

at Lefroy arrived yesterday, at County Tipperary, the seat of his, Richard Sadleir, Esq. on a visit. Sessions at Cashel on Monday, the were occupied for some time in vice in favour of seven men from had been sentenced to be trans- me since for having been absent les at night, and for having drank, ere they had assembled, "success gn boys!"

urn will hold a Sessions under the Act, for the County Limerick, at Thursday next the 22d inst. and on the 23d---at Six-mile-Bridge, on the 24th.

r will preside at a Sessions at Monday next.

e Gould stated, in a record at the k, that a receipt in full of all ot of the slightest use when given tion.—Mr. Gould said that not in five hundred was aware of the increase in England.—Baron s charge to the Oxford Grand that the calendars of the neigh- es were stained with murders of ous and shocking character which humanity"

s appointed Chief of the English s.

ner is to be given to Mr. O'Con- mber of Commerce, in Cork, on

Esq. is reinstated as a Magistrate Cork.

rates of the County Westmeath, Castlemaine, have presented an ajor O'Donoghue, Chief Magis- s, expressive of their high sense s for the preservation of the public in that County, which was on ced under the Constabulary Act. eral Sir George Murray, Colonel egiment, is elected M. P. of the rd Combermere is now on a mili- n through the North of Ireland.

y last, three Companies of the t marched into Cork Barracks.

r of the Regt. are daily expected. Regiment embark at Greenock on ext, for Gibraltar.

gements which have been made New Levy, it has been deemed irect that one-half of the recruits ed in Ireland, and the other half in.

The want of employ is more in England, the regulations there- rd relief to some hundreds of the employed, and able-bodied men r. No returns have yet been re- e different Recruiting Parties in

This evening, nine men, from the Petty Ses- sions at Patrick's-Well, were lodged in the County Jail, to be tried under the Insurrection Act; they were taken at a wake, on the 9th inst.

Yesterday being Good Friday, was observed in this City with every religious respect, the shops were closed, business suspended, and the different places of worship were crowded to excess, by the inhabitants and military.

Upwards of 1500 persons were at the Oratorio, at St. Michael's Chapel, on Thursday evening.

James Bennett, Esq. Coroner, held an inquest on Tuesday, on the body of Thomas Bourke, a boy about 14 years of age, who came by his death in consequence of a horse taking head near Fedamore-hill, and the wheel of a cart loaded with turf rolling over his body; verdict accordingly.

A man named Connell was killed in the neigh- bourhood of Tubrid, County Kerry, on Saturday evening last, in a quarrel, originating in his at- tempting to walk across another person's field.

A Shopkeeper at Tallow was robbed of a large quantity of Cloths on Sunday night.

At the Petty Sessions held at Pallas Keny on Monday last, John Drum was convicted on the oath of Constable William Dattu, for having in his possession several trees which he could not account for. The timber was secreted in a garden convenient to his house, and over which cabbage plants were sown, which added consi- derably to his guilt. The trees were cut on Castletown demesne, the seat of John Waller, Esq. who was pleased to reward the Police with £5, for their meritorious conduct on the occa- sion. This is a fine picture of the depravity to which the peasantry of this Country have arrived, when the property of this truly benevolent and invaluable Gentleman, is abused by indivi- duals who are continually partaking of his un- bounded generosity and goodness.

The Prussian ship Diana, with timber, being the first importation direct from Memel to Tralee, arrived there on Monday.

Three vessels with passengers, sailed from Waterford, for Quebec, on Wednesday.

The streets will be quite clear of strolling beggars in a few days, as the Mendicity Society, under the authority of the Magistrates, have selected men whose principal duty will be to apprehend these idle drones, who are to be com- mitted to prison under the Vagrant act.

We find that Messrs. Ry in Brothers (Limerick Woollen Hall,) have this week made importa- tions of Woollen Drapery from England—the first we believe to this City, since the total repeal of the Union Duties. See Advertisement.

The City Limerick General Quarter Sessions for trials, before the Recorder, are adjourned to the 7th of June.

A quantity of Fish and Potatoes, seized by the Mayor, on Wednesday afternoon, from Forestallers, was distributed at the Exchange, to indigent room keepers.

W. BENNETT KE

114, GEORGE'S-STREET, LIMER

Opposite the Club-House,

IMPORTS AND MANUFACTURES THE FC

WHICH HE WILL DISPOSE OF,

WHOLESALE AND RET

At Dublin Prices:

DRUGS and CHYMICALS carefully selected SODA, CHELTENHAM, and all Medical Wat Best London WHITE LEAD—with a genera COLOURS, for House Painting, &c.

LINSEED, TURPENTINE and NEAT'S F Fine and Course LAMP OILS,

Fine COPAL and MASTIC VARNISHES,

PATENT MEDICINES direct from the Prop

MR. KELLY begs to return his warm the Public, for the distinguished supp Establishment since its commencement; and of a continuance of that mode of transacting b has hitherto been the means of insuring so la of public confidence—and as no article of an in shall ever be offered for sale by him, it is respect that no reduction can be made on the scale of laid down and which are assimilated to othe Houses in Dublin.

Apothecaries, Governors of Dispensaries, &c their interest in giving this Establishment a pre Arrived per the True Blue, from L Packages of DRUGS and CHYMICALS.

100 Bottles of the First Quality Cold-Drawn Flake Manns, Turkey Gum Arabic, Opi

Rhubarb, Jalap, Hippo, &c. Twenty Carboy These, with his usual supply, will be disposed c terms to Apothecaries.

An APPRENTICE wanted.

HIS MAJESTY AND THE LIEUTENANT'S

SEAL ENGRAV

NO. 3, FOWNES-STREET,

(One door from Dame-street,

DUBLIN.

BROWN & DE VEAUX

Stone Seal Engravers and Jew

BEG leave to announce the extension of th JEWELLERY, PLATE, and PLATE

most respectfully solicit the honor of an inspec present Stock, which has been just imported, selected in London by one of the Firm.

Fine Cornelians and Pebbles, such as are Engraving, shall continue to be executed with taste, and punctuality which for many years obtained for this Establishment & decided

ACADEMY.

DANIEL HANN

PROPRIETOR.

UNDER the Patronage of several very Families, will open an Academy, on 20th instant, No. 24, Glentworth-street, a situat excelled in this City.

Course of Education—The Greek and Latin required to be read for entrance into Dublin Colleges—French—History, sacred and profan ancient and modern—Composition, in the diffe taught—Declamation conducted on such a pla interfere with the Pupils' ordinary studies—