

JANUARY, 17, 1824.

In order to prepare for the Spring and Summer Supply, (the former of which is now preparing for shipping,) Winter Stock, forming an elegant Assortment of Black, Blue, Oxford, Drab, and Medley CLOTHS, newest Corin-ian Ribbed CASSIMERES, London WAISTCOATING, &c. imported in October last, Free of Duty, will com- mence Selling on the 19th Instant, TEN PER CENT. UNDER THEIR ORIGINAL COST!!! This system, which is regularly observed by the

WEST OF ENGLAND COMMISSION WARE-HOUSE,

In conclusion of the Winter and Summer Sale, at all times, affords its Customers an opportunity of obtaining New manufactured Goods suited to each season, and prevents the possibility of its accumulating an old Stock, which otherwise so commonly abound with. The reduced price will plainly marked in figures on each article.

M'MAHON is obliged to make a return of Sales for the year, which must be accomplished previous to the Spring ply; therefore the Manufacturers are resolved to carry their system into effect, though at a considerable sacrifice of profit. He now earnestly recommends his friends by making a speedy purchase, to avail themselves of this extraordinary advantage.

It is deemed almost unnecessary to observe, that this Establishment owes its unprecedented success to the fair system which it has been governed all through, particularly that marking the lowest price on each article, and having its supply from the first sources in the West of England.

M'MAHON thinks it incumbent on him to inform the public, that some petty Retailers, enjoying the rapid success of his Establishment, have shamelessly thrust themselves forward as Importers, designating their shops as Commission Houses, &c. &c. thinking thereby to allure strangers the more so artfully and perfidiously paid for them: the fact has been that in their struggle with each other in endeavoring to vie with THE WEST OF ENGLAND COMMISSION WAREHOUSE, they have quarrelled amongst themselves, and are now exposing the artifices and deception practiced to. It appears they have had no connexion whatever with English Manufactories, and receive their scanty supply from some. This Establishment looks with contempt at the conduct between these petty dealers, particularly so as recent instances place some of these pitiful strugglers entirely without the notice of THE WEST OF ENGLAND COMMISSION WAREHOUSE, which will always endeavor to uphold and maintain the exalted station it holds in the City, and preserve what is dear to the fair trader—its REPUTATION and CHARACTER.

M'Mahon begs particularly to observe, that his name is placed over the door of the West of England Commission Warehouse, 10, Colclough's-Quay.

ROYAL EXCHANGE ASSURANCE,
Established by Royal Charter and Act of Parliament,
In the Year 1720,
ASSURING BUILDINGS, GOODS, AND SHIPS FROM FIRE, AND ALSO FOR THE ASSURANCE OF LIVES.
No. 117, George's-street, Limerick:—

FOR THE
ASSURING OF HOUSES, GOODS, &c.
FROM FIRE:
SHIPS, MERCHANDISE, &c.
FROM THE PERILS OF THE SEA;
Lines; and for the purchase and granting of Annuities.
Principal Office—No. 3, COLLEGE-GREEN, DUBLIN.

Capital—ONE MILLION.
THE Directors beg to apprise their Proprietary and the Public, that they have determined on reducing the rates of common INSURANCES against FIRE, from Two Shillings to One Shilling and Sixpence per Cent. per annum, from this day.

IN THE LIFE DEPARTMENT, their Premiums, as originally fixed, are on a scale offering advantages, not exceeded by any other Establishment of a similar kind.

MARINE INSURANCES effected with dispatch and liberality; and in this Department the Mercantile Public will not fail to bear in mind that this Company was the first to issue their Policies free of any Charge, and to discharge their Losses without deduction.
N. B.—Fire Policies transferred free of expense to the Assured.

Persons whose Lives may be Assured with this Company have liberty to pass by sea in Steam or other decked Vessels, from any Port in the United Kingdom, to any other therein, or to or from any port between the Elbe and Brest inclusive, without being required to pay any extra Premium, or to procure a License from the Board of Directors.

PETER O'BRIEN, Bank-place,
Agent for Limerick.
15th Oct. 1823.

BRITISH COMMERCIAL INSURANCE COMPANY,
FOUNDED FOR THE PURPOSE OF INSURANCE OF LIVES AND PROPERTY, THE PURCHASE AND SALE OF ANNUITIES, THE ENDOWMENT OF CHILDREN, &c. &c. &c.
NO. 35, CORN-HILL, LONDON, AND NO. 111, GRAFTON-STREET, DUBLIN.

THE DIRECTORS of this Company, in advancing their claims for support, beg leave to state simply and plainly the advantages which accrue to persons Insuring with them. In the first place, instead of promising any return of their profits, they grant Policies at Premiums much lower than those of other Companies, as may be seen by schedules and tables to be had at their office.

They will receive Premiums Quarterly, Half-yearly, or Yearly, a convenience which has been already found to be a great object to Insurers, whose income make such payments desirable. Persons assured by this Company, are not liable to be called on to contribute towards its losses,

THE CAPITAL OF THE COMPANY BEING ALONE LIABLE.

And here it may be observed, in answer to the appeal for nationality put forward by the Agents of other Companies, who lay claim to public support from keeping their profits in Ireland, that the British Commercial Company, since their first establishment in this country, have vested their Premiums and Profits invariably in Irish Securities, so as to be immediately available for any demand which occasion may require; and moreover, that a large proportion of the Shareholders are

IRISHMEN, RESIDENT IN IRELAND; thereby extending to this Country all the benefits which a British Company united with Irish Shareholders in Capital and Interest could afford, not to mention the great saving in point of Premiums generally, the rates charged by the BRITISH COMMERCIAL INSURANCE COMPANY being for certain ages nearly twenty per cent. lower than those charged by Companies claiming support for their nationality; nor does this Company require any extra Premium from persons passing between these countries, or between the Texel and Brest, in decked or Steam Vessels.

IN THE FIRE DEPARTMENT, which has been lately superadded, with an INCREASED CAPITAL, a corresponding regard for PUBLIC CONVENIENCE and ECONOMY will be found to have acuated the Directors, in the Table of Rates which they have prepared for THIS Branch of Insurance—in which a person can insure for Seven Years—and, in case of Loss, TEN PER CENT. ON THE AMOUNT WILL BE PAID WITHIN ONE WEEK AFTER THE FIRE TAKES PLACE.

As an opportunity now presents itself to the friends of the Establishment to change their Policies of Insurance from other offices, the Quarter ending on the 25th of this month, the Directors have to state that such change can be effected at their Offices without expense or trouble to the Insurer.

A liberal allowance is made to Solicitors and others bringing business to this Office; and every information and facility given to effecting Insurances, by
THOMAS STUBBS,
Acting Agent, and Secretary to the Irish Department.
