WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

Monday, at a Meeting of the Corporation of this City, William Piercy, Esq. was elected Sheriff for the ensuing year, commencing Monday after Michaelmas Day, in room of George Vincent, Esq. resigned.

A few nights ago, a house was maliciously burned, on the lands of Rock-Hill, in this County.

On Monday last, an inquest was held at Court-bridge, by John Cox, Esq. Coroner, on the body of Michael Kinnane, a carman, who was killed on Saturday night by the upsetting of his car.— Verdict accidental death.

Last week, at Ballyagran, a woman having an altercation with her husband, attempted to destroy herself by hanging, but being discovered before the vital spark had fled, was saved.

Some ruffians, a few nights ago, attempted to break into the Toll-house, at Ballyheane turnpike, Connty. Tipperary—the Police used every mitted by the Court, for a grievous assault on a who was removed to the Hospital in a dangero The information of Ellen Yates against Th for an assault, was also taken, and which adjourned to Saturday:

 after making the necessary inqui system of instruction adopted in schools in that vicinity, proceeded in the evening.

Yesterday, a meeting of the fri Church Missionary Society, was h Dean Burrowes in the chair; dur ceedings the most scandalous inte offered, by a mob collected (it is s Cork Constitution) for the occasio insulting epithets such as 'pull hir

William Lonergan fell dead on the road near Bansha, on Monday last.

James Clancy and Malachy Eyres, ordered at last Assizes to be hanged, and whose sentence was commuted to transportation for life---and Pat Lynch, John Qu'n, and James Jordan, were forwarded from our City Jail to the Penitentiary convict ship at Cove, previous to embarking for Botany Bay.

Monday morning a number of masons went to the North-Strand, in consequence of several they called colts being employed at the coarse or preparatory works of the Bridge quays, and as soon as they were seen approaching the extended scene of action, the colts ran off with the celerity of racers. Without meaning to justify a breach of the peace, we cannot but disapprove of its being unwisely provoked by those who, instead of applying the public money to give employment and bread to the tradesmen of the City, look to hedgers and hardy labourers; and, if we are not misinformed, many of these employed to answer some political ends.
 But, be the motive what it may, what renders such a selection the more reprehensible is, that any saving it may be supposed to be, must ultimately turn out a loss from the waste of materials, and the insufficiency of any work executed by such hands.

On Monday morning a woman named Catherine Gavin, taking the opportunity of the hall door being left open, slipped up stairs in the house of Mrs. D'Estere, in George's street, and bundled up sheets, blankets, quilts, gowns, &c. to the value of some pounds, and also an elegant shawl worth about £5, with which she was decamping, but was fortunately met coming down by the servant, who had her immediately
