

and that a list, attended with opened for subscriptions. Mr.
Lower Ormond, has engaged to of two Parishes. of Merchants, yesterday agreed to amount against the Roman Catholic ing Post states, that thousands of have been sworn in within these last nce Clinch has entered into bail, to Sessions, to answer for an assault ow, Editor of the Autidote. cellor was unable to attend the Beef-on Tuesday, owing to illness. ee Landlord the Marquis Hertford, 72000 English Acres in the North has reduced his rental £5000 uniformly gives preference to old was never known to harass or op--when in difficulties, he not only e rent (which is never looked for gales are due), but advances money hem---his support of every thing orious is truly laudable---and yet in tues he does not seek electioneering The writer in the Belfast paper the absentee Landlords possessing the South of Ireland, would imitate his example. ttles of Lord Clanmorris, at New-to be sold by the late Sheriff, County few days.
monde is daily expected in Kilkenny. onell is retained specially at Wex-in Assizes. cellor, on Wednesday, ordered the the cause of Spearing a. Lords Banrersdale, Trustees of Warren's Cork count.
are now in use in Dublin; the Police ed directions to seize the possessors lay evening, about five o'clock, as froy, eldest son of Mr. Sergeant s riding home through South King-horse became restive and threw him; f a hackney-coach, which was pass-ime, passed over his arm, and disloe was conveyed home, but we are te he is in a fair way of recovery. gin's house at Harrold's Cross, was an armed party on Monday night, pted to rob and murder him; the sed a hue and cry, which caused the s to decamp, but three of them were yesterday identified at the Head e. They belong to a desperate gang, committed several robberies near week.
e of a Military Gentleman of rank, Capel-street, was poisoned on Sunday taking too much laudanum. It is that to relieve some pains she ad-to herself 200 drops in two doses. corn tillage in the South of Ireland kably well.

Since writing the above, we have learned, that in consequence of Lord Norbury having taken ill, Mr. Sergeant Lefroy will take the Manster Circuit, in place of Judge Vandeleur.
At Mallow Sessions under the Insurrection Act, John Fitzgerald, Patrick Brusuehan, and David Jordan, were sentenced to seven years transportation; and on Wednesday, at Cork, James Ryan, Denis M'Carthy, John Cronin, and James Flynn, were sentenced to a like punishment.
The County Kildare Magistrates have me-morialled the Lord Lieutenant, to withdraw the Insurrection Act from their Bailiwick.
£100 reward is offered by the Postmasters-General, for the apprehension of the person who embezzled a letter containing fifty Bank of England notes, of £100, payable to Capt. Thomas Fenton, which letter was sent by London, the 20th ult. by Owen Wynne, Esq. M. P. to Capt.
Fenton, in Dublin.
£300 are offered for the persons who murdered Richard Pearson at Errill, near Rathdowney, Queen's County, on the 13th January.
Four Carpenters are sentenced to four months imprisonment in Waterford Jail, for combination at Dungarvan.
Thomas Tobin, who engrossed a lease for which he incurred £50 penalty, was lodged in Waterford Gaol, on Wednesday, for murdering his wife.
Weir, a constable is lodged in Cavan Jail, for murdering a man named Smith, the day of Mr. Maxwell's election.
One of the Police in the County of Kilkenny, named M'Mullen, was shot a few days since by the accidental explosion of a gun.
A few days ago, a large stone fell on Pat Riedy, at a quarry near Kilseely, County Clare, which unfortunately deprived him of life.
A boat with pigs from Kilrush, was upset on a weir in this river, in the storm on Friday night.
Cargo lost---crew saved.
Wednesday, the Mayor held an inquest on the body of a man named Roche, who was found dead in Mungret-Street; it appeared that the aged man left his lodgings in a feeble state the previous night, which was uncommonly cold, when he was seized with a fit which terminated his existence---verdict "died by the visitation of God." A coffin was provided for him by the Mayor.
In the afternoon of Wednesday, the Mayor held an inquest on the body of John Kennigan, a prisoner confined for stealing linen, who died in the hospital of the County Jail on that morning---it appeared in evidence, that for several days he was indisposed, which ended in a putrid fever---verdict accordingly.
Between the hours of four and five o'clock on Thursday last, the houses of Sir C. Marrett and Mr. Barry in Glentworth-street, were robbed; the former of silver spoons, and the latter of wearing apparel. Servants should be particular in not leaving the hal' doors open.
The houses of two Parish Priests, in the County Kilkenny, were robbed this week.

Carlow exercise is to be added to district.
Yesterday, being the annive-Battle of Barossa, the 2d Rifle tered here, who bore a distinguithat engagement, were decorated One hundred and fifty of the Battalion, under Captain Roche, and other stations in the Cou-arrived here on Thursday, to em-for Guernsey.
To-morrow, the head-quarter sisting of 400 of the 1st Royal talion, will arrive here from Cork to Galway. It is unusual in time find a Regiment continuing their Sabbath, but this corps passing th-day is accounted for, by the 58th (sooner than they expected) at Co-occupy the Barracks of the Vete-Twenty eight young lads, recru-Regiment of Foot, arrived here y-Cork, and proceeded for Dublin The 96th Regiment, now raisfaced with yellow and no faces It is said that Lord Wm. Bent-the 97th Regiment, General Com-and General Lyon the 99th Regi-Greenwood and Cox are app-to the 10th and 88th Regiments. and Campbell to the 71st Recorps have had new Colonels v-month.
Parliament has acted upon the Committee of Inspection of Ba-was held last Summer in Ireland.
Military Officers who accept masterships, forfeit half-pay durnuance in office.
Twenty-four Thousand Iron I-been provided for the Artillery sariat troops.
At present there are barracks fo-of Artillery; during the war th-racks for that respectable body to 87,000.
The Commission of Inquiry Courts of Ireland is not to be re-No Military Promotions appe-London Gazette.
The Admiral's flag at Leith wa-1st instant, and there is not to station in Scotland at present.
The Dwarf, Revenue Cutter, danchors in the harbour of Dupleday morning, and sank; one ma-His Majesty's ship Deconve-Campbell, is now paying prize capture of French Vessels in Arundel-street, Strand, London Alarming extent of Fever.--- the children of the Charter-schoo-have been ill of typhus fever; mitting attention and skilful tr-O'Reilly of Roscrea, the med-they are all recovered.