December :—

, Liscarroll; Wednesday, 10th,

Saturday, 13th, Copstown; Wed-

Rockforest; Saturday, 20th,

y; Wednesday, 21th, Cecilstown;

h, Longfield's-bridge; and Wed- Mout North.

the subject their best consideration. The con- sequence is, that a contract has been entered into, and an arrangement formed, which are at once judicious and satisfactory.

From this day, the Cork Coach from this City will leave the Post-Office at half-past eleven o'clock, and arrive in Cork at eight in the evening—leaves Cork at six in the morning, and arrives here at half-past two.

A meeting of the citizens of Waterford, convened by the Mayor, was held yesterday, for the purpose of considering some means of having the Mail-Coach between that City and Dublin placed on the same footing as it had been previous to the alteration which took place on the 15th of last month.

William H. Burke, Esq. has been appointed to the command of the Griper Revenue Cruizer, on the Irish station, as a mark of his steady and efficient conduct, while on board his Majesty's Yacht Royal George, at the memorable period of our Sovereign's visit to Ireland.

The Rev. John Palliser is appointed to the Curacy of Abington Parish.

The Lord Chancellor has been pleased to appoint the Hon. Wm. Hare a Justice of the Peace and Quorum for the County of Cork.

On Sunday last, a fire broke out in the concerns of Mr. John Coomey, Upper William-street, which was got under with little damage.

On Thursday morning, at six o'clock, a fire broke out in the stables of Mr. John Owens, Glentworth-street, which portended destruction to the entire neighbourhood, but by the assistance of the neighbours, the fire-men, and engine of the Sun Assurance Company, it was extinguished.

Yesterday, the Mayor held a Coronor's Inquest on the body of James Lardner, a youth, who was killed the day before by an old mud wall falling on him. Verdict—"Accidental Death."

A man was found dead this morning on the road side close to Ballinacurra Pike. The body has been seen by the neighbouring people, but has not been recognized as yet. The Mayor has proceeded to hold an Inquest.

The Mayor, in his perambulations on the evening of Sunday se'night, discovered twenty-three publicans vending spirituous liquors.—

They were severally summoned, and fined in the mitigated penalties of £8 12s. 6d. which the Mayor has disposed of as follows:—To the Lying-in Hospital, £3; to the Roman Catholic Charity Schools, £1; Protestant Female Orphan School, £1; and £3 12s. 6d. to Indigent Room-keepers.

A cask of fraudulent Butter was condemned this day by the Mayor, and the price given to the House of Industry.

The Treasurer of the United Shools, Clare-street, has received £1 5s. from Peter O'Brien, Esq. in aid of that Institution.

There was a most extraordinary digression of the Mercury on Wednesday night, to the lowest degree—and it rose again a short time after with equal quickness of motion.

in useful works.

A sporting deer was enlarged o near Newcastle, by the Knight of G fineness of the day contributed mu sports of the field. The rivalry of t men for the lead exhibited exquisite ship. The hounds were excellent, came to a check. The chase continued an hour and ten minutes, when, af over fourteen miles of difficult grounc was saved by John Dowling, Esq other Gentlemen.

We request the attention of our re Advertisement in this day's paper, g of a meeting intended to be held on Me for the promotion of education in thi The society which it is intended to professes nouew or untried theory in it is simply proposed to extend to neglected County of Limerick, the a system which has stood the test o experience in other and more favour the Country. To those who are not with the operations of the London Society, it may be satisfactory to lea at this moment engaged in the Scriptu tion of upwards of 70,000 children

At the Petty Sessions in Newcastl terday se'night, two men were conv the Magistrates, at the instanc of Esq. Chief Constable, for selling sp

The General Quarter Sessions of for the County Kerry will be held on Tuesday, the 6th, and at Tralee the 16th of January next.

The Quarter Sessions for the Cou for granting Spirit Licenses, will Fermoy, on Saturday, the 27th, and on Tuesday, the 30th inst.; at Cork the 2d, and at Bandon, on Saturday January next.

Committed to the County Jail, Smithwick, Esq. John Costelloe, for

The following has been received through the Post-Office:—

The Proprietor of the Limerick Chroni form a public benefit, by calling the attentio duty it is, to exact the payment of the very Taxes now imposed in Ireland, particularly bear on the lower orders. One in particular that of Shooting without Game Certificates— seen, almost daily, in the environs of Limerick's tax with impunity—and should this弊 those whose business it is to cause the heavy levied for such a palpable evasion of the la tion will be made for such dereliction of vernment.

WANTED
A GOOD COOK, that has lived in resp and can be well recommended. She the business of a Country House, parti Baking.
Apply at the Chronicle Office.
Limerick,