DEATHS.

On Saturday, the 25th Instant, James Cooper, of Cooper-Hill, Esq. aged 72. In announcing the death of this Gentleman any praise of ours is but the echo of the public opinion, which has long pronounced him to be the kindest of friends and most benevolent of human beings—never did distress appeal to him in vain, or the petitioner depart from his presence unsatisfied—he died as he lived, in charity with all men —and great will be his reward, for he bore a conscience void of offence towards God and Man. His remains were interred at Kilkeedy, yesterday.
