

EXTENSIVE AUCTION

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, CHINA, BOOKS, FARMING UTENSILS, CORN, HAY, &c.

King's County, near Roscrea.

TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION, without reserve, on the 15th September inst. and following at the Stock of Milltown House, the residence of J. SPUNNEES, Esq. consisting of a large number of CATTLE and SHEEP, with a handsome BULL, of the best Breed; Eighteen Brace of DEER; a number of every kind; some very fine young

CARRIAGE AND HORSES.

The carriage consists of Drawing-Room, Parlour, Bed-room, and Kitchen, with all the modern Requisites, of every description suitable for a Gentleman's House; Modern, and in high preservation, and of the best Service of India China; a quantity of Plate, Silver, and Gold, Spoons, Forks, Cups, and Saucers, &c. of the best Linen; an extensive and well-chosen collection of Books.—A quantity of Corn and Upland Hay; a fine Draft Horse and Pige, with every requisite for a Farm-Yard, all of the best description.

The CASH.—The Purchaser to pay the King's price, and to commence each day at Twelve o'Clock.—The Auction will be given before and after the Auction daily, and the articles bought.

SEYMOUR, Auctionier,
50, William-street.

FRANCIS J. O'NEILL

HAS LANDED,

from the Traveller, Captain Penrice, and the Fortitude, Captain M'Call,

FROM QUEBEC,

100 Tons PINE TIMBER,
100 DEALS and PLANK,
100 STAVES and HEADING,
100 Tons OAK,

all at low prices, at his Timber Yard,
O'NEILL'S-QUAY,

WHERE HE HAS ALSO FOR SALE.

ALL KINDS OF TIMBER, DEALS and PLANK,
GANY, ROSEWOOD and CEDAR,
H. OAK, and PINE PLANKS,
SALT and LIVERPOOL WHITE SALT,
ALL FROM BERTON, CANNEL, SMITH'S

SHREWSBURY CLEAN HEMP,
SWEDISH and AMERICAN TAR.

Henry-street, August 29, 1824.

SCYTHES AND REAPING HOOKS.

APPRENTICE WANTED.

HOUSE on Charlotte's-Quay, to LET.

APPLICATION TO

MEN JOHN HASTINGS,

No. 20, Charlotte's-Quay,

AT THE CORNER OF BANK-PLACE.

He has for Sale, at the most reduced rates, a large quantity of SCYTHES, with STANNIFORTH'S PATENT REAPING HOOKS; also SPANISH LEATHER, SHEEP-SKINS; POWDER, SHOT, and FLINTS; WHALEBONE, BRUSHES, LOOKING-GLASSES, and WARREN'S BLACKING; besides a large quantity of Goods in the HARDWARE, IRON, and TRIMMING line, by Wholesale and Retail. Furnished Lodgings on the Second Floor.

August 18, 1824.

RACES BALL.

THE AMERICAN CLUB propose to give a BALL on the ensuing RACES. Such Members as wish to attend will bear the particulars by applying to Mr.

John Wilkinson, Esq. Registrar of the Diocese of Cloyne.

The Rev. Thomas Wigmore, of Middleton, to Ellen, only daughter of William Welland, Esq. of Killeagh Farm, County of Cork.

Yesterday, in George's-street, by the Rev. Dr. Hogan, Mr. Pat. Grace, to Anne, daughter of the late Mr. Daniel M'Grath of this city.

In the Church of Kilmacshalgan, John Stenson, of Cloneen, County of Sligo, Esq. to Bridget, second daughter of the late Thomas Ormsby, of Farm M'Furren, Esq.

On Saturday evening, by the Rev. Michael Tuohy, Mr. William H. Meehan, Printer, of this City, to Honora, daughter of the late Mr. Thomas O'Neill, of Rathkeale.

At Kilmore Church, John Caldwell, Esq. to Susan, daughter of Thomas B. Burrowes, of Kilagoan, in the County of Cavan, Esq.

Thomas May, Esq. of Milltown, to Catherine, youngest daughter of the late William Bower, Esq. of Dounybrook.

Mr. William Roberts, of Enniscorthy, to Miss Rounden of Carne.

At Dumfries, John Clark, M. D. Physician to the Forces, and Principal Medical Officer, Albany Hospital, to Miss Gilchrist, only daughter of Dr. Gilchrist.

At St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, George Rennie, jun. Esq. of Phantassie, East Lothian, to Jane, eldest daughter of the late John Rennie, Esq.

DEATHS.

On Sunday morning, at her son's house, Dominick-street, Mrs. Wilkinson, relict of the late Francis Wilkinson, Esq. of Caberelly. She was an affectionate wife, a tender mother, and died regretted by her numerous friends and relatives.

On Monday, at her Lodgings in Mary-street, at the advanced age of 84 years, Mrs. Catherine Ryan, sister of the late Rev. Thomas Ryan, Chancellor of Emly, and Vicar of Caberconry.

In North Great George's-street, Dublin, Sarah Frances, third daughter of John Fox, Esq.

Of a brain fever, the Rev. Piers Robert Gamble, Inspector of Gaols in Dublin.

At Killarney, Mrs. Anne Crumpe, relict of the late Samuel Crumpe, of Barleymount, Esq. and sister of the Right Hon. Lord Ventry.

On Friday, the Rev. James Rochford, P. P. of Rathcabill. In Youghal, Maria, third daughter of John Lowe, Esq.

At Leixlip, Mrs. Coogan.

In George's-street, Cork, the Rev. Charles M'Carthy, lately Parish Priest of Passage.

On the Coal-quay, Cork, Mr. William Murphy.

The Rev. Thomas Tierney, of the Order of St. Augustine, Galway.

In Cork, the Mother of Thomas Pope, Esq. daughter of the late Alderman Wentropp.

At Mount-Prospect, County Kilkenny, Mr. Michael Hill. Aged 16, Mary Ann, daughter of the Rev. Thomas Kenney, of Donoughmore, County Cork.

In Bishop's-street, Dublin, Mr. John Carpenter.

At a shooting quarter, near Blair, in Atholl, with his nephew, the Hon. John Gray, Lieutenant-Colonel Johnston, late of the Fourth, or King's Own, Regiment of Foot.

At Wilford, Rev. William Lenson, B. D.

In the Island of Jamaica, Samuel Coscas, Esq. of Shrewsbury Estate, in the same Island.

At Iscoed, Carmarthen, aged 28, Robert O'Neill, Esq. brother to Mrs. Wrixon Becher. His death was caused by a dreadful compound fracture of the leg, received in rescuing his family from a carriage, in which their lives were in the utmost peril.

At St. Lucie, Lieut. Mackenzie, 5th Foot.

Lieut. Roberts, 26th Cameronians.

In Glasgow, Dr. Buchanan, late 32d regiment.

Lieut. Church, 20th Regiment.

At the Royal Hospital, at Haslar, Lieutenant James Rogers, R. N.

At Quebec, Lieut. Coates, 71st Light Infantry.

At the Mauritius, Captain Field, 82d.

At Bath, Captain Grey Rotton, of the 17th Regiment of Infantry.

In the East Indies, on his way to Calcutta, in order to return to England for the recovery of his health, Captain Oakes, 4th Regiment Native Infantry.

At Bombay, G. A. C. Hyde, Esq. of the Bombay Civil Service.

THE MARKETS.

The quantity of Wheat at market this day, was considerable, good merchantable samples from 13d. to 17d. per stone; inferior, 11d.—Oats, 6d. to 6d½, per stone—Barley,