

Proposals for the Insurance of Goods, on or before January, Inst.
Limerick, January 10, 1824.

MERCHANTS OF LIMERICK

cases been overcharged on all Goods either Imported or Exported, from a frequently one or more per Cent. on and in England, above what they can now in their Native Country.

Goods—Several of the most respectable Merchants have experienced it for the last three years, with Slips of all classes, and no premium has exceeded £1½ per cent up to this day, with the exception of one case rather like a forlorn hope.
10th December, 1823.

WILLIAM WILSON.

Insurance Agency Office,
George's-Street.

Merchandise for Importation from any part of the World may be Insured with as much certainty as can be had, and with the most prompt dispatch and attention to the interests of the Insured. The Company will afford much satisfaction.
SPECIAL INSURANCE COMPANY has been established at the Rates of Fire Premiums. In the event of a loss, liberality shall distinguish it.

EXCHANGE

ASSURANCE,

by Royal Charter and Act of Parliament,
in the Year 1720,

BUILDINGS, GOODS, AND SHIPS
FROM FIRE,

AND ALSO FOR THE

INSURANCE OF LIVES.

George's-street, Limerick:—

Insurance on Lives, and against Fire, can be effected more easily than in any other Insuring Office in Ireland: Fire Policies are issued either by sending for them to England, or contracts must be done at other Offices; and those who are to be assured, have only to appear at the Office, who does not require Medical Certificates. The sum insured may be as high as £10,000; and at the advanced age of 70 years.

Persons who are assured by this Company, are not restricted to any one part of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to another, but may pass, in time of peace only, in any British ports and places to any foreign port and Coast, without extra premium, and subject to apply, as heretofore, to the respective Offices.

Buildings, and Goods of every description, Cattle, and Haggarts—Ships in harbour, and repairing, insured at a moment's notice.

Some of the rates of Premiums on Fire, viz:—

DEATHS.

On Monday night, at her house in Dominick-street, after enduring a tedious illness with meekness, and resignation, Mrs. Wilkinson, lady of Alderman Thomas P. Wilkinson, of this City. The many excellencies of this best of women, render her death truly afflicting, not only to her immediate family, but to a wide and highly respectable circle of relations and friends; but that respect and attachment her virtues procured her here, were secondary to that divine spirit, which, in the even and useful exercise of all his charities marked her journey through this life to the mansions of the blessed.

On Saturday last, in Clare-street, Mr. Abraham Abell, one of the Society of Friends.

On Monday morning, at his house, Lavitt's-quay Cork John Brown, Esq. an honourable and intelligent merchant, whose death is an irreparable loss to his afflicted family, and a cause of sincere regret to his numerous friends.

At his seat, Burnham-house, near Dingle, on Sunday, Lord Ventry, having survived Lady Ventry about one year. His Lordship is succeeded in his title and estates by his eldest son, the Hon. William Mullins, now in France. His Lordship possessed considerable acquired property, the disposal of which must be regulated by his will, the particulars of which are not yet known. His Lordship was aged 86 years, and was created a Baron on the 31st July, 1800.

In Tralee, Letitia, wife of Rowland Blennerhassett, Esq.

At Graig, County Wexford, George Carr, Esq.

In Galway, of fever, Patrick Conolly, Esq. Attorney.

In Dublin, the Rev. Mr. Steats, Methodist Preacher.

In Youghal, aged 11 years, Catherine Helena, daughter of Richard Fitzgerald, Esq.

In Mallow, at an advanced age, Miss Alice Cox, granddaughter of Lord Chancellor Cox.

At Cove, Lawrence Roche, Esq.

Mrs. C. D. Hoare, of Pill-lane, Dublin.

In Castlebar, Mr. David Hutchinson.

In London, Michael Kenny, Esq. late of the Army Medical Hall.

THE MARKETS.

We had a good Market of Wheat this day, but prices did not exceed last quotations; Millers gave 1s. 11d. to 2s. per stone for Red, and 2s. 1d. per stone for White: good merchantable samples brought 1s. 8d. to 1s. 10d. per stone. —Oats, steady at 11½d.—Barley, 12½d.—In Flour no alter-
