

OPRIETORS.

SUN
RE OFFICE,
ESTABLISHED 1710.
UILDINGS, CORNHILL, AND OURT, CHARING CROSS, LONDON.

MANAGERS.

les Pole, Esq. Treasurer.

bus, Bart.	Rt. Hon. W. Huskisson, M P
Esq.	Felix Calvert Ladbroke, Esq
Esq.	Henry Ladbroke, Esq.
Esq.	Charles Shaw Lefevre, Esq.
ll Bouverie,	Hon. Hugh Lindsay, M. P.
Esq.	Charles Littledale, Esq.
Esq.	Henry Littledale, Esq.
Esq.	John Péarse, Esq. M. P.
jun. Esq.	Brice Pearse, Esq.
, Esq.	C. George Thornton, Esq.
, Esq.	James Trotter, Esq.
Esq.

asures against loss or damage by fire, all of buildings, goods, wares and merchandize, and in dock, craft on navigable rivers and s laden in the same, waggons travelling the contents, and farming stock of all descripions charged by this Society are as low as ce of the Office has proved to be compati-re of the risks, and with a prompt and libelosses.

may be insured generally, in all barns and a farm without the average clause. And a of this mode of insurance may be had on Office, or to any of its Agents.

or losses by fire are made by this Office

Office pays losses or damage by fire from nsure for more years than one, and in such owance of 5 per cent, per annum, compound made on the premium, and duty received cept the first; and as the duty amounts to an the premium, on common insurances, the made is equal to 12½ per cent. on premiums

e Engine, with an Experienced Engineer, ours in case of Fire, which greatly tends ty.

LIFE OFFICE insures at pren, under forty-five years of age, urance is for the whole of life, and ve for shorter periods, are consider-an are generally required.

P. MURPHY, Agent,
113, George's-Street,

ERT AND BALL.

a of the Right Worshipful HENRY WATSON, Esq. Mayor.

VELY FOR ONE NIGHT ONLY.

MRS. ASHE,

quaint her Friends and the Public, that her VOCAL and INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC, on Monday Evening, the 20th Instant, at

BIRTHS.

This morning, at Abbey-Court, the Lady of Esq, of a son.

In Waterford, the Lady of Robert Uniacke
Woodhouse, of a daughter.

At the Castle, Killala, the Lady of the Rev. Arc Verschoyle, of a son.

At Rosetown, in the County Kildare, the Lady of Esq
Bateman, Esq. of a son,

At Castle-Grace House, near Clogheen, the Lady of Jo
A. H. Beere, Esq. of a son.

In Dublin, the Lady of Edmund J. Nolan, Esq. of a son.

In Cork, the Lady of William P. White, Esq. of a son.

The Lady of G. H. Cherry, Esq. M P. of a son.

At the Vicarage of Bishopstone, North Wilts, the Lady of the Rev. Henry Middleton, of a son.

At Plymouth, the Lady of R. J. Fayrer, Esq R. N. of a son.

The Lady of Capt. Barry, Royal Engineers, of a daughter.

The Lady of Captain Piper, Royal Engineers, of a son.

The Lady of the Rev. Edward Brice, Chaplain to the Ordinary at Plymouth, of a daughter.

At Cromarty, N. B. the Lady of Major George G. Munro, of a daughter.

In London, the Lady of Major William Granville Elliot, Royal Horse Artillery, of a son, who survived but a few days.

MARRIAGES.

In Cork, the Rev. John Busteed, of Ballinrea, to Frances, eldest daughter of Thomas Daunt, of Fahadea, Esq.

In Dublin, James Leech, Esq. Attorney, to Charlotte, daughter of Lewis Rochfort, Esq of Brusnabank, King's Co.

In Mækstown Church, William Barnes, jun. Esq. of Armagh, to Eliza, fifth daughter of Charles Stewart, late of Gayfield, in the King's County, Esq.

The Rev. George B. Dawson, of Fennagh Lodge, County
Carlow, to Ellen, daughter of Dudley Hill, Esq.

In the Isle of Man, J. C. Tupper, Esq. to Amelia, daughter of Major John Nicholls, 97th Regiment.

At Woolwich, H. G. Boldero, Esq. Royal Engineers, to Louisa, second daughter of the late Anthony Lambert, Esq.

In London, Robert Williams, Esq. of the 44th Regiment, to Anne, only daughter of John Benton, of Houghton House, Northamptonshire, Esq.

DEATHS.

At Malta, sincerely and deservedly lamented, Boyle Vandeleur Creagh, Esq. First Lieutenant of the Royal Artillery, son of James Creagh, Esq of Carbane, Co. Clare.

In Dublin, William Pitt Kennedy, Esq. Barrister at Law.
Mrs. Thomas Norton, of Exchequer-street, Dublin.

On the Quay, Waterford, Thomas Quan, Esq.
In Cork, John James, son of M. Belesaigne, Esq.

Suddenly, at Herbertstown, Mr. William Kennedy.
At Ballyragget, the Rev. Sterne Ball, Rector of Odega, in the Diocese of Ossory.

At Boghead, near Antrim, on the 2d inst. aged 84 years, the Rev. George Macartney, LL.D, Vicar of Antrim, and Rector of Skerry and Racavar, in the diocese of Connor, and Rector of O'Mullud, in the diocese of Killaloe. He was 51 years a Magistrate for the County of Antrim, during which period the services rendered by him to his country were of more than an ordinary description. He was the first to discover the seduction of the military by the United Irishmen in 1796.

In Waterford, Mrs. Waring, of the Society of Friends.

In Lower Fleet-street, Dublin, Mrs. Lord.

Mr. Nicholas Herbert, of Smock-alley, chemist.

The relict of William Burgess, Esq. of Belfast.

At the Presentation Convent, Kilkenny, Miss Elizabeth
Finn, daughter of the late Michael Finn, Esq.

In London, Catherine, second daughter of B. Ball, Esq of Merrion-square, Dublin.

At Clapham, the wife of William Henry Crowder, Esq.

William John Chute, Esq. late M P. for Southampton.

The Rev. John Royle, of Liverpool.

In Paris, aged 90 years, M Jean Baptist Duchillon, Archbishop of Tours, the oldest of the French Bishops.

THE MARKETS.

Our Grain Markets are on the look down, but we cannot notice any alteration in other articles—Red Wheat, from 18d to 1s 8d per stone; and White, 19d. to 1s 9d per stone—