

alth of Mr. Serjeant Leus is such as affect his friends.
port of the death of General Grosvenor, untrue.
esent Lord Byron is indisposed at Bath.
ought that the King and Queen of the Islands died from the effects of zing.

pected that the bodies of the King and ill be sent off to the Sandwich Isles at f next week, when a ship is expected uchess de Berri has arrived at Havre, athing.
nham was never so crowded as at present flux of Irish who come to spend their is immense.

p Chase arrived in London from Ame- seek relief for the poor at Ohio.
sheep exported from England to Botany h 50 guineas each, while the best of the breed only fetch from 14 to 17 guineas.
Eady, a lady of fortune, was yesterday in jail for stealing a beautiful silk scarf a veil from Mrs. Clark's shop, at Charing-ain M'Donogh, author of "The Hermit lon," is acquitted of robbing Mr. Weaver 30 at the Salloon in Piccadilly.

Robinson was tried this week on five se- indictments for robbery, and acquitted on ounds of a satisfactory alibi being proved;
Gentleman whose family is respectable.

liam Thurlow, Esq. is fully committed bing Miss St. Erge, his courtizan.
the King's Bench, on Monday, Miss on, a bar maid at the Castle, Salt-Hill, warded £500, to be paid by Mr. Nassau, each of promise of marriage.

the Court of Exchequer, a verdict of 38 has been returned against Lord George y Augustus Cavendish, as Colonel of the yshire Militia, for an arrear due by the mental Agent who became insolvent, and which, the Colonel in such cases becomes antable.

Thomas Riley Perry, one of Carlile's shop- , has been sentenced to three years imprison- t, for vending blasphemous publications.
aring-Cross and Whitehall are to be con- ed with the heart of the City by a magnifi- nt quay, which is immediately to be com- ced, according to the plan of Colonel nch, M. P. for Cambridge.

The annual conference of the Methodists is year to be held in Leeds. The conference l commence on Wednesday, July 28th, and re will be nearly 400 Preachers present.
The match between Shelton and Langan is d to be off, in consequence of the latter re- ing more time previous to fighting than the ntish hero is inclined to allow.
Mr. Windham Sadler ascended at Hull on onday last.

A son of Lord Melville is made a Post aptain.
The very respectable broker, Mr. Henry ill, who was announced on Thursday, at the stock Exchange, as unable to meet his enga- ements, in consequence of the desertion of a rincipal, on Saturday paid in full the whole of he claims upon him.

It is understood that the establishment of the Customs in Edinburgh is to be removed to Leith, nd that the functionaries of the Excise are to ed possession of the present Custom house.

A Noble Marquis having won the other night £1100 at the new Hell, in St. James's-street, offered to play the Bank for double or quit.
The fishmonger retired to consult his partners; and on his return, civilly declined the proposal, alleging that if they did so to oblige his Lord- ship, they must favour every one who asked them in the same way.

A certain Lady in high life is now pursued by no less than three Marquisses!

Mrs. H. Baring.—Mr. Cobbett says that this lady, whom he describes as being 36 years of age, the most beautiful he had or has ever seen, was the daughter of Mr. Bingham, a rich senator of the United States, who kept a splen- did open house for the French emigrant Noblesse in Philadelphia, among whom was a Count Tilly, with whom she eloped when he was 22, and she about 16. They were lawfully married the same night, but before morning she was forced back to her father's house by a party headed by her uncle, and the Legislature of Pennsylvania passed an act to annul the marriage. She was shortly after married to Mr. H. Baring. Her fate with Captain Webster is known.

DUBLIN, JULY 23.

The Hon. Colonel King, M. P. has arrived in town, from London.

The Lord Mayor is about to call an aggregate meeting to consider the present imperfect state of the public lamps.

The concerns of Mr. Harris, cabinet-maker, in Mary-street, were accidentally burned down this morning; he proposed an insurance on them yesterday.

Yesterday, Captain Doyle, of the brig Biby, of Liverpool, lying at Sir John's Quay, had a dispute with one of his crew, whom he threw

The Clonmel Advertiser notices a rumour in circulation, of the removal of that deserving public officer, Major Wilcocks from his situation, and contradicts the report "on undoubted authority." The Major proceeded on Tuesday on a tour of inspection thro' the Counties of Lime- rick, Kerry, &c.

The Presbyterian Synod of Ireland, met at Belfast, on the 6th inst. and made several enact- ments in regard to Marriage---such as consent of parents, &c. with heavy penalties in case of in- fraction on part of any one Minister of that Body. The Rev. John Rogers read reasons for fasting and thanksgiving, for the current year; and the Synod enjoined their Members to ob- serve the same, if at all possible, in the last week of November.

The Roman Catholic Bishops have ordered the distribution of religious tracts in their several dioceses.

A motion to admit several Roman Catholics to the Freedom of Drogheda, was negated by the Corporation on Friday.

The Grand Jury have presented several bro- thels in Pitt-street, as nuisances.

It is stated that the Orangemen refused to take down their garlands at Newtown Stewart, though ordered by the Magistrate, who it is mentioned was ill-used on the occasion.

At Ballybea and Bailiboro', the Orangemen had processions.

The Orangeman reported to be killed at Arklow, was only wounded and that accident- ally, from the wadding of a musquet fired by a youngster, (his son) on the night of the 12th.

It is stated that a party of Ribbonmen made an incursion into the suburbs of Dungannon, on the 12th, with an intention to meet the Orange- men, who mustered so strong, that the latter retreated, but not without threatening a Magis- trate who they conceived favoured the proces- sion of the Orangemen.

On Sunday last, in Drumcree Church, Hugh Neil, of Derryall, in said Parish, formally re- nounced the Roman Catholic religion.

The Star states that, on Monday week, 21 Roman Catholic Clergymen attended at a County Mayo Gentleman's house, in the vicinity of this City, to offer up prayers, by desire of Prince Hohenloke, for the proprietor, who is afflicted by insanity; and on the same day, by directions of the Prince, prayers were also offered up in all the Chapels in Dublin, on the same occasion, but no miracle, as expected, has been wrought, and the Gentleman still continues much indisposed.

Circulars have been issued from the Commis- sioners recently appointed to inquire into the state of Education in Ireland. These Circulars are in the form of queries, twenty in number, and are spread out on an immense sheet of paper; blanks are left opposite the queries, to be filled up by the persons to whom the receipt is directed. The questions apply to most of the topics on which the Country desires information, viz.—the number of Schools in each Parish—the number of pupils—the names of the Masters and Mistresses—the Funds from which they are supported—whether they are in connexion with the Kildare-street Association, with the Hiber- nian, the Baptist, or any other Societies—whether the Bible is a class-book, or the New Testa- ment only—the version, whether the authorised or the Douay—the impediments which the sys- tem has received—the motives and objects of those impediments. This relates to the inter- ference of the Catholic Clergy, in certain cases. The question of Proselytism is also put; and the titles of the books read at the different Schools are also demanded. The answers are to be returned on affidavit, to be taken before a Magistrate. The queries are directed to the Protestant Clergymen.

Captain Webster left Dublin some few weeks ago, in order to bring home his bride, Mrs. Baring, whom he intends, on her arrival, to make, according to the old phrase "an honest woman of."

Mr. O'Connell—Misrepresentation.—Mr. O'Connell stated in the Catholic Association on Saturday last, that Two Hundred Labourers could be had in Carlow to work at Two Pence a Day Without Food. We beg to inform him, that labourers could not be employed in the town of Carlow, in the memory of the oldest man now living here, at double the daily wages that Mr. O'Connell has stated! For the last two months the daily hire of good labourers has been twelve pence in Carlow, and ten pence for the worst! Such is the accuracy of Mr. O'Connell's infor- mation!—but he has been always so accessible to liars and tale-bearers, that he really seems to be the very personification of credulity!— Carlow Post.

Mr. Michael Quin of Graigue, a Roman Cath- olic, publicly denies the assertion of Mr. O'Connell, that the Church of Carlow is desert- ed; he states, in fact, that the members of the establishment there are very numerous and most respectable, and that it is frequently crowded to inconvenience. So much for the accuracy of Mr. O'Connell's information.

Mr. Blacker will hold a Sessions under the Insurrection Act, at Fermoy, on Wednesday.

UNIVERSITY INTELLIGENCE.

On Tuesday the 13th inst. being Commencement Day, the following degrees were conferred.

CORK, JULY 21.

On Monday morning the first division, and on Tuesday morning the second division of that fine Corps, the 12th Royal Lancers, under the command of Major Stawell, marched from our Barracks for Waterford where they will embark for England. Never did a Regiment leave Cork more regretted; the high and honourable character of the Officers, and the exemplary con- duct of the non-commissioned officers and pri- vates of the 12th, have shone conspicuously while amongst us, and left an impression which will not soon be forgotten.

Straw plait is now manufactured under the superintendance of the Ladies Association at Charleville, which is stated to be superior to any Leghorn Plait, ever produced.

An evening cotemporary states that informa- tion has been received by the public authorities that a general "Turn out" of the Carpenters, Masons, and Bakers of this City is to take place on Monday next, the object of which is an ad- vance on the present rate of wages.

On Sunday last, the Lord Bishop of Cloyne preached an admirable sermon in Cove Church, which was crowded to excess on the occasion.

Messrs. Pollock and Smith, two first class Officers of Excise in this district, have been ordered by the Board of Commissioners to pro- ceed to London, where they are to do duty for some time in the Examiner's Office. Four Offi- cers of the same class are to go from other dis- tricts, and all are to be replaced by Officers from England.—Cork Paper.

CLONMEL, JULY 21.

A notorious character has been taken up on suspicion, against whom circumstances are very strong. This fellow, it seems, was tried at a former Assizes for the murder of young Mr. Robbins, of Hymenstown; he is a desperate looking villain, and the Magistrates are perfect- ly satisfied that he was one of the gang. We rejoice to say that the wounded man in the Infirmary is going on well.—Should he recover he may be a great means of having the ends of justice satisfied, as it is said he knows nearly all those who formed the blood-thirsty banditti, whose determination to murder was accelerated, by one of the Kinneals, in accents of suppli- cation, having cried out, "Oh!—(calling them by their names) are you going to murder us!"

The Limerick Chronicle

SATURDAY, JULY 24.

This day, the Hon. Justice Jebb and the Hon. Justice Vandeleur, arrived here from Dublin, on their way to Ennis.

Mr. Livingston has arrived in this City to make preparations for an excursion in his bal- loon: it is supposed that the ascent will take place from the Corn-Market square, which has been tendered to him by the Mayor.

Lord Arden arrived here from Lohort-Castle, Co. Cork, on Thursday, and proceeded to Gar- bally, County Galway, on a visit to the Earl of Clancarty.

The Marquis Downshire has arrived in Dublin from London.

The Earl of Kingston has arrived in Cork. The Earl of Ormond passed through here yesterday for Kilkenny.

The races of Gort which commence on Mon- day, are expected to afford much amusement, as several capital horses are entered for the four days running. The hospitable mansion of Loughcooter Castle, the magnificent seat of Viscount Gort, is receiving a vast circle of dis- tinguished visitors; and the public Ball which will be at the Sessions house, on Tuesday, will display beauty and fashion. All the respectable lodgings in Gort are taken for the week, and from the arrangements made, it is thought that few scenes of amusement will afford more variety of entertainment.

This morning a Military Band left town, to remain at Loughcooter Castle the ensu- ing week.

The Marquis Carmarthen has arrived at Gort, and joined his regiment, the 10th Hussars.

Captain the Hon. George Ralph Abercromby, of the 3d Dragoon Guards, quartered in this City, was, on Tuesday, elected Representative in Parliament for the County of Clackmannon, North Britain.

The Government of Canada is under Colonel Burton, late M. P. Co. Clare; and the command of the troops there is vested in Sir P. Maitland.

John M'Donnell, Esq. a young Gentleman from Ennis, is appointed private Secretary to the Acting Governor of Sierra Leone.

No Military Promotions appear in Tuesday's London Gazette.

The 15th Hussars who disembarked from England, are on their way from Waterford to be stationed in Cork.

The head-quarters of the 15th Hussars are to be fixed at Cork; and the head-quarters of the 3d Dragoon Guards are to remain at Caher.

The 7th Hussars were reviewed at Hounslow, on Tuesday, by the Duke of York, who approved highly of this superior corps.

The 30th, 47th, 56th, and 59th Regiments, returned from the East Indies.

On Wednesday evening, as a young lad, son to Patrick Hayes, Esq. was returning from his farm-house at Cragg, to the town of Abbeyfeale, he was attacked on the road by two men armed, each of whom presented a pistol, exclaiming he should never tell a story again; fortunately both missed fire, when the young man spurred his horse, and made off; the villains having cocked again, they fired after him without effect. The lad, however, did not proceed far, when he was again met by an unarmed man, who struck and beat him desperately with a stone, and would have probably murdered him had he been knocked off his horse. Three men of very suspicious appearance, have been taken up by the Police in Abbeyfeale, and lodged in Newcastle bridewell, charged with the above offence.

On Sunday morning last an aged woman, named Ann Riely, who was on her return from Dublin, where she was visiting two of her sons who are in the Rifle Brigade, was knocked down, and robbed of a bundle of clothes and some money on the high road near Patrick's-well, in this County, by a man named John Kennedy, who has been since discovered by the Police, and fully identified by her. The woman's skull was fractured, and she is now in the County Hospital, with little hope of recovery. Ken- nedy is committed to Jail, to abide his trial at the approaching Assizes.

At the fair of Purl, on Monday, two factions who have of late indicated a turbulent spirit against the laws, by rioting and disturbing the peace at fairs in that neighbourhood, met, pur- suant to regular notice, when it is probable se- veral of each party would have fallen a sacrifice to their revengeful fury, were it not for the timely arrival of Alfred Furlong, Esq. from Newcastle, attended by Mr. Percy, Chief Con- stable, and a party of mounted Police, who, having co-operated with Major Grey and his party of the 2d Rifle Brigade, quartered in Abbeyfeale, fully succeeded in seizing on a great number of weapons mounted with iron, and other missiles, thereby prevented the parties from executing their murderous designs.

A second attempt was made by the Castle- comer colliers, on Thursday evening, to destroy the Ouncels at Fowlerton-Gate; one of the rioters was severely wounded in the shoulder by a policeman, a party of whom repulsed the colliers.

On Sunday evening last, Michael Mooney, a farmer from Banagher, was robbed of £2 by two fellows, near Plassy; one of them, James Tierney, has been apprehended by the Police.

A most lamentable accident occurred at Kil- laloe on Monday. A man of the name of Ryan, who had been making a hay-rick, slipped off—a pitchfork (with the iron part stuck in the ground) being placed near the rick, he fell on the handle, and it literally passed up into his body; he lingered in the most excruciating agony until yesterday, when death put a period to his suf- ferings.

On Wednesday afternoon, the Mayor held an inquest on the body of Richard Punch, who was found in a quarry-hole near Garryowen on Tuesday; it appeared that the unfortunate man went to bathe, and not knowing the depth of the place, and being ignorant of swimming, sunk, and was drowned. Verdict, Accidental death.

On Wednesday, in Change-lane, John Clam- pett, a slator, had his skull fractured by a blow of an axe from another slator, named O'Meara--- they had some words at the time, and the whole originated about four pence!—Clampett was con- veyed to the County Infirmary, where there are but slender hopes of his recovery---O'Meara was apprehended a few minutes after the event by the Mayor, who lodged him in Jail.

Yesterday a scaffold fell at the Castle Barrack, and Thomas Lynch, a mason, who happened to be on it, at the time, had his side and head severely injured.

A few days ago an inhabitant of Patrick- street, who left his desk unlocked, was robbed of nearly £150 in Bank notes, by a youngster, who is not yet apprehended.

This day, John Ryan and James Shaw, two notorious thieves, were detected in stealing wearing apparel, which were in a field drying at Rathbane; they are lodged in jail by the Mayor.

In consequence of a continuance of peace and quietness in this County, Mr. Blackburne, with the consent of the Magistrates, has adjourned the Sessions under the Insurrection Act, which was to be held on Monday next, to Tuesday, the 10th August; and at Six-Mile-Bridge to Wed- nesday, 11th August.

The Sessions of Bruff ended on Thursday; there were 625 Civil Bills investigated.

The Quarter Sessions at Rathkeale com- mence on Monday, before Assistant Barrister Lloyd.

Yesterday, an inhabitant of Mary-street was summoned before the Mayor, for not complying with the Corn Trade Act, which inflicts a penalty of ten pounds on any person who omits to take an oath before he deals in Corn, that he will make a true and just return of his purchases to the Clerk of the market. After perusing the Act of Parliament, the Mayor dismissed the complaint, as under the 25th sect. of the pro-

Presentments at sizes in the City 12s. 7d., of which Mail Coach roads Cork.

Presentments at Limerick, viz. :—

BARONIES.
County at Large....	.....
Upper Connelloe....	.....
Lower Connelloe....	.....
Castlea.....	.....
Coshma.....	.....
Small County.....	.....
Clanwilliam.....	.....
Coonagh.....	.....
Kerry.....	.....
Pubble Brien.....	.....
Owneybeg.....	.....
Liberties of Kilmal-	.....

Total Amount of the 5th I. imbursement of the Tre- of Spring Levy, 1

Total amount

At the Court present, the Ma

Roche, Esq. investigation w

Meagher, who hour, last night

This unfortuna Bench, and vol

ment :—That admitted that that his sole o was the hope excommunicat ing a silver ch since which p ment every w

most extreme enter any hou and is oblig one, not eve hold commu nakedness an misery; tran This singula

siderable in nate wretch

porter of th swore infor

mitted to s The Mayo

failed, he thus his w

The Ass commence

The W next wee husband. The In

Monday- was agre

Lieutena to rebuild

improver is every

ness. The C

tor of T terms o

report o Parliam

The of the C

Mr. Co the bo

Rob office i

the diocese

Mr. S The

Mr. F is annu

head The

City a the Co

places before

Lan terday

kinds was a

Mr Unite

Assoc Th

in thi tion, his n the I subs