REMOVAL
OF QUIN'S EXTENSIVE WINE, SPIRIT
AND GROCERY ESTABLISHMENT.

MICHAEL QUIN,

DESERVEDLY grateful for the distinguished patronage conferred on his late Establishment, No. 2, Honan's-Quay, now informs his many Friends and the Public that he has removed to

No. 125, GEORGE'S-STREET,
(Late Swinburn's Hotel, and adjoining his present one.)

Which he has fitted up in a way suited to that increase of business he has so decidedly experienced from a liberal public. His present Stock of TEAS, consisting of 50 Chests of Green and Black, Evening and Breakfast, of prime quality, are well worth a trial. 30 Hds. of Raw Sugar—different shades, 20 Ditto of Refined ditto—Steam and Common, A large supply of Port, Sherry, and Teneiffé Wines, in timber and bottles. Spices, Liqueurs, New Fruit, &c. &c. Several Pancheons of Old Malt Whiskey, of that superior quality for which his Concerns are so remarkable. Foreign Brandy, Rums, and Gin, of the highest flavour. All these he can recommend—and as it is Quin's intention to sell every article at a moderate profit, he flatters himself, that at his new Concern the public will experience that kind of dealing which will ensure a continuance of the support his former establishment so generously received. As importer of his own Goods, he pledges himself that they are genuine and laid in on such terms as will enable
