

December 1, 1824.

TO BE LET, DESIRABLE RESIDENCE, in a very and respectable Neighbourhood, THE HOUSE OF REVIEW.

in one mile of Parsonstown, King's ect repair, and Furnished with every ly would want (Plate and House Linen e Let by the Month or Year as required od any quantity of LAND will be Let
-the FURNITURE and STOCK given approved security taken for them.— ighest state of cultivation, being mostly e several hundred small Trees in full wards, and the greatest profusion of Offices are extensive and convenient.
cel this for every comfort required in daily post and one of the best market

apply to B. B. WARBURTON, Esq.
Y; Captain DROUGHT, Limerick ;
SON, Esq. Parsonstown; or Captain Co. 3, Harcourt-Place, Dublin; if by the house, will show the Premises.

December 1, 1824.

NOTICE.

Gentry and Public of Limerick and its respectably acquainted, that there is inspection at Miss CARMODY'S, Con-strick-street, an extensive Assortment of Northampton, Buckingham, and and's Patent,) in VEILS, SCARVES, CAPS, and LACE of various widths
a variety of French Fans, Reticules, Opera Glasses, and other Nic-Nacks.—J. of London. The least abatement cannot price first named. French and Dutch Tokens taken in Payment.

Limerick, December 1, 1824.

NOTICE

FOR MEN AND OTHERS.

open and ready for work a large bed of E, 27 inches deep, which may be worked six to eight feet square. On inspection be found very advantageous and fully the description required for the Liverpool rietor, Mr. SAMUEL EVANS, South-would Let the above to any person desirous e Liverpool Dock Trustees. It is sup-would not hold water at the depth of 60

December 1, 1824.

NOTICE.

CTOR of CLONMEL will hold an udley's Inn, in NENAGH, on MONDAY, next, to receive QUIT RENTS, &c.
t paid on that day, may expect Drivers.
December 1, 1824.

KEALE DISPENSARY.

of the COMMITTEE of SUBSCRIBERS
Institution is requested on THURSDAY
ECEMBER, to examine the half-yearly account other business of importance.
Bathkeale, 27th November, 1824.

N OF RATHKEALE.

R. Smyth, TWO to be Let from the 6th day of NOVEMBER instant, for Six Months, subject to redemption, All that Tenements, and Garden in the Town called BOURKE'S TENEMENT, and of the Defendants.

be made during Term to CHARLES B.

daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Hay, Royal Engineers.

At Dunamoo Church, Co. Roscommon, Richard O'Connor, Esq., of Marnell's Grove, Esq. third son of Roderick O'Connor, Esq.
to Miss Eliza Wilson, of Black Garden, County Galway.

Henry Gibson, Esq. to Harriet, second daughter of William Long, of Donnybrook, Esq.

In Clonmel, Mr James Mara, to Margaret, daughter of Mr. David Hickey, of that town.

In the Island of Trinidad, Captain John Knox, 1st West India Regiment, to Caroline, daughter of the late Countess Knox, King's Attorney-General of that place.

At Montrose, Campbell Locke, Esq. Royal Navy, to Helen, daughter of Andrew Knox, Esq.

Sir Thomas F. Freemantle, Bart. to Louisa, eldest daughter of General Sir George Nugent, Bart.

In London, the Rev. William Barlow, son of Admiral Sir Robert Barlow, C. B. to Louisa, second daughter of the late Robert J. Adeane, of Cambridgeshire, Esq.

At Lansanne, Captain Wynne Baird, nephew to General
Sir David Baird, Bart. to the daughter of Henry Cerjat, Esq.

In London, Mr Tucker, of Kensington, to Miss Scott, sister to the Rev. E. Scott, of Mary-le-bonne.

At Northfleet, Major T. W. Hutchinson, to Charlotte, sixth daughter of Thomas Pritchard, Esq. of Blackheath.

At Portpatrick, William Jackson, Esq. of Newry, to Miss Anne Tegart.

DEATHS.

Of fever, on the 15th September last, on board his Majesty's ship Maidstone, on the African station, Lieut. John Hunt, the Senior Lieutenant, son of John Hunt, of Manle-Hill, in this County, Esq.

On Sunday, in Catherine-street, in an advanced age, Miss Martha Hunter, sister of the late Samuel Hunter, of this City, Esq.

On Sunday, in Carr-street, Mr Michael Molony.

On Sunday, at the house of her sister, in George's-street, after a tedious and lingering illness which she bore with christian resignation, Mrs. Catherine Murphy, relict of the late Mr. Hugh Murphy, of this City.

The relict of Mr Daniel O'Brien, of Ryninch.
Miss O'Grady, late of Charlotte's-quay.

Anne, daughter of the late William Kirkwood, Esq. of Killaloe.

In Cavendish-row, Dublin, aged 17 years, John, eldest son of the late Richard M'Nally, Esq.

In Stafford-street, Paul Twigg, Esq. late of his Majesty's Accountant-General's Office, in which department of the Revenue he served Government for more than forty years.

Jane, second daughter of the late James Malone, of Werburgh-street, Dublin, of the Society of friends.

In Waterford, the relict of Thomas Delandre, Esq.

In Carlow, of apoplexy, William M'Darby, Esq.

In Dublin, the relict of Mr. Thomas Johnson.

William Shetler, sen. Esq. of Portland-place, Dublin.

In London, Captain Roger Sheehy, 89th Regiment, son to the late Bryan Sheehy, Esq. of Corbally, County Cork.

Near Enniskillen, Miss Elizabeth Aiken.

In Cork, the relict of Mr. Francis Hore, coachmaker.

Eliza, sister of the late Rev. Mr. Lawler, of Cork.

Sunday, in Ennis, aged 78, Mrs O'Gorman, relict of Mr Thomas O'Gorman.

In Waterford, George, son of Captain Dunne, Royal Navy.

In Dublin, Mrs. Wright, wife of Surgeon Wright.

Catherine, daughter of the late Sir George Cooke, Bart.

At the Cape of Good Hope, Mrs. Colonel Morley.

At Belgaum, in the East Indies, Captain Mathew Kemble, 1st Regiment Native Cavalry.

At Ballinbeg, Mrs. Jalabert, sister to Lord Braybrooke.

At Rangoon, Captain Friswell, 10th Madras Infantry.

At Trinchinopoly, Charles Harwood Higginson, Esq.
senior Provincial Judge.

At Bangalore, in July last, Captain C. F. Pells, Assistant-Quarter-Master-General of the Madras Army.

At Ashtead, the Right Hon. Lady Elizabeth Broderick, wife of the Rev. William John Broderick, and daughter of the Earl of Cardigan,

At Canterbury, the Rev. Thomas Bennett, one of the Minor Canons of that Cathedral.

At Salem, on the 28th of June, of the bill fever, Robert John Hunter, Esq. of the firm of Arbuthnot and Co. Madras, and only son of the late Sir John Hunter, his Britannic Majesty's Consul-General for Spain: and on the 3d of July following, Louisa, his widow, the youngest daughter of Capt.
James Thomas, Hon. East India Company's service.

A Cape Breton, Town Adjutant Weeks.

At Morton, near Southwell, Dorothy Fletcher, in her 103d year.