

and under 55 for shorter periods, are than are generally required—tables of the conditions of assurance, may be had free, in Cornhill, and at the Sun Fire Office, London; also of any of the Agents in Ireland.

AGENTS IN IRELAND ARE:—

MR. PEGG,	Dublin.
MR. SWINEY,	} Cork.
MR. OWEN,
MR. OWEN,	Newry.
MR. OWEN,	Clonmel.
MR. OWEN,	Belfast.
MR. OWEN,	Mallow.
MR. OWEN,	Waterford.
MR. OWEN,	Londonderry

whose lives are insured in this Office may peace, in any whole-decked vessel or any one part of the United Kingdom to sea, or between any port in the United Kingdom and any port on the Continent between Ham- burgh, both inclusive, without obtaining warrants, or paying any additional premium. Any person whose life is insured by it under such circumstances.

P. MURPHY,
Agent for Limerick.

PELICAN
INSURANCE COMPANY,
ST. AND SPRING-GARDENS
LONDON,
O'BRIEN, Agent,

As there have now elapsed since my appointment as Agent of the above Company in this City and District, and the Company have paid, £42,700.

As the magnitude of these claims is comparatively short, I feel great satisfaction to declare, that no individual ever experienced either difficulty, trouble, or delay in the contrary I can confidently refer to the never surpassed, and seldom equalled. I have paid losses in cases where the policy was void, and the premium, on the expiration of the fifteen days usually voided Policies where they were forfeited for two years without even a fine—also I have been forfeited in consequence of distress and the returned a considerable portion of the

is an object to the parties.

View of the many instances of liberality, shown in this City and District, and to justify to declare, the public have in a great measure, by the unprecedented support given to this Office.

advantages which the Company affords, it is known, that it may be considered unnecessary here to mention the immense patronage, not only in London, but in every part of the Empire, fully attests the popularity it has acquired; and the benefits those enjoy who place themselves under its protection; however, for the information of those acquainted with the regulations, a few of the advantages the Company offers are here subjoined.

It is made for military men serving in the Army, and from the simplicity of the form, an application is effected in a few minutes, and, if necessary, the knowledge of the person to be insured—may be being observed on all occasions.

and entrance charged.

is allowed for payment of Premiums after and SHOULD DEATH OCCUR WITH-

IN DAYS, THE INSURER IS ALLOW-

TO BENEFIT OF HIS INSURANCE,

HE PAYS IT, EVEN AFTER THE

The Lady of Lieutenant G. B. Williams, 3d Royal Veteran Battalion, of a son.

At Lakeville, the Lady of Lieutenant Organ, 85th Regt., of a son.

In Merrion-square, North, Dublin, the Lady of Lieut.
Colonel Pailiser, of a son.

At Brighton, the Lady of Captain St. Leger Hill, of a son.

At Weymouth, the Lady of Sir W. G. Parker, Bart.
Royal Navy, of a son.

At Youlston, Devon, the Lady of Sir Arthur Chichester, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

On Monday, in Bruff Church, by the Rev. Mr. McCollough, Rector, Lieutenant Meyrick, Adjutant of the 50th Regiment, and son of the Rev. Edward Meyrick, of Bath, to Catherine, fourth daughter of John White, of Galway, Esq.
and cousin to Sir John Jervis White Jervis, Bart. of Bally-Ellis, in the County of Wexford.

At Castle Hyde Church, by the Rev. Dr. Campion, Richard Gifford Campion, Esq. of Bushy Park, County
Cork, to Lucy, eldest daughter of the late Francis Drew, Esq. of Mocollop, County Waterford.

In Wexford, Captain James Harvey, of the Cape Corps, to Miss Fouden, daughter of the late Joshua Pounden, Esq.

At Islington, Richard Smith, jun. Esq. of Stoke Newington, to Mary Ann, youngest daughter of the Rev. Adam Clarke, L. L. D. F. A. S. of Canonbury-square.

DEATHS.

Of a malignant fever, Robert Dunn, Esq. of Eustace-Street, Dublin, Attorney.

At the Glebe House, Donaghmore, in the 83d year of his age, the Rev. John Mountgarret, Vicar of Donaghmore, diocese of Dromore.

At his house in King's-street, Cork, Thomas Exsham, Esq.

At Donaghadee, William Getty, Esq. late Pro-Collector of that Port.

In Dublin, Mrs. Hannah Mason, relict of the late Joseph Mason, of Charlemont-street, Esq.

Suddenly, at Barbadoes, on Christmas day, Lieut.-Colonel Popham, 24th Regiment, Deputy Quartermaster-General of the Army in the West Indies.

At Maryborough, Anne, relict of Samuel Dozey, Esq.

In Dublin, at a very advanced age, Mrs. Ashe, relict of the late Lovett Ashe, formerly of Ashgrove, in the County of Tipperary, Esq.

At Bath, Henry Peisley L'Estrange, of Moystown, Esq.
late Colonel of the King's County Militia.

At Rathmines, Jane, wife of Henry Cooper, Esq. of Mary-street, Dublin

At his house, on the Douglas Road, Cork, Edward Godfrey, Esq.

At Fermoy Barracks, very much regretted, Mary Jean, eldest daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel Jones, 71st Regiment, aged 20 years.

In Tralee, Mrs. Forbes, relict of Captain Forbes.

In Dublin, Thomas Callaghan, Esq. late of Fleet street.

Mrs. Alcock, relict of the late B. Alcock, Esq. of Kilkenny.

At his seat at Knockglass, County Kerry, Giles Rae, Esq.
Lieutenant Edward Carroll, formerly of the 86th Regt.

Merchant.

(From the Cheltenham Chronicle of Thursday last.)

With the deepest regret, we communicate the afflicting intelligence of the death of Christopher Knight Sanders, Esq. of the Royal Engineers, whose severe illness has for some time past excited so much interest in this Town. This melancholy event, which took place on Friday last, at Mural Cottage, the residence of his respected mother, has at once deprived his afflicted family of the best and most affectionate of sons and brothers; his numerous and respectable acquaintances, a most sincere friend; and the corps to which he belonged, a most talented and efficient officer. His memory will long be cherished by all who had the pleasure of truly knowing him:—but the soothing consolations of religion alone can afford any assuagement of grief to his bereaved relatives, whose sorrow no words can adequately express. He was endeared to them by the most amiable qualities that adorn the human heart—kindness, gentleness, and charity:—and was in himself a bright example of every excellence that could give lustre and happiness to domestic life.—
In the Society of Friendly Brothers, of which he was a zealous member, his loss is so universally felt and deeply deplored, that in order to testify their regard for his departed worth, and their respect for his memory, the Brethren of the Principal Knot have postponed the celebration of their Grand Festival of St. Patrick to Wednesday the 24th instant.