

No. 3.
 "32, Grosvenor-place, May 5. your reply, and request you will nate intentions before the evening (Signed)
 "H. HARDINGE."
 Half-past Six, P. M. g conferred with Mr Battier, re-lf-after six o'clock, requesting an The latter was immediately act was considered could not meet nine o'clock, which was deemed a the seconds. A misapprehension at. Colonel Western conceiving eting to have been at nine o'clock r Henry at nine o'clock the next ing communicated to Lord London-had made, wrote the following
 No. 4.
 place, May 5, 10 o'clock, P. M. d Londonderry, and informed him er has sent through you, in reply to an explanation of Lord London-g Mr Battier to quit the Mess-room he 24th of November. re Mr Battier that it is a matter of ord Londonderry what Mr Battier d Londonderry can have no commu-
 . The opinion I have expressed that expect the satisfaction he solicits, ion of his feelings, I now repeat, , that there is no necessity for the equires, I need not enlarge upon.— osen to waive all the just objections meeting you have requested; and m you, that his Lordship will be, at Park-corner, to-morrow morning, see you and Mr. Battier.
 he honor to be &c. &c.
 ned) "H. HARDINGE." Western."

to Colonel W. at eleven o'clock, to ated; but it did not find him there, g morning sent under cover to Mr.
 about eight o'clock.
 6th May, Nine o'clock, P. M. d Sir Henry remained at the place minutes after nine o'clock, when Sir te to this effect:
 No. 5.
 r-corner, Top of Grosvenor-place, y, twenty minutes after nine. e presumes there is some mistake.— will find him here till ten o'clock.— o Lord L. to wait any longer.
 Western."

er was received from Lieutenant-7th (should be 6th) May.

 Western begs leave to state, that were waiting at the top of Grosvenor-before nine till 45 minutes past. ce of Sir Henry and his friend, they ances again and returned to town.— it on Sir Henry by twelve o'clock. s."

ils Sir Henry rode to Colonel W.'s had, on the receipt of Sir Henry's after nine, hastened to Mr. Battier, ve o'clock Colonel W. appeared at he misunderstanding as to the time ined, and Colonel W. immediately the parties were finally assembled at out four miles out of town, the pistols and, and as the loaded pair had been ary, the choice of one of them was ru.

 sured by both the seconds—ten paces; air posts, levelling their pistols at the ney-General was read by Mr. O'Connell at the Roman Catholic Association, on Saturday:—

 "London, May 11, 1824.
 "My Dear Sir—I have this moment received your letter of the 8th inst. enclosing the draft of the Petition for the repeal of the laws which agrieve his Majesty's Roman Catholic subjects in Ireland, and stating that the original, with signatures, will be sent to me in a few days, with the hope that I will present it, and procure a discussion on its merits this Session.
 "I shall have great satisfaction in presenting the Petition immediately on the receipt of it, and in stating my sense of its importance; but at such a period of the Session I apprehend it would be hopeless to look for the accomplishment of any legislative measure for the relief of the Roman Catholics, and under such circumstances to move on the subject, would be not only useless but injurious, as a great portion of the friends of the measure, especially of the English Representatives will not vote or attend when the subject is merely discussion.
 "I have the honor to be "Your very obedient humble Servant
 "W. C. PLUNKETT."

The Limerick Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, MAY 19.

On the night of Wednesday last, a party of men attacked and entered the dwelling-house of Mr. Timothy Hartigan, on the lands of Bal-lyphilip, near Croom, in this County. They broke every pane of glass and sash in the house, which is two storeys high, spilled all Hartigan's cream and milk, and beat him till they supposed he was dead; he is now in a dangerous state.
 This outrage originated in Hartigan's taking the farm he lives on, the tenants having been dispossessed a few days previous.

On the night of Wednesday last, two Cows were houghed, and their tails cut off on the lands of Ballinagoula, within about a mile of Glin. No reason can be assigned for this outrage; they were the property of a poor man named Connor, who is tenant of Mr. Lloyd of Glin; the Police from Glin were out the whole of the following day but could not trace the offender.

The tails and one horn were lately maliciously broken off two cows, the property of a farmer named O'Brien, on the lands of Carna.

The dwelling-house of Mr. William Purcell, of Kilclaran, near Feakle, County Clare, was maliciously burned on Friday, and with difficulty his family escaped the flames. The loss is stated at £500.

A man named Downes was killed near the fair of Stonehall, on Friday.

Last night, a number of fellows assembled and cut the rigging and mast of a large turf boat lying near Mellon, in this County, where it was receiving potatoes for the County Clare.

Monday night a large boat, from Connaught, was completely destroyed by a number of men in Scariff Bay.

Two but-offices at Clondrina, in the west of the County Clare, were maliciously consumed on Thursday night.

examined before the Committee of the House of Commons, now sitting on the affairs Ireland.

Lord George Seymour and the Hon.
 Trefuses, are appointed Commissioners of cise at the Dublin Board.

Doctor Law is consecrated Bishop of Ba and Doctor Carr Bishop of Chichester.

Mr. W. Bayly has declined the Canvas for representation of the City of Kilkenny.

The Right Hon. Lord Massy has appoin-the Rev. Wm. Massy, of Tipperary, his ships Domestic Chaplain, in the room of late Rev. William Massy, of Clonbey, who nearly four generations filled that situation.

The Ordinary Visitation of Ossory is to place on the 10th June.

Mr. Besnard and a Dutch farmer are orde-by the Linen Board to visit the County Galv to give instruction in the cultivation of flax.

The pipes will be bid in a few days prep-tory to lighting this City with gas, the work which are fixed in an eligible scite near Crescent.

On Saturday last, the house of a Mod-Gentleman in this City, was robbed of sue articles of wearing apparel, by some people came to his door under pretence of seek-Medical aid.

The Belfast Banks are about to discoun-four per cent.

There is no likelihood that the ports open for the admission of wheat, oats or bar-The fair of Caherconlish, on Monday, well attended, and good prices for cattle g Tulla and Ennistymon fairs were well att ed, and excellent prices.

Innkeepers in the Country parts of Ire-will be glad to learn, that in future, v cavalry on march are billeted on them that will be allowed the same remuneration for supplies and accommodations rendered as present allowed to the Innkeepers in Englan

The increasing spirit of emigration from part of the country, may be inferred from fact, that several persons from the surround-Counties, have been unwillingly compellreturn to their homes, from a want of ve from this to America. The primary almost the only class of emigrants.

In addition to the liberal sum distribthe passengers of the Maria, Alderman W received the following handsome letter Earl Clare:—

Saville-row, London, May 18, 1824

DEAR SIR,
 I saw a letter from you in the Limerick Chron-Saturday last, giving a lamentable account of the dis-several poor persons saved from a ship, bound from to Quebec—I have this day written to my Brother, Abraham, to give you Two Guineas for those un-persons.

The Public have to thank you for having called attention to this scene of distress and misery.

Believe me, your obedient servant,
 CLARE

To Andrew Watson, Esq. Limerick.