

OPRIETORS.

NTS A SITUATION.

D COOK wants a Situation; understands ideas in general; makes remarkably good and Made Dishes. Is lately come from has lived with Families of the first distinction she has undeniable character. Country, directed M. S. Chronicle Office, d.

May 22, 1824.

ABLE SUMMER GOODS,
Mercery and Shawl Ware-house,
No. 2, BEDFORD-ROW.

CARROLL,

to inform the Public, that she has just in Dublin, with an entire New and Fashionable, the very best Goods imported from London—ought on the most advantageous terms for the fulfilment of the duty will be found well worth purchasers.

comprizes a great variety of rich Gros-de-Laine and Laverie SILKS; plain, figured, and SETS; Gown and Cashmere Dresses; French and rich figured long and square Silk beautiful patterns; Silk Handkerchiefs, Ribbons, Parasols, &c. Bombazines, Norwich Crapes, Lian Nets; Thread and Bobbin Laces; Lace Scarfs, Collars, &c.; Worked Muslin Gowns, and London Print Muslins, &c. &c.; Hosiery; Feathers and Flowers; Linens, Embroideries; a Case of Leghorn and Open-pannets, of last shapes; and a general supply of every thing.

Limerick, May 12, 1824.

ATRIOTIC CE COMPANY OF IRELAND,

FOR THE
G OF HOUSES, &c. FROM FIRE;
IPS, MERCHANDIZE, &c.
PERILS OF THE SEA AND INLAND
NAVIGATION, LIVES;

the Purchase and Granting Annuities,
WARRANTS FOR CHIDREN, &c.
OFFICE LETTER E. COMMERCIAL-BUILDINGS, al, One Million and a Half.

TREASURERS:
M'DONNELL, GEO. M'BRIDE, AND
JOSEPH ROBINSON PIM.

DIRECTORS:
George M'Bride,
Thomas Mooney,
Joseph Robinson Pim,
Oliver Plunkett,
Alexander Somers,
Thomas Sherlock,
John Handcock Stanley,
James Turbett,
Solomon Watson,
John D. Williams.

Directors announce to the Public, that they will be receive Proposals of Life and Fire Insurances on MONDAY, the 17th of March.

Insurance, on MONDAY, the 5th of April. The largest Capital ever embarked in Ireland undertaking, the Directors conceive this Establishment a well grounded claim to a commensurate confidence and support. It offers to the Insured a security for their Losses, scarcely equalled in the guarantee for their prompt and fair settlement, in a liberal manner, which the Directors pledge

DEATHS.

On Thursday, at his lodgings in Georges's-street, the Rev. Frederick Neligan, Rector of the extensive Union of Kilmastulla and Templecalla, in the Diocese of Cashel; a Gentleman of distinguished taste and talents—he possessed the most benevolent disposition, with sympathies of the kindest nature—was an affectionate husband, an indulgent parent, a sincere friend, and has left an amiable wife with a large family to lament his irreparable loss.

Of fever, on Sunday last, at Mountsen, near Nenagh, the Rev. J. Bredin, Rector of that Parish, Diocese of Killaloe.

On Tuesday, the 11th instant, in Cork, on his way to London, Clifford Jackson Monckton, Esq.

At Kilmallock, in this County, James Major, Esq. Officer of Excise.

Suddenly, at the house of his brother, (Major T. M. Hall,) at Clifton, near Bristol, Lieut.-Colonel Samuel Hall, C. B. 65th Regiment—an officer who long served his country with honour, and whose loss will be deeply lamented by a large circle of friends who knew his worth. He retired to bed on Tuesday night in excellent health, and in the morning was found a lifeless corpse.

Yesterday, in Glentworth-street, Henry H. Parker, infant son of the late Captain R. W. Parker, Royal Navy.

In Cork, Mrs. Stawell, relict of the late Sampson Stawell, Esq. of Kilbrittain.

Mrs. Chambers, wife of Doctor Chambers, of Ballynahinch, at the advanced age of seventy-one.

In Dublin, Mr. Richard Smyth, Printer.

The Very Rev. Doctor Costigan, Roman Catholic Vicar-General of the Diocese of Dublin.

At Greenlane, near Kenmare, County Kerry, John Downing, Esq.

At Foxboro' King's County, Francis Talbot, Esq.

At Douglas, Isle of Man, William Cooper Herring, Esq. of Carlow, and late a Captain in the yeomanry of that town.

In London, quite suddenly, W. Kelly, Esq. late of the Exchequer.

Henry Peirse, Esq. M. P. for Northallerton.

At Rivenhall Parsonage, Essex, the Rev. S. Western.

At Chew Magna, the Rev. Rowland Phillips.

At Portsea, Lieut. Crane, Royal Artillery.

In Edinburgh, Jane, fourth daughter of the Right Hon. David Boyle, Lord Justice Clerk, Henry Chaytor, Esq. late Colonel of the 3d Regiment of Foot Guards.

THE MARKETS.

The supply of Wheat is merely nominal, and prices stationary—Oats, 11½d, to 12d. for good feeding.—Barley, 12d. to 13d. per stone.—Flour, 45s. to 50s. per bag.—Oatmeal, 15s. to 16s. per cwt.—Potatoes, 3d. to 3½d. per stone.—Pork, 32s. per cwt.—Beef, 4hd. to 6d. per lb.—Mutton, 4d. to 6d. per lb.—Butter, looking up, 92s. 88s. 82s. 76s. and 70s. per cwt.; and 2s. over has been given by some buyers—received this month, 751 firkins. Flax, 4s. 2d. to 5s. per stone, hand-scutch'd; Mill-scutch'd, 5s. to 5s. 6d. per stone.—Thread, 5d. to 5bd. per hank—Pound Yarn, 9d. to 9hd. per lb.—Flaxseed, £3 12s. 6d. per hogshead.

Butter received in Limerick from 1st May, 1823, to 1st May, 1824	FIRKINS.
.....	71,648
From 1st May, 1822, to 1st May, 1823...	41,568

.....	50,080
Grain received in Limerick, in 1822—Wheat, 141,136 brls.
Barley, 26,512 do. Oats, 252,773 do.

In 1823—Wheat, 116,177, Barley, 31,308, Oats, 228,329.

It will be seen by this return that the receipt of wheat and oats last year was nearly 50,090 barrels less than the preceding year.

Amount of Linen and Yarn sold in the different Markets in this County, the last Quarter.

	LINEN.	YARN.
Limerick.....	£1634 1 7	£1420
Bruff.....	268 12 0	171
Kathkeale.....	226 8 8	169
Newcastle.....	.....	95