

ally, in this County, on return of Tipperary, was most bruwithin one mile of that town.— company with him were pelted forced to withdraw, and effect their purpose.

horseback, and a man of Mr. behind him—this man was deli-d to dismount and get away out they commenced the work of an inquest was to have been held yesterday, but we have not yet ult.

we have ascertained the minute pecting the Horrid Murder of ce. The unfortunate man was arybrook, in the Barony of Du-short distance from Kanturk, to was proceeding on Sunday eve-three and four o'clock, when he at Ballyheen, by a party of Insur-deprived him of his bayonet, the ad, stabbed him through the heart terally beat out his brains with which they left behind them; they he wretched man along the road into a ditch among a parcel of robbed him of his watch, some several articles he was bringing to a hearing the particulars of this urrence, Mr. F. Crossley, Chief Dahallow, immediately set out ook, with a party of Police, and of Sunday night apprehended persons, some of whom were found t of washing the blood of their if their clothes.

ng the above, we have it in our e that one of the infamous party in, has turned approver, and has number of the persons in custody, erned in the diabolical murder.— scholy satisfaction to the ends of , that the savages engaged in this ork of slaughter, are sure to atone es: for independently of the corromony of the approver, we are creed that there are sufficient facts to een of them as being engaged in it.

ph appeared in our last (from a nt) on the subject of sporting in ood." Had we known the writer's ve do now, it should not have had , hurried as we were at the moment, er usual scrutiny. Far, indeed, is ish to cast a reproach upon so meri-y of men as that paragraph alluded ts against them, individually or ve never hear—and the gallant mand of the district knows how to oops so as to leave very few leisure h field sports!—But, invidious a the world, and will be to the end by the year in manner pointed out by the 27th sec. of the Act 4th, Geo. 4th, cap. 99, for establishing Composition for Tithes in Ireland.— The amicable manner in which this agreement has been effected, will induce the remainder of the Union to follow the example.

The sittings of the Parliamentary Commissioners of Revenue Inquiry in Dublin, terminated this week.

A Memorial from the retail Spirit Dealers of Belfast, has been presented to the Lords of the Treasury, praying for a reduction of License Duty, to which they are at present liable. The Memorial was subscribed by upwards of 120 spirit dealers of Belfast, and we have been informed that the prayer of the Memorialists will be conceded, to a certain extent, from and after the 5th of January next.

The Postmasters-General have offered a reward of £50 for such information as may lead to the apprehension of the persons who were concerned in the late attack on the Cork and Dublin Coach, near Cashel.

On Thursday, the Mayor held inquests on the bodies of Walter Prendergast and Garrett Fox, who came by their deaths awfully sudden on Tuesday night, the former in George's-street, the latter in Nile-street. They were both in apparent good health during the previous day. Verdict in both cases, "Died by the Visitation of Almighty God."

The Mayor held an inquest in George's-street, on the body of Honora Lillis, who broke her collar-bone by falling down a flight of stairs, she being in a state of intoxication. Verdict accordingly.

The fair of Limerick, on Thursday, like all the late fairs, was an ensample of old times—good demand and good prices—any thing in the shape of Beef was greedily purchased—Pigs were rather dull sale, and a damp in the price; 32s. was the highest.

The fair of Newcastle, held on Wednesday, was attended by many purchasers from different parts. The sale of fat Pigs had been totally obstructed from the high price demanded—Horned Cattle made but a poor appearance, it is supposed in consequence of the generality of them being under seizure for rent and arrears.

A boy named Donnelleen Cussen, alias Stuttering Daniel, eloped a few days back from Limerick, with the amount of his master's load of corn and pigs, which he conveyed from Newcastle to the market, and has not since been heard of.

A short time ago, David Connors, from Stream-hill, Doneraile, took a field from Thomas Ryves, of Liskelly, in the Parish of Early, upon which he put ten cows to graze, and, on Wednesday last, drove them off under pretence of going to the fair of Tipperary, fraudulently taking with him a Cow belonging to Ryves.— He is of a sallow complexion, light made, black hair, with a hump on his shoulders.

demanded five shillings of value. Accord-up, and levied a fine of 5s. on the another being partially made up in a manner—the amount of the fines was between the House of Industry, Act directs.

The Treasurer of the House of I received from the Mayor £5 12s inflicted on persons who offered pu-lently made up for sale at the Weig

The Mayor has given 10s. to Do and 10s. to Mrs. Mahony, to enal convey two distressed natives of their country.

Sir C. Marrett has handed to M for a distressed room-keeper, 2s. poor orphan, named Hooper, 2s. purchasing shoes.

The Directors of the United Sch street, acknowledge to have receive of One Pound from William Creagh the Very Rev. Doctor Hogan.

The Hon. Colonel Fitzgibbon's name mistake in the list of the Committee former auxiliary to the London Hibernian Society schools and circulating the Holy Scriptures

Committed to the County Jail, b of Glin, John Barry, for stealin wearing apparel—By Samuel Hardi Sheahan, for stealing cattle destrain By the Rev. E. Geraghty, Darby William Frawley, found guilty of tuous liquors without license, and two months imprisonment, or pa John Dickson, Esq. Thomas Lo Danagher, and William Lee, for destrained for rent—By Thomas F John Carmody, for robbing the ho Sandes, Esq. at Mount-Pleasant.

Committed to the City Jail, b Mathew Heaffy, for assaulting an lip of William Ryan; Patrick Bour ing a Market Juror in the discharg John Hewit, for assaulting a soldi Regiment; Jeremiah Brien, ou porters, for assaulting a man who interfere with their regulations.
Drought, Margaret Hourigan, fo Hannah Gearon, for larceny.—By James M-Namara, for combinati Connell, for larceny.

TITHE

TO BE LET,

FOR SUCH TERM AS MAY BE A
The Rectorial and Vicarial

PARISH OF MUNG

The Tithes of the Parish of SAINT CAHIRNARRY, and CAPP

And the Rectorial Tithes of the Par

ALL IN THE DIOCESE OF LIM

Application to be made to JAMES M his Office, Arthur's-Quay, Limerick.

N. B.—No person need apply who can able security.

Dec