FIRE OFFICE.

CORN STORES and every other description of Property can be Insured at this Office at Rates in the first instance as moderate as in any other Office in this City with the peculiar advantage of the periodical return of the surplus Premiums, according to the plan so beneficially practised by this Company, whereby the Public have already received three returns in the period of 15 years only.

COMMERCIAL INSURANCE COMPANY

FOUNDED FOR THE PURPOSE OF

INSURANCE OF LIVES AND PROPERTY,

The Purchase and Sale of Annuities,

THE ENDOWMENT OF CHILDREN, &c. &c. &c.

No. 35, Corn-Hill, London,

AND

NO. 111, GRAFTON-STREET, DUBLIN.

THE DIRECTORS of this Company, in advancing their claims to support, beg leave to state simply and plainly the advantages which accrue to persons Insuring with them. In the first place, instead of promising any return of their profits, they grant Policies at Premiums much lower than those of other Companies, as may be seen by Schedules and Tables to be had at their Office.

They will receive Premiums Quarterly, Half-yearly, or Yearly, a convenience which has been already found to be a great object to Insurers, whose incomes make such payments desirable. Persons assured by this Company are not liable to be called on to contribute towards its losses,

THE CAPITAL OF THE COMPANY BEING ALONE LIABLE.

And here it may be observed, in answer to the appeal for nationality put forward by the Agents of other Companies, who lay claim to public support from keeping their profits in Ireland, that the British Commercial Company, since their first establishment in this country, have vested their Premiums and Profits invariably in Irish Securities; so as to be immediately available for any demand which occasion may require; and moreover, that a large proportion of the Shareholders are thereby extending to this Country all the benefits which a British Company united with Irish Shareholders in Capital and Interest could afford, not to mention the great saving in point of Premiums generally, the rates charged by the BRITISH COMMERCIAL INSURANCE COMPANY, those charged by Companies of other nationality; nor does this Company require any extra Premium from persons passing between these Countries, or between the Texel and Brest, in Decked or Steam Vessels.

IRISHMEN, RESIDENT IN IRELAND;

IN THE FIRE DEPARTMENT,

which has been lately superadded, with an INCREASED CAPITAL, a corresponding regard for PUBLIC CONVENIENCE and ECONOMY will be found to have actuated the Directors in the Table of Rates, which they have prepared for this Branch of Insurance—in which a person can insure for Seven Years—and in case of Loss, TEN PER CENT. ON THE AMOUNT WILL BE PAID WITHIN ONE WEEK AFTER THE FIRE TAKES PLACE.

As opportunities are afforded to the Friends of this Establishment, on Quarter Days, to change their Policies of Insurance from other Offices, the Directors have to state, that
