

...ured to the extent of £10,000,
Gout at a small additional Premium.
...arge for Militia, Yeomanry, or Volun-
...er Officers in the Army or Navy,
...enlevs on Actual Service.

INSURANCES AND PROPERTY

to the extent of £10,000,
...ur Risks by special agreement.
...ages of Insurance to Individuals are so
...s unnecessary to dwell on them; and it is
...Persons concerned in Policies with the
...have experienced every satisfaction.
...n whose Lives Insurances are or may be ef-
...Globe Insurance Company, are and will be
...g Peace without Licence or extra charge in
...Insurances, to proceed to, and return by Sea
...gn Port lying between the Texel and Brest
...o and from any part of the United Kingdom
...n and Ireland, to any other part, or to and
...iate dependent Islands in the English Channel,
...hips, Steam or other decked Vessels, being
...rticulated to the conveyance of Passengers.
...ates, and every information furnished at the
...FFICE, 109, George's-street.

the following Lives have been recently paid
by D. F. G. MAHONY.

M. D. Hoare	1000	British.
...	975
...	50
...	100
...	53
...	1000
...	300
...	1000

Limerick, May 15.

WOOLLEN DRAPERY, FASHIONABLE MERCHANT TAILORING.

P. MOLONY,

LATE OF LONDON,

...rived to him per the London Packet, from
...n, the most Splendid Assortment of SAXONY
...ASSIMERES, FANCY WAISTCOATING,
...er brought to this Market. Indeed, it has been
...ed by some Men of the Woollen Business, that
...o good for the general Trade of Limerick; but
...ss of this Trade is entirely done by the Nobility
...of this County, the Proprietor thinks no Articles
...them. No House in this City will, in future,
...p for present Money, as all the Goods are laid in
...terms.

MOLONY has engaged a London Foreman, of
...ility, to manage his business in the Tailoring
...; he also intends retailing Cloths by the yard, &c.
...leman choosing to have his own Tailor, 20 per
...er than any House in Limerick.
Limerick, May 15, 1824.

GOVERNESS

...TS a Situation as GOVERNESS, a Lady of the
...stablished Church, who professes ENGLISH
...ally, GEOGRAPHY, and the USE of the ...Ancient and Modern HISTORY, with their
...ompaniments. She has a knowledge of MUSIC,
...i, and Plain and Fancy Works. The most
...references can be given with regard to ...ests. Post paid, addressed to A. M. at the ...onials Office, will be duly attended to.
Limerick, May 15, 1824.

BUTLER

...NTS a Situation as Butler or Footman, a steady,
...ober, active Man, can show excellent Recommen-
...s from respectable Families in England. His
...on to Town or Country. Apply at the Chronicle
...y Letter, to be Post paid.
Limerick, May 15, 1824.

NO BUILDERS

Delight, Glasgow, 1834 brls. oats, Alexander Johnston.
Demaraya, Glasgow, 350 barrels oats, M. Langlands.
Jane for Glasgow, 741 brls. oats, John M'Neill.
Industry for Glasgow, 1141 brls. oats, Mat. Langlands.
Margaret for Liverpool, 731 brls. wheat and 118 brls.
barley, Francis Spight; 21 packages furniture and one bag
flour, James Bannatyne.

BIRTHS.

In Dublin, the Lady of Robert Smith, Esq. of a son.
At Roebuck-House, the Lady of I. G. Richards, Esq. of a daughter.
At Harold's-cross, Dublin, the Lady of Lieutenant Reid,
64th Regiment, of a daughter.
At Kilmainham, the Lady of Nathaniel Betty, Esq. of a daughter.
At Blackrock, near Cork, the Lady of Mathias Smith,
Esq. of a daughter.
Viscountess Galway of a son.
At Woolwich, the Lady of Lieut.-Colonel Payne, Royal Artillery, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

In Dublin, Henry Roche, of Grafton-street, Esq. to Eliza, daughter of Thomas Connor, of Nassau-street, Esq.
Mr. Anthony Betts, of his Majesty's Customs, to Miss Spicer, of the North Strand, Dublin.
In Cork, Mathias Hendley, of Mount Rivers, Esq. to Harriet, daughter of William Leader, of Mount-Leader, Esq.
both of the County Cork.
In London, E. I. Clayfield, Esq. of the 40th Regiment, to Miss Cox, grand-daughter of the late General Cox
Captain Clepmell, 58th Regiment, to Miss Dobree.
Rev. Sir Thomas Miller, Bart. to Martha, eldest daughter of the Rev. John Holmes, of Bungay, Suffolk.
In London, T. Pilkington, Esq. of Habberly, to Harriet, widow of Major Watkins, 58th Regiment.
At Abbots Langley, Captain Francis de Visme, late of the 21st Light Dragoons, to Harriet, youngest and only surviving daughter of the late Sir Benjamin Sullivan.
At Surat, in the East Indies, T. J. Turner, Esq. of the Hon. Company's Civil Service, to Eliza Rachael Lowe
M-Combe, only daughter of Colonel John M'Combe, of his Majesty's 14th Regiment.

DEATHS.

Rather suddenly, at the New Barracks, in this City, on Thursday evening, Ebenezer Lorimer, Esq. Lieutenant in the 1st Royal Scots, much regretted by his brother officers—his remains were this day interred with military honors, at Murchin's Church-yard.
Of a tedious illness, at Nenagh, Mrs. Doolan, relict of the late Counsellor Doolan, of Fairy Hill, County of Galway; she was universally esteemed by all who knew her.
At Bourdeaux, on the 16th ult. deeply regretted, the Rev.
George D. Hogan, a Roman Catholic Clergyman, formerly of this City, and latterly a Missionary in Philadelphia.
In Cork, suddenly, Mr. Joseph Cannovan, Professor of Music.
Mary Anne, wife of Mr. William Moran, of Crow-street,
Dublin, jeweller.
At Lifford, aged 73, John Chambers, Esq.
At the Presentation Convent, Kilkenny, Miss M'Loughlan.
John Thompson, of Jennymount, near Belfast.
At Ballymena, the relict of the Rev. John Lindsay.
At Baltimore-House, County Cork, aged 21 years, Denis
O'Driscoll, Esq.
In London, A. Callen, Esq. of the Middle Temple, one of his Majesty's Counsel, and son of the celebrated Dr. Cullen.
At Hampstead, aged 14 years, Mary, eldest daughter of the late Sir Alexander Macdonald Lockhart, Bart.
At Bath, the Rev. John Pine Coffin.
Suddenly, aged 54, Mr. Mawer, a respectable linen draper of Lincoln; he had been a local preacher in the Methodist connexion for the last thirty-five years.
At Windsor, at a very advanced age, Lieutenant Burgess,
Governor of the Naval Knights.
In London, Sir Fenwick Bulmer.
On Tuesday, aged 93 years, Baron Maseras, Cursitor
Baron of the Exchequer.
Margaret, wife of Charles Adams, Esq. of Spencer Lodge, Wandsworth-common.
In Edward-street, Portman-square, London, Thomas
Cartwright, Esq.
Major Aldridge; Captain Roger, R. N.
In Upper Canada, Lieut. Alexander Wisbart, half-pay of the 42d Regiment.

THE MARKETS.