

ING AND GRANTING CITIES.
Anglesa-street, Dublin.
MILLION STERLING.
SURERS.
JOHN O'NEILL, and PAUL
BICK, Esqrs.
CTORS,

John O'Neill,
Valentine O'Connor,
Paul Lill Patrick,
Michael Roach,
Isaac Stewart,
John Joseph Scanlan,
Robert Walsh.

ITORS.
nis, and Patrick Woods, Esqrs. ompleting their first half year of their acknowledgments to the y which the Royal Irish has been the list of Insurance Companies, riends even higher security, they o the same amount with that of ow stands at One Million of means which have gained for them alone necessary to preserve it, it ue their attention to the business of friends and the public may rely fidelity in all their transactions.

DEPARTMENT.

Insurance are reduced to 1s 6d.
ourable to the public, that no rith prudence, be henceforth left

ON LIVES.

and with an honorable disposifrom any inconvenience. What-y, whether desired or not, is urances, as well by their Officers

ASSURANCES.

tes of the day, and all Losses paid atch.

ALLOWANCE MADE TO SOLICITORS Life Assurance at the Company's t, where attendance is given Daily, Clock.

may be Assured with this Company, n, in Steam and other Decked Ves-e United Kingdom, to any other y port between the Elbe and Brest required to pay any extra Premium, on the Board of Directors.

JAMES O'HARA, Secretary.
1824.

ention to all orders for Insurance and by

ARLES O'HARA,
Agent for Limerick.

, George's-Street, April 3, 1824.

ALBION

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

idge-Street, London,

DISH-ROW, RUTLAND-SQUARE,
DUBLIN

By order of the Court,
A. D'ESTERRE,
Deputy Clerk of the Peace for said County.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

ARRIVED,

Caroline, of this Port, Collins, sugars, &c. from Larga & Adams, of Cork.

True Blue, James, London, general cargo.
Quebec, Julian from Liverpool, coal and oak timber.
Hannah, Briggs, Liverpool, general cargo.
Aspasia, Munro, Stornoway, herrings.

SAILED,

Diligence Revenue Cutter, Lieutenant Pike, on a cruise, Nile, Megg, for Liverpool, oats, &c.

Lively Kate, for Belfast, wheat.
Midas, Prince, Sligo, flaxseed and staves.
Roscius, Rowcastle, Glasgow.

The Mary, M'Miller from Dublin, for Galway, has put into this river.

The Thomas, Harris, from this port, has arrived at London.

EXPORTS.

Woods, Galtskille, Glasgow, 1510 brls. oats, 8 packages furniture, Francis Spaight.

Nile, Megg, Liverpool, 500 brls. wheat, 500 brls. oats, 251 brls. pork, and 40 bales bacon, Wm. and Thos. Gabbett and others.

Friends, Lewis, Liverpool, 1154 brls. oats, 547 brls. wheat, and 205 brls. barley, James and Samuel Phelps.

Anne, Lewis, Liverpool, 800 brls. oats, 857 brls. wheat, and 100 brls. pork, Francis Spaight.

BIRTHS.

In Dublin, the Lady of John Dwyer, Esq. of a daughter.
At Guildford, Mrs. Spencer Percival, of a daughter.
In London, the Hon. Mrs. Peter Latouche, of a son.
In Edinburgh, the Lady of Lieut. Huttley, 94th Regiment, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

In Dublin, the Rev. Robert Handcock, to Jane, second daughter of Gerard Maclin, Esq. State Surgeon.
At Edinburgh, Charles Craigie Halkett, Esq. to Susan, daughter of Sir John Majoribanks, Bart. M. P.
At Paris, Robert Kerr, Esq. of the County Tyrone, to Ann, daughter of the late W. Gordon, Esq. of Windsor.
In Dublin, Henry William Seymour Stewart, Esq. of the 84th Regiment, to Emmeline, youngest daughter of the late John Newenham Devonshire, of Kilsbanick-House, County Cork, Esq.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at his seat, Farm-Lodge, in this County, Henry Potter, Esq. a Gentleman who, in the course of a long and active life, maintained the character of an honest man; his dealings were extensive, and in any one transaction he was never known to have broken his word. He has left a numerous family to deplore the loss of an affectionate parent, and in his death the poor of that neighbourhood will feel a loss—indeed his advice was looked up to by them all, he settled their disputes, and relieved their distresses—in short, he was a good and charitable man.

On Wednesday last, Caroline, the infant daughter of Thomas P. Vokes, Esq.

At Rosetown, County Kildare, John Kenny, Esq.
At Greenhill, County Roscommon, Bart. O'Farrell, Esq.
Henry Holden Hamilton, Esq. of Belfast.
In Waterford, the relict of Captain Robert Hunt.
Mr. William Cottle, of Watling-street, Dublin.
John Jackson, Esq. of Criens-House, County Monaghan.
At Dresden, Baron Just.
In Nassau-street, Dublin, Mr. Murray, Confectioner.
At Newtownbarry, Lieut. Le Toler, 88th Regiment.
Mrs. Stapoole, wife of Mathias Stapoole, of Lisconnor, County Clare, Esq.

Suddenly, at Lismore, much esteemed, Mr. Kelly, an eminent Civil Engineer.

At St. John's, New Brunswick, William B. Powlet, Esq.
Sir G. Chetwynd, Bart.

THE MARKETS.

Prices continue stationary—Red Wheat 1s. 11d. per stone;
White, 2s. per ditto—inferior in little demand.—Oats, 10½d.
to 11d. per stone.—Barley, 13d.—Flour, 45s. to 50s. per cwt.—Potatoes 3½d. per