COMMERCIAL INSURANCE COMPANY,

FOUNDED FOR THE PURPOSE OF
 INSURANCE OF LIVES AND PROPERTY, THE PURCHASE AND SALE OF ANNUITIES, THE ENDOWMENT OF CHILDREN,
 &c. &c. &c.

NO. 35, CORN-HILL, LONDON,

AND

NO. 111, GRAFTON-STREET, DUBLIN.

THE DIRECTORS of this Company, in advancing their claims for support, beg leave to state simply and plainly the advantages which accrue to persons Insuring with them. In the first place, instead of promising any return of their profits, they grant Policies at Premiums much lower than those of other Companies, as may be seen by schedules and tables to be had at their office.

They will receive Premiums Quarterly, Half-yearly, or Yearly, a convenience which has been already found to be a great object to Insurers, whose income make such payments desirable. Persons assured by this Company, are not liable to be called on to contribute towards its losses,

THE CAPITAL OF THE COMPANY BEING ALONE LIABLE.

And here it may be observed, in answer to the appeal for nationality put forward by the Agents of other Companies, who lay claim to public support from keeping their profits in Ireland, that the British Commercial Company, since their first establishment in this country, have vested their Premiums and Profits invariably in Irish Securities, so as to be immediately available for any demand which occasion may require; and moreover, that a large proportion of the Shareholders are

IRISHMEN, RESIDENT IN IRELAND;
 thereby extending to this Country all the benefits which a British Company united with Irish Shareholders in Capital and Interest could afford, not to mention the great of Edward Graves, Esq.

Thomas John Hungerford, Esq. of Clonakilty, to Miss Catherine Masters, of Kinsale.

At Morrigh Church, County Cork, the Rev. John Smyth, to Anna, third daughter of the Rev. Doctor Hickey.

Thomas Jermyn, Esq. of Castlecave, Kenmare, to Anne, daughter of the Rev. John Warburton, Rector of Valentia.

In London, Edward Buller, Esq. grandson of the late Mr. Justice Buller, to Mary Anne, eldest daughter of the late Major-General Cote Manningham.

At Dallyell Lodge, Fifeshire, Robert Lindsay, Esq. second son of the Hon. Robert Lindsay, to Frances, daughter of Sir Robert Henderson, Bart.

DEATHS.

In Dublin, Catherine, relict of the late Captain O'Meara, and mother to Barry O'Meara, Esq. Surgeon to Napoleon.

George Russell, Esq. brother-in-law of the late Alderman Wheeler, of Dublin.

In Mungret-street, Mr. Joseph Nevitt, of Maryborough, one of the Society of Friends.
