WRITING, ENGLISH, AND MATHEMATICAL SCHOOL.

MINAHAN & SONS,

TRULY sensible of the conspicuous patronage given their exertions since their commencement in this City, sincerely return thanks to their Friends and the Public, and respectfully acquaint them, that they have removed the above Establishment to the spacious House, No. 7, DENMARK-STREET, to which is attached every accommodation necessary for the business of an ACADEMY.

They have, at the request of some of their Benefactors, engaged with a Governess of superior talents, who will, assisted by Mrs. M., superintend the FEMALE SCHOOL in a separate apartment.

MINAHAN begs to state, that having spent the greater part of the last Month in Dublin, principally for the purpose of taking cognizance of the most modern School discipline, he is enabled to adopt a system, which (he trusts) will give general satisfaction.

Finally, they pledge themselves to such Ladies and Gentlemen as honor them with a preference, that their united efforts shall be incessantly devoted to a punctual and zealous discharge of their important duty.

They expect in a few days, from Dublin, a Scholar and Graduate of Trinity College, who will teach the Greek, Latin, and French Languages, in conjunction with them, when young Gentlemen preparing for their College Examinations, will find in him the greatest acquisition.—For terms, &c. see Cards.

N. B.—Tuitions attended by them, as usual, after School hours.
