

Connell made several speeches.

—The speech about South America and speech did not appear in the Freeman's —That is not the question I asked you. Now is, did you take notes of that part of South America?

—I can say whether I did or not without a note-book, which I have not got about

—I see the Gentlemen of the Press have not as yet any information on this subject, and it is necessary to examine them more to the usual legal method. Tursing Magistrate then said, 'Mr Elrington, examine you in this stage of the busierty. Reporter for the Morning Post, the report that appeared in that Paper, reported in that Paper were substantially having been repeated to him, he replied, as reported in the Morning Post (one of the words alluded to) and that he reported the Proceedings.

of the Irish Times, and Mr Elrington, subsequently examined, but the result of it transpired.

—I am assured, that the cause of Mr. O'Connell's Report of a speech delivered by him on Thursday last, which was given on the subject of Bolivar should arise in this country to the same effect.—Correspondent.

—I am assured, that the cause of Mr. O'Connell's Report of a speech delivered by him on Thursday last, which was given on the subject of Bolivar should arise in this country to the same effect.—Correspondent.

—I am assured, that the cause of Mr. O'Connell's Report of a speech delivered by him on Thursday last, which was given on the subject of Bolivar should arise in this country to the same effect.—Correspondent.

—I am assured, that the cause of Mr. O'Connell's Report of a speech delivered by him on Thursday last, which was given on the subject of Bolivar should arise in this country to the same effect.—Correspondent.

truth in the report that Mr. O'Connell has commenced an action against the proprietor of Saunders's News-Letter, for the publication of an article attributed to him in that Paper, and the Catholic Priesthood have come forward to support the action by instituting actions against the proprietors of the late articles.—Ibid of Sir A. B. King, Bart. a. Esq. for an alleged libel, is before the Court of Quarter Sessions to-day at the Bench.

Mayor yesterday presided at a meeting of the inhabitants, relative to the coronation of the Queen. Mr. Cropper attended the ere this day received against the Mayor for exporting dead bodies from London.

ral Society are about to rent a house in the city, for the purpose of establishing a Farm-School.

order states, that the Mayor of London is to let the Orangemen of that city perform the usual ceremony of shutting the city gates, and also declares, that he will not allow them to assemble in the city, and those different insignia of their processions.

and taken away on Sunday night from the Concord of Workington, by one of those young miscreants who infest the merchant vessels at our quays. The offender was apprehended early next morning and committed, but the property has not been discovered.

Monday night, a nest of coiners was discovered by the City Police in full operation at an house outside Thomond-gate. A great variety of counterfeit silver tokens were detected in their possession, together with all the necessary implements used in this dangerous and illegal occupation. Two men and a woman found engaged in the actual preparation were taken into custody, and committed to Jail.

On Monday night, between 7 and 8 o'clock, two villains stole from the shop of Mrs. Vincent, in George's-street, three pieces of bombazines, containing thirty yards each.

A reward is offered by the Directors of the St. Patrick Insurance Company, Dublin, for the apprehension of Captain Thomas Connolly, late master of the sloop Danmore, of Galway, against whom there are informations, for scuttling and sinking, and disposing of part of her cargo.

Through the exertions of Mr. Ford, and Mr. Lane, at the Weigh-house, part of the butter which was stolen from a Carman's Stage, in Thomond-gate, is recovered, and a man and woman charged with the offence were yesterday committed to Jail by Alderman Watson.

There was every indication of a serious riot at the last fair of Milltown, County Kerry, which was only suppressed by the activity of J. S. Lawlor, Esq. and the police.

Monday night, Ellen Quin, a child of 9 years of age, was burned to death in a house in Mary-street. The Mayor held an inquest—Verdict accordingly.

Last night a man fell into Lyon's-dock, contiguous to Captain Drought's Police-Barrack, some of whom were instantly on the alert, and providentially rescued him from drowning. This place is in a shamefully unprotected state, and proved fatal to another person not long since.

At the Recorder's Court, Cork, on Monday, Jeremiah Sweeny, potato-seller, was found guilty for using false weights. The Recorder told the prisoner, that if he was again detected in these fraudulent practices, he should be sentenced to twelve months imprisonment. He now ordered him to be confined for one calendar month.

On Wednesday last, about two o'clock in the afternoon, whilst a gentleman was receiving rents in the house of Mr. Daniel Brody, at Mount-Shannon, in the County of Galway, a number of people entered the room where the gentleman was sitting, with the apparent intention of speaking on business, when one of the party contrived to take away a valuable musket, the property of the owner of the house. Nothing more strongly proves the existence of a regular combination amongst the peasantry than this transaction, the numerous family of Mr. Brody being all in the house, some of whom must have detected the robber, had he not been carefully sheltered from observation by his associates.—Ennis Paper.

It is confidently stated that, in consequence of applications from the East India Government has agreed to increase the force in India, either by the addition of regiments from England, or by an increase of the number of companies in the regiments serving in India. The latter plan is to be adopted, which will be a source of promotion for the Officers of the regiments in India.

Major-General Sir Thomas Brisbane is expected in London, from his Government at Botany Bay.

It is stated that Major Goulburne is to be sent from the office of Secretary to the Government of New South Wales.

The head-quarters of the 1st West India Regiment have been removed from Trinidad to Trinidad.

The depots of the 47th and 53rd Regiments have received orders to proceed from their barracks to Portsmouth, to join the 1st Battalion.

Three companies of the 99th Regiment, stationed at Glasgow, have received orders to march themselves in readiness to march at a moment's notice.

The 6th Foot, being ordered for India, this week received an augmentation of 100 men.

Lieutenant and Adjutant Edward Parker, of the 62nd Regiment, whom His Royal Highness the Commander-in-Chief has been pleased to promote lately to a Company, without purchase, the youngest son of the Rev. John Parker, of Park, County Kerry, a native of the County, Captain Parker had been appointed to the 62d, shortly after his entering the service, which he at all times discharged with a degree of talent and zeal to which the correct state of discipline of the well-regimented Corps bear ample testimony.

The Paymaster of the 92d Foot has been sentenced by Court Martial at Up-Park, Jamaica.

The Military at Gibraltar, have elected an Amateur Theatre, under the patronage of Lord Chatham—the principal performers are Captain Jull, Mr. Brown, 64th; Mr. Mr. Considine, 45d; Mr. Stirke, 1st Workman, Mr. Danae, Mr. King, Wetherall, 94th; and Captain Taylor, Camp.

The late Major-General John Ross entered the service on the 28th June, as Second Lieutenant in the Royal Artillery.

Military deaths reported at the War Office Saturday:—In India, Lieutenants and Carroll, 4th Light Dragoons; Smith, 11th Dragoons; Captain Royals; Surgeon Harrison, 6th Foot; Lieutenant Skellon, 46th Foot; Lieutenant Warren, 47th Foot; Surgeon M'Lachlan, 54th Foot; Captain Coote, 54th Foot; Lieutenant Dowdall and Holt, 54th Foot.

Prize-money is now paying to the crews of the Camerleon, excellent, very.