

by the poor tenantry; and for grantnity, for life, to the widow of a ant whose lease had expired. nothing could more clearly evince the of the game laws than the fact which r knowledge a few days ago—that one this County, during last season, was the destruction of no less than forty eggs.—Belfast Chronicle.

erring fishery has completely failed--- have been out, but could get none; they would not go out when the bay with them---the weather was fine, and ag conspired to relieve our distressed no fish would be allowed to be taken. now get a supply from Scotland, and arned penny which the poor Galway ns, must be sent there to reward the their timely and judicious industry.--- Advertiser.

Frankland Lewis and James Glass-s. two of the Commissioners appointed into the state of Education in Ireland, this town last week, and visited the an and other schools, for the education or. On Friday a deputation from the of the Academical Institution had an with them, at the Donegall-Arms. missioners did not visit the schools of ation, but sent for the Masters and , to whom they stated that their sit was merely casual, but that in a they would return to Belfast, and nselves fully acquainted with the state ools and economy of the establishment. cceeded northward, by Antrim, on Belfast Chronicle.

tion of a Robber.—On Friday, a coun-g young man went into the cabin of Carr, near Templeogue, to shelter om the rain. He stopped there until k, and, upon leaving, he said he was Dublin to a relation of his, and that returning to Naas, (which place, he was a native of,) if he had life in his would call and repay them for their At eleven o'clock at night, when been scarcely half an hour in bed, he oise at his window, and immediately s the door of his cabin creaking, he , and perceived his "morning visitor," of his legs inside the threshold of the rr attempted to seize him, but the ; Carr pursued him for some time, sight of him; he, therefore, gave up The Police, however, being alarmed eams of Carr's wife, made a diligent l after some time succeeded in securing was brought to the Head-Office, said his name was Lloyd; that he was county of Limerick, which place he a "boy," named Kelly, who has since merica; that he has been five years hat he was confined in Limerick gaol; gged there for robbery. The Magis-mitted him to Newgate to abide his present Commission.

Twenty forfeit. Two years old Course.
 Mr Prendergast's f by Ossian, out of Lissy, walked over.
 FRIDAY.
 King's Plate of 100gs for Mares, carrying 10 stone each.
 Four mile heats.
 Mr Marmion's b m Slade .. 2 0 1 1 Mr Watt's b m Topsy .. 1 2 0 2 Mr Kennedy's br m Wire, .. 0 1 2 3 Mr French's b m Rose d'Amour, 0 3 3 dr.
 Mr Hunter's b m Penitence .. 3 4 0 dr.
 Colonel Armstrong's gr m Zoe, 0 0 0 dr.
 The Armstrong's of 10gs each, for two years old fillies, 8 stone each.
 Marquis of Sligo's ch f Vice 1
 Mr Daxon's ch f by Bob Booty, out of Penelope, 2 Five others paid forfeit.
 The Challenge of the Wellington Stakes of thirty guineas each, and the five pounds forfeit, p p. The winner carrying 6lb extra. Three years old course.
 Mr. Watt's ch. c. Little Tit, 3 years old, 7 stone 5lb walked over.

The Limerick Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15.

John Fleming, who was wounded at Hospital, on Wednesday, died on Saturday; the following day an inquest was held by James Bennett, Esq.
 Coroner, assisted by the High Sheriff, Mr. Blen-nerhasset and Captain Dumas, when a verdict of Wilful Murder was returned against Sub-Constable Joseph Bell, who is fully committed for trial at Spring Assizes.

There is not a single word of truth in the report that a serjeant's guard of the Royals was massacred, whilst engaged in still-hunting in the County Mayo.

On Sunday evening, a servant in a glg was watering his horse at the river, the animal plunged too far in, and was drowned; the man was rescued with difficulty, in a state almost lifeless.

Saturday night and Sunday morning, the Old Town was much annoyed by journeymen tailors, looking for intruders on their trade, called colts; in some instances they committed assaults and broke windows. Informations against the perpetrators have been received, and they will be tried at the ensuing Quarter Sessions.

Sunday night, a carpenter's house at Penny-well, was robbed of several articles.

Major Wilcocks is inspecting the Police throughout the County Cork, at their different stations. He left Cork yesterday for Bantry and that district.

The Magistrates dismissed two Police Constables at Nenagh, on Wednesday, for drinking in public-houses.

To-morrow Mr. Blacker will hold a Sessions under the Insurrection Act at Nenagh.

John Lloyd, Esq. of Cashel, County Roscom-mon, was drowned in a lake at Ballyglass, County Sligo, a few days ago.

A dray-man of Mr. Perrott's was yesterday received into the Infirmary with his leg fractured by a fall from a dray, near Adare, on Monday.
 The entire Revenue establishment is moved from Kilrush to Tarbert.

ews of his Majesty's ship King On Wednesday evening, a ve d supper was given at the D Lismore, by Lieutenant Ro Royal Hussars, to all the res hat town and neighbourhood.

Lord and Lady Combermere on Sunday, for Tralee.
 The Lord Bishop of Kill have left Clarisford-House for Clarisford-House is ordered to b plate repair.

The Hon. C. H. Hutchinson n Monday, on his way to Wate or England.

The City Sheriffs will hold 25th instant, when a Jury wil value several portions of land dge Commissioners.

A letter was received yesterda mmissioners, from Mr. Sec n which it is to be conjectur elency the Marquess Welles ebled to visit Limerick this propose of laying the first st dge; at all events, circum permit his Excellency to leav after the 25th instant, which w ant day appointed.

Henry Richmond, Esq. Chi the Revenue, arrived here terday inspected the differen ts in this port, with which ased, and particularly with ctness and regularity of rge of Mr. Taylor. Mr. R lee and Dingle on Friday a Mr. Richmond leaves tow blin.

Mr. Foster, one of the Comm on Inquiry, arrived in to ning, and has been since en several schools in this City, tem of instruction pursued mber of scholars attached ect, as Commissioner, is to upon the above topics, upo colleagues will hereafter fr consideration of Parliamen
 The Commissioners of Ed ke and Grant, are at pres estigating the state of the ed Westport on Wednesda Mr. Staunton, of Cork, v ted by the Chamber of stant Butter Inspector, at he Mail Coach between thi commence running in a fe after the 20th inst. the Eu atched from this at twelve after eleven, as it is at pre mitted to the City jail.
 get Elleston and Pat Hays alderman Watson, Jame othy Mullins, for an assa ht, Mary Meehan for fel and Margaret Connors,