

Bench of Mr. Justice, held at Ar-having completed, in strong terms, use was refused to a Publican, named Kittrick; he presented himself to ave information against the Mgis-the County of Westmth for refusing to Mr. Flanagan was immediately to the custody of the Sheriff, and made to have him committed to the County for one month.

Levinge, Chief Constable and Thompston, under a warrant from Lieutenant, a general search for last week in the County Westmth, found in a room, 7 pistols, a ss, 3 bayonets, and a sword, in the of the Rev. Mr. Cormick, P. of ville Nunan, Chief Constable of the person who conducted the tail complained of, for detaining the lo-County Longford. For this he was prehended by the Magistrate at the sessions, two of the Lord Fees Bond have written in their warrants outrage was committed, last week, mons of Saggart, County Dublin by ob, gathered from the surrounding ho collected, and levelled several erch of ditching, commenced by order missioners for enclosing the communiding a deep pit, and left a notice, a grave for all who should rethe work.

charge was yesterday brought against infirm and poor man, the widow ran and celebrated actor, Cornelys, and admired "Bill," who appeared different times before his late Mas unfortunate old lady has been comtealing a large and valuable Prayer the Cathedral of Christ Church last book was yesterday found under the er bed.

affray took place on the Strand County of Wexford, on Sunday on two parties, who rushed against from their respective Chapels of Ardmore.

a simultaneous attack, in which men met by previous agreement to combat a feud which had subsisted between them. So furious was that the Police Constable, in charge stationed near the place of action, useless to interfere, and dangerous

They fought with considerable two stones, and other missiles, and many wounded on both sides. Only remained on the spot.

tance of seven miles. Very much to the credit of James Connell, he told this fellow to be off immediately, as he would take the girl to Mr.
Yielding's. Connell sent to Mr. Y. who went and brought the girl to his house, and carried her to her father's, and from thence to Charleville on Sunday, where she now is with a relative.

An affray occurred on Sunday at Castle-Connell, which would have been attended with fatal consequences but for the interference of the Police. It originated in the circumstance of two funerals meeting at the Church-yard, and the attendants of each procession contending violently for precedence, as if the salvation of the deceased depended upon the observance of this superstitious form.

In an affray in the streets of Cashel, on Wednesday evening, a man named Farrell was wounded by Police Constable Gannon so dangerously, that his life is despaired of.

On Friday night, a dangerous character was arrested in Cork, in a cellar, by Parish Constable Bellard—his face was terribly cut and disfigured; he said his name was Patrick Lander, from Waterford—an excellent pistol primed and loaded, a razor, 8s. 6d. in silver, and a new silk handkerchief, were found on his person; he is about 34 years of age.

Some of the persons concerned in robbing Mr. Boyce's, at Tallow, were apprehended in Cork on Saturday night.

Major Wilson, Chief Magistrate of Police, has offered £100 reward for the apprehension of the persons who broke into Fethard Church on the 5th December.

An order has been received from the Court of King's Bench, to admit to bail John Darley, Police Constable in this County, charged as an accessary in the murder of Ely Fleming, at the fair of Hospital, in September last; but nothing, however, has been done in the case of Constable Joseph Bell, alleged to be a principal in the same murder, who still continues in custody.

Three of the Ennis Police were convicted at the Quarter Sessions, on Thursday, of assaulting Connor Cony, and sentenced to be imprisoned a week.

All the Police were on Monday sworn in High Constables, before the Mayor, in consequence of a doubt as to their power under the Police Bill, of entering public houses on the Sabbath, whenever occasion may require it.

Mr. Kelly, Inspector of Fisheries, has been sworn an High Constable of the City of Limerick, and is authorised by the Mayor, to seize all Hares and other Game exposed for sale, which cannot legally be accounted for.

A loaf of sugar was attempted to be taken from a shop in Rutland-street, at an early hour yesterday evening. The young man who attempted to do so, was which he related direct his return from Butt cided opinion of mys in the room at the sober. With regard Limerick Evening Po conceived it necessary any man under my co sent to examine the lastly, that I never ha him back to head quar must be the meaning lightly accounted."

I have the ho
Yo

Lieutenant Browne
Recruiting Department,

To the Editor of SIR—Having seen signed "John O'Herli of the 9th instant, I con the insertion of the e the only facts proved means to my satisfaction I am, Sir, y

Spa-Hill, January 11
County of Limerick,
To wit.

man being duly sworn morning of Saturday, about the hour of eight yard gate, to which alon yard, he perceived thro sound and good, laid grave, at a distance of piece of pork laid on a as he entered the yard, Informant further sw made on seeing the ab the wall and gate, it see been placed there by so Sworn before us, at 14, 1825,

GEORGE (his X
County of Limerick,
To wit.

Barrack, in said Count deposeth and saith, tha 27th of December last between the hours of 3 box, when a stone was struck the guard-room all the guard turned o but did not see any pe an hour after, while on that of a flint on a fir received no answer; b second flash and insta line of the flash, when and made search, but being dark.

Sworn before me, at

JAMES O'NEIL