L EXCHANGE

ASSURANCE,

by Royal Charter and Act of Parliament,

In the Year 1720.

ON BUILDINGS, GOODS, AND SHIPS FROM FIRE,

AND ALSO FOR THE ASSURANCE OF LIVES.

7, George's-street, Limerick:—

Insurance on Lives, and against Fire, can be effected more easy and easier than at any other Insurance in Ireland: Fire Policies are issued either sending for them to England, or contracts must be done at other Offices; and Lives are to be assured, have only to appear who does not require Medical Certificates. Policies may be made as high as £10,000; and at the advanced age of five years.

Lives are assured by this Company, are Decked vessels from one part of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to another, and to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and also to pass, in time of peace only, in and from British ports and places to any foreign port, and to and from the East Indies, without extra premium, and subjected to apply, as heretofore, to the same regulations.

Buildings, and Goods of every description, Cattle, and Huggarts—Ships in harbour while repairing, Insured at a moment's notice.

Some of the rates of Premiums on Fire, viz:—

Insurance 2s. per Cent;
Hazardous 3s. Ditto;
Hazardous 5s. Ditto:—

The experience of this Company enable them to insure other special risks, at the lowest and most reasonable Premiums: Corn Stores, with one Kilo, consisting of Corn and Grass only, being considered a Hazardous Risk, are Insured at 3s. per cent. who have been informed by Insurance Agents.

Hazardous Premium will cover general risks, and in Corn Stores with Kilns, ought to be insured at 3s. per cent.

DEATHS.

William Thomas Mansell, Esq. of Terron, near this City.

On Tuesday, the 23d instant, it pleased the All wise and Gracious Providence of God, to remove from this earthly scene, in the 65th year of his age, the Rev. Gustavus Wybrants, for many years the faithful Minister of the Parish of Askeaton, in this Diocese, and of Castle Lyons, in the Diocese of Cloyne. This truly excellent man was too well known to require any notice of his character, any mention of his virtues, they are engraven indelibly upon the hearts of his flock, and all who knew him. He lived beloved and respected, and died, leaving to them and his sorrowing family, an encouraging example of the blessedness of those, who embrace with their whole heart the Religion of Jesus Christ.
