Limerick, August 21, 1824.

Having observed, in the last Paper, a formal return of thanks from the distressed family to the Lord Bishop, for the trifling sum of 6s. I feel called upon, for obvious reasons, to state, that this small donation was given and apportioned by me, as his Lordship's private Almoner, acting in his absence entirely at my own discretion. It was plainly enough intimated to this effect on my leaving it with Mr J. Morris, as per advertisement directed: and, even were it not so, a moment's reflection might have induced the suppression of an acknowledgment, as inconsiderate as it was uncalled for.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

The brig Heart of Oak, Philips, which took out passengers from this port last June, to St. Andrew's, N. B. was upset there in a squall about the 25th ult. and sunk. She has since been got up and her materials will be sold. All the passengers had been previously landed safe.

The Wesley, Anderson, from this port, has arrived in the river St. Laurence.
