

of the various and extensive STOCK will be at Cost—and it is requested that those who are the House will have the kindness to discharge us.

Tipperary, 17th Nov. 1824.

CAVENGERS.

TY LOT, No. 5, as formerly advertised, will be by Auction at Twelve o'Clock on THURSDAY 18th Instant, at the City Court-House—the Purchaser to have the Manure to the 12th October next.—To be paid at Sale.

Condition is as follows:—"From the Old Market—the sign of the Black Bull outside John's-Gate, and all Back Lanes right and left, the Square, and Blake's former Inn, Cornwallis-street."

Limerick, November 16, 1824.

LET OPEN AT FIVE PENCE.

LAST WEEK OF THE

PANORAMA

OF ALGIERS,
AT THE ASSEMBLY-ROOMS.

PROPRIETOR, in returning thanks and in announcing the close of the PANORAMA, which will next Saturday, begs to state that as many applications and parties have been unceasingly admitted for less than the usual charge, viz. the Boxes and 10d. for the Pit, Mr. LAIDLAW, states that he will not alter, on any account those prices; therefore those who may be waiting for a deviation, will be disappointed.

Military Band accompanies the movements of the Panorama—which is exhibited every day, at twelve and one o'clock; and every evening, at seven and half o'clock.

.....1s. 8d. | Pit.....10d. | Books.....5d.
Assembly-Rooms, Charlotte's-Quay, Nov. 13, 1824.

BANKRUPT'S SALE

OF HARDWARE, IRONMONGERY, Plated Britannia Metal, and Fancy
Goods, &c. &c. &c.

TO BE SOLD by AUCTION, on FURLONG, THURSDAY, 18th Instant, and following days, at No 9, Patrick-street, corner of Ellen-street, Lime-the Bankrupt's Stock in Trade, consisting of Fire-irons, Fenders, Brushes, Japanned Ware, Tin, Patent Metal and Iron Kettles; Copper Preserving

all descriptions of Kitchen Furniture, Bridles, Pot Bells, Powder Flasks, Britannia Metal Tea
and Caddles, Ladies Reticules and Work Umbrellas, &c. &c. with a general assortment of Singes, Saws, and Edge Tools—all to be Sold in Reserve.

to commence at 12 o'Clock each day,

SAMUEL BOARDMAN, Auctionier,
92, Grafton-street, Dublin.

Two neat Spar Chimney Timepieces.

Limerick, November 17, 1824.

NEW BRIDGE

OVER THE RIVER SHANNON, AT ATHLONKARD.

Meeting of GENTLEMEN connected with the City
Limerick and Counties of Clare and Limerick, in the Erection of a BRIDGE over the RIVER
Shannon, at Athlonkard, called by Public Advertisement, at Swinburne's Hotel, on Wednesday the 10th of November, 1824:

Sir HUGH D. MASSY, Bart. in the Chair, declared—that the erection of a Bridge at or near Ath-lonkard, connecting the Eastern part of the County Clare with the City and County of Limerick, as also a Public Road, correspond on either side, are objects of great ex-portance, and in order to carry into effect the above most desirable

In Waterford, the Lady of T. Nevins, Esq. of a daughter.
At Nairn Grove, the Lady of Colonel Anderson, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Yesterday, at St. George's Church, by the Rev. Pryce Peacocke, Mr. William Carroll Hourigan, of Nenagh, to Mrs. Matilda Bateman, relict of the Rev. Henry Bateman.

At Dungourney Church, County Cork, the Rev. Richard Guggin, to Catherine, eldest daughter of the late Digby Foulke, of Nairn Grove, in that County, Esq.

At Lakena Church, Wm. Bragge, Esq. Captain 3d, or King's Own, Dragoons, eldest son of J. Bragge, Esq.
Sadborough-House, Devon, to Margaret, second daughter of J. G. Sparrow, Esq. Gosfield-place, Essex.

John Cummins, Esq. of Ballybar, County Carlow, to the relict of William Duane, Esq.

At Tramore, Thomas Staunton, Esq. of Clonmel, to the daughter of Edward Barron, Esq.

In the Cathedral of Derry, Captain John M'Entire, of the Hon. East India Company's service, to Sarah, daughter of the late Ninian Boggs, Esq.

On Sunday morning last, at the house of her father, in George's-street, by the Very Rev. Dr. Hogan, Sarah, eldest daughter of James O'Brien, Esq. Merchant, to William H.
Nash, Esq. both of this City. Immediately after the ceremony, the happy pair, accompanied by several of their friends, set off for Woodlawn, the seat of Thomas Devitt, Esq. to spend the honeymoon, where the entire party were entertained with Mr. Devitt's well-known hospitality.

Mr John M'Carthy, of the South Main-street, to Miss Jane O'Driscoll, of the South-Mall, Cork.

At Corfu, Captain Holmes, 90th Light Infantry, to Amelia, eldest daughter of Sir Patrick Ross.

George Kinnear, Esq. Banker in Edinburgh, to Euphemia, daughter of Robert Watson, Esq. of Glasgow, Banker.

DEATHS.

This morning, at the house of Frederick Bevan, Esq. in Thomas-street, Mrs Finch, relict of the late William Finch, Esq. of Maryville, in this County—a Lady who, during a long life, sustained a most benevolent and kind disposition, and whose death is sincerely regretted by her respectable family and friends

At Portarlinton, Mrs Mary Anderson, widow of the late George Anderson, of this City, Esq.

Mrs. M'Donnell, wife of Charles M'Donnell, Esq. of Carhue, County Clare.

On the 16th of February last, at Cannanore, east of Madras, Henry Massy Cooper, Esq. Major in the Hon. East India Company's Army; having served nearly 21 years, a great part of which he was actively employed in the field—he fell a victim to repeated attacks of cholera succeeded by jungle fever; his brother Officers have erected a splendid monument at the place of his burial, to commemorate his valuable services and testify their esteem; he was brother-in-law of Sir Christopher Marrett of this City.

In Mountjoy-square, Dublin, aged 16 years, Anne, daughter of the late Hans Hamilton, Esq. MP,

In North Great George's-street, Dublin, Surgeon William Doyle, aged 35.

In Townsend-street, Dublin, Mr. John Scott, merchant.

At Monastereven, Surgeon Denis Nolan.

Frances Nolan, third daughter of Edward Nolan, Esq.
Barrister at Law, late of Geraldstown, County Meath.

In Halston-street, Dublin, Mr James Coogan.

In Kilkenny, Edward Redmond, Esq.

On the Dyke Parade, Cork, the infant son of William Walker, Esq.

At Mount Panther, County of Down, Hannah relict of the late Robert Macan, of Cariff, County of Armagh, Esq.

The Very Rev. Doctor Luke Doyle, P. P. of Clara.

In London, George Thomas Bulkeley, Esq. formerly of Lisbon, aged 85.

At Margate, the Dowager Lady Dryden.

The Hon. Frances Howard, youngest daughter of Lord
Howard, of Effingham.

At the house of Samuel Smith, Esq. MP, in Berkeleysquare, London, Major-General Thomas Carey, 3d Regiment of Guards.

At Lincoln, aged 47 years, Alderman William Hall,
Mayor of that City in 1815 and 1822.

At York, Mr H. Wilkinson, Attorney, who formerly resided in Cheltenham.

At New Orleans, of fever, Doctor Joseph Dwyer.

At Fontenay-en-Brie, the Duke de Noailles, aged 85 years,
a Peer of France,

THE MARKETS.