FIRE INSURANCE.

The Company undertakes to insure from Loss or Damage by Fire, Dwelling-houses, Goods in Trade, Manufactories, Distilleries, Breweries, Stores, Mills, Farming Stock, &c.
 &c. on the most equitable terms.

No charge is made for Policies in any case—Losses by Lightning made good—No Fees taken for alterations or indorsments—Persons choosing to insure for seven years, will be charged only six years premium, &c. &c. &c.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Company undertakes Insurances on Lives, between the ages of Eight and Sixty-five years, (and by special agreement to the age of EIGHTY years,) at equitable Rates, and to the extent of £7000 British, without Entrance Money, or any additional Premium for Sea Risk, in decked Vessels or Steam-Bots, to or from the British Isles, or to or from the Continent, on the line of coast between Texel and Brest, both inclusive.

All Losses are paid within thirty days after proof is made, and every facility is afforded by which the interest and convenience of the Public may be promoted.

The Directors will be anxious to show all possible respect to those who honour the Company with attention. They are invested with the means of rendering complete and liberal justice to every person who may have to claim the fulfilment of the Company's engagements; and while they exhibit a disposition to exert those means for the benefit of all who place themselves under the Company's protection, they are persuaded that the public confidence and support will bear full proportion to the diligence of their endeavours, and to the utility of the objects to which those endeavours are directed.

Printed Proposals and Rates may be had, Insurances effected, and every information on the business of the Establishment obtained, by applying to
