THE ANNUAL CITY SERMON,

IN AID OF THE UNITED SCHOOLS,
Seven Hundred poor Boys are daily educated,
and about Three Hundred clothed,

WILL BE PREACHED IN ST MICHAEL'S CHAPEL,
Sunday next, the 28th Inst.
(The first Sunday of Advent.)
At half-past Two o'Clock,
BY A GENTLEMAN OF DISTINGUISHED TALENTS,
Rev. Mr. O'KEEFFE, of Cork.

Plan of Instruction is on the Lancasterian Plan, under the superintendance of Gentlemen who have talents and abilities, exclusively, to this purpose;
and improvement of the Pupils evince the benefit of such society will every successive year derive from the Instruction and Example of such Preceptors.
I beg leave to observe, that, for the benefit of applicants, whom want of room excluded from of Instruction at the School in Clare-street, and, in addition, the temporary occupation of Park, where they have opened two extensive use of the Children of the different Parishes, otherwise be accommodated.

Schools, the numerous Poor Children of this population receive that Instruction which they would otherwise acquire in vain. To a want of moral Instruction, and the acquirement of it, may we in many instances attribute the want of virtue in youth, which, alas, too often leads to the perpetration of crimes of the blackest dye, and the ruin of many, who, had they the advantage of a suitable education, would resist the temptations of evil doings.

In the Sermon there will be a GRAND ORATORIO, performed by the most distinguished Vocalists in Ireland (Mr. GIBSON, of Mallow.) has promised to assist.— Pieces of Sacred Music will be performed, particularly shall be advertised in due time.

From those who may not find it convenient to attend, the same will be gratefully received and acknowledged by the Rev. Mr. TUOHY, by the Clergy of the different Chapels, and by E. RYAN, Esq. Treasurer.
