EDUCATION.

EV. GEO. OGLE VERNER'S RDING AND DAY SCHOOL,

79, Stephen's-Green, South; ESTABLISHED FEB. 1817.

s School young Gentlemen are prepared for the resities, the Royal Naval, Military, and East India, and for Mercantile departments. Mr. Verner may with confidence assert, that his plans are so i. (although including a complete English Course, Italian, Logic, Mathematics, Drawing, Music, &c.) as not to interfere in the slightest degree with ressive preparation of his Pupils for the various dets for which they are intended, which assertion, Ms. ames, is fully horne out by the distinguished success to had in the different Colleges, and also in the Unitained the following distinctions, viz:—two Science of Classical Premiums, and a fifth place out of eighty-s of them obtained the following, viz: -three Certind three Premiums for Science, two Premiums for , a first place, and a Premium in the Hebrew Script entrance. The young Gentlemen were equally able for their proficiency in French, Italian, Music, g, &c. which prove that those lighter accomplish-re not incompatible to Scientific or Classical attain-but rather assist and relieve the mind from its more studies, and fully justifies the opinion of Mr. Locke, Boy should karn many enguages, and the more of knows the better, but the they should be talked into which can only be accomplished where there are many employed, and where each of them has a distinct t apart for his Lectures. This plan Mr. V. has invapursued, and, after many years' practical experience, nd ao reason to deviate from it, The most unremitting on is paid to the morals and manners of his Pupils, as xious to render them Gentlemen as well as Scholars. ouse is spacious and airy, with a very large rere, and es all the advantages of a Town and Country Resihaving the Square in front, and from thirty to forty f meadow in the rere. The Terms are—for Boarders or 60 Guineas per annum, according to the Class nter, payable quarterly in advance; and, for Day rs, 12, 16, or 20 Guineas, subject to the same regu-, without any additional charge whatever.
