OPENED THIS DAY,

For the Sale of Prime Goods,

DIRECT FROM THE FACTORY,

W AND FASHIONABLE WOOLLEN ESTABLISHMENT,

HE LEEDS WOOLLEN-HALL.

ARLOTTE'S-QUAY, WITHIN TWO DOORS OF BANK-PLACE, ALL ESTABLISHMENT IN THIS KINGDOM THAT IS SUPPLIED BY ITS OWN

FACTORY.

FORS, in claiming a share of public patronage, feel it necessary to state what their pretensions are ; in doing so they beg to observe, that it is not with a view of opposing any other persons who may the favours of the public through the same source, but with the more laudable intention of may purchase from them, and of serving themselves, they therefore beg to state, (which they was a simple trial) that no House in the South of Ireland possesses the same advantages, or can is the

LEEDS WOOLLEN-HALL,

tors being themselves the real Manufacturers of every Article sold in their Concerns. Iless to expatiate on the advantages to be derived by purchasing at a House which alone is ne most extensive Manufactories in England, where there are daily employed about 360 persons the Manufacture, under the immediate inspection and controll of the Proprietors, who have stents for a mode of preparing their CLOTHS by Steam, which effectually prevents them from looking rough in course of wear.

J. T. BROOKS & SONS, Manufacturers.

ek forwarded, via City of Dublin Steam Packet, to their Agent in Limerick, several Thousand AXONY BLACK and BLUE CLOTHS; also CLARET, OXFORD, OLIVE and GREEN nting Frocks; DOUBLE-MILLED DRAB and BLUE CLOTHS, for Box Coats; a great variety AK CLOTHS, NAPS, COATINGS, &c. &c.; DOUBLE-MILLED CASSIMERES of every sty of WAISTCOATING, as now worn in London, &c. &c. forming altogether a Stock of ERY, which cannot be excelled in this City.

THEY BEG PARTICULARLY TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF

THE LADIES

ELISSE and HABIT CLOTHS, among which are some beautiful FRENCH GREY CLOTHS, new so much worn in London and Paris.

Price asked at the LEEDS WOOLLEN-HALL, as it is the desire of the Manufacturers, in House for the Sale of their Goods by Retail in the South of Ireland, at Factory Prices. rs beg to observe, that they have no connexion whatever with any other House of the same

JOHN BOURKE,

, 23, 1824. AGENT FOR LIMERICK,

BERNIAN

INT STOCK IG COMPANY.

ntages to be derived from Joint Stock anies, both to the Country and Subscrilly demonstrated by the success of the Banks of England and Ireland, that ter upon the details of the subject. S of the HIBERNIAN BANKING call the attention of the Citizens of Country adjacent to the Company in obtained an Act of Parliament to sanc-, and will otherwise start under the ices. A large portion of this Stock has abitants of the principal Trading Towns ingdom, whereby the Company are peration of a large and influential at desideratum in Companies of this s the only part of Ireland in which then ,000) has not been fully taken. The have in so important a City a respec-EREBY GIVE NOTICE, that they extend the time for receiving Proposals erick, until the 10th day of October any Stock not subscribed for will be be received for any sum exceeding the Sums subscribed to be paid on No further Instalment will be called appear to be for the advantage of the lotice will be given to the Proprietors hould any further be deemed necessary.) he Holder to a Vote.

ock to be addressed -"To the Directors int Stock Banking Company (or the ,) at the Temporary Office, 23, Damether information may be had.

Dame-street, Dublin, Oct. 20, 1824.

AUCTION OF

FURNITURE,

Without Reserve.

WILLIAM LEDGER,

Having disposed of his House and Concerns in George's-street,

H. N. SEYMOUR, Auctionier,
Will offer for sale by Auction on Monday next,
AND SUCCEEDING DAYS,

THE REMAINDER OF HIS VALUABLE STOCK

OF FURNITURE,

With the entire Furniture of his Dwelling-House,

CONSISTING of Drawing-Room Chairs, Mahogany Tables, Sofas, Curtains, Bedsteads, Pallyasses, &c. &c. some very fine Pier and Chimney Glasses; also a quantity of Mahogany and other hard Timber, all well seasoned. A very choice Time-Piece.

Sale to commence each day at Twelve o'Clock. The Purchaser to pay the King's Duty.

H. N. SEYMOUR, Auctionfer.

H. N. SEYMOUR will open the above extensive Concerns for the Sale of all description of Furniture, on Com-

Auctions in Town and Country attended as usual.

The entire Upper Part of said House to be Let unfurnished, which would answer a large Family, being unconnected with the Warerooms. The Lodgings consist of Front and Back Brawing-Room, Eight Bed-Rooms, Kitchen, Pantry, Vaults, &c. &c.

N. B.—The STORE in rere to be Let.

14, George's-street, 20th October, 1824.

SHEEP.

EWES, with Two superior RAMS. They are well chosen, and from two to three years old. Also, Fifty Prime LAMBS and Seventy HOGGETS. Any Gentleman taking the entire will be treated liberally, and time given for the payment, as the owner is about to surrender the farm upon which they are at present. Application at the Chronisle-Office - if by letter, post-paid.

October 20, 1824.

FOX-HUNTING.

MEETING of those GENTLEMEN who wish to have a Subscription Pack of FOX-HOUNDS in the County of Clare, is requested at Mrs. BOWEN'S HOTEL, DEATHS.

At Nenagh, of fever, Dr. Silcox, late of the 90th Foot. Yesterday, in Nenagh, Mr. Austin Toohey, Apothecary, & man deeply lamented by his family, and shall long be remembered with regret by all who knew him.

At his seat Rosmore near Charleville, John Shelton, Esq. a gentleman sincerely regretted by his respectable connexions. In August last, at Canefield Estate, Essequibo, West es, Mr. Frederick Fitz-Gerald, fourth son of William Gerald, of this City, Esq. His death was occasioned by a violent fever, which terminated his existence on the forth day. He is sincerely lamented by his family and friends, to whom he would have been an ornament had he survived the climate, as he had the good fortune at his early period of life, to have established for himself an high character for talent and integrity.

On Monday morning, at an advanced age, at her lodgings, on Merchant's-Quay, Mrs. Eliza Welsh, relict of the late Thomas Welsh, Esq. (formerly the respectable Proprietor of The Munster Journal,) a Lady possessed of all those valuable attributes that, through a long life, secured to her the esteem and affection of her earliest friends; and the few of them that survive her, sympathise, on this event, in the feelings of her family.

In Mungret-street, Mrs. Nevitt, of the Society of Friends, James G. Jacob, Esq. of Morthsetown, County Tipperary. In Dublin, William Knaresborough, of Inch, Esq.

In Graigue, County Carlow, Mr. John Dowling, tanner, At Johnson's-place, Dublin, the wife of Mr. W. G. Eades. At Newport, County Longford, Mrs. Lacy, widow of Murtogh Lacy, Esq. and sister of the late Right Rev. T. L. O'Beirne, Lord Bishop of Meath.

In Dublin, Edmond Hyde Hall, Esq.

Mrs. Warner, of Mountjoy Square, South, Dublin. In Clare-street, Dublin, aged 78 years, Mrs. Douglass. At Malahide, aged 94 years, John Haig, Esq. M. D. late Physician to the Forces at Cork.

In Paris, of fever, in the prosecution of his studies as Physician, Henry Heazle, Esq. of Rock Castle, Co. Cork.

In London, Doctor de Brodum.

Susannah, wife of Charles Augustus Tulk, Esq. M.P. Captain J. Caldwell, Barrackmaster of Chelmsford.

John Bawtree, Esq. of Colchester, banker.

The wife of Major General Gosslen.
At Sandgate, the Rev. George Milner, youngest brother to Sir William Milner, Bart.

At Geneva, Miss Robina Burnside, niece of the late Colonel Robert Wright, Royal Artillery.

At Gibraltar, Helen Orr, youngest child of Major James Bogle, 94th Regiment.

At Penang, on the 5th April, James Carnegie, Esq. the oldest merchant on the straits of Malacca.

THE MARKETS.

Wheat, though in good supply this day, brought last quotations for prime samples-Red 16d. to 19d. per stone; and White, 171d to 20d per stone-Oats, owing to a competition here between buyers to complete orders, unwarranted by any foreign communications, started up to 91d per stone, but are now at 9d. (down.) - Barley 12d. to 13d. per stone - Flour, in consequence of the high prices of wheat has come up again to 40s, per bag for Firsts,; 34s. 8d. for Seconds, and 26s. per bag for Thirds .- Oatmeal, unaltered, 12s. per cwt-Potatoes, 21d. to 3d. per stone, the farmers being employed in saving the crops .- Pork, 30s. to 32s. per cwt. little arriving-Beef, at former prices, 4d. to 5d. per lb .-Mutton, 4d. to 5d. per lb .- Rapeseed, 21s. to 23s. per brl. -Flax, in good demand, at from 4s. 2d. to 4s. 4d. per stone, hand-scutched; Mill-scutched, 4s. 6d. to 4s. 8d. per ditto,-Thread, 41d. to 51d. per hank .- Pound Yarn, 71d. to 9d. per lb .- Herrings, continue at 25s, per barrel-Wool, 16s. per stone.-Whiskey, 6s. 6d. per gallon.-Picked Feathers, White, 26s.; Grey, 13s. per stone-Rough Tallow, progressive with the season, up to 6s. and 6s. 4d. per stone,-Orrell Coals, ex ship, 32s.; Liverpool, 25s. per ton; some cargoes of Workington have arrived, but were bought up by Coal Dealers, at 20s. per ton, to retail.—British Bar Iron has advanced considerably here from £9 10s. to 14s. per ton. Nailors' Rod, ditto, from £11 to £16 per ton; Russian and Swedish are sold at £28 per ton.

Butter—94s.—90s.—84s.—78s.—and 72s. per cwt. and 3s. over the above paid generally.

Received since last, 1747 Firkins, viz:

1st. 2ds. 3ds. 4ths. 5ths.

Wednesday .. 95 .. 246 .. 124 .. 42 .. 5

Thursday ... 191 ... 264 ... 82 ... 27 ... 0

Friday 255 ... 289 ... 100 ... 19 ... 8

Waterford Markets, yesterday—Butter, 94s. to 96s. per cwt.—Wheat, 28s. to 30s—Oats, 10s. 10d—Barley, 20s.—Bacon Hogs, 42s.; Scalded 37s. to 39s.

Butter in Clonmel-87s. 84s. 81s. per cwt. CORK MARKETS, YESTERDAY.

Our Market continues to be well supplied with every species of grain. Yesterday there was a further advance on Wheat and Barley, Oats pretty steady. The following were the prices:

Wheat.......26s. Od. a 32s. Od. -20 Stone. Barley........15s. 6d. a 20s. 6d. -16 do.

Provisions—On Tuesday a fine lot of Bullocks, 60 in number, was delivered at the stores of one mercantile house, at 27s per cwt for Planters, and 26s for India—