

hence next morning for Cork, under Regiment. Amongst the above were four watchmen convicted of man-own of Athlone.

accident occurred down the river this fortunately occasioned the loss of seven of the Preventive Coast Guard service, Kilrush to the station at Kibaha, was the jibbing of the main-sail, and seen at immediately with the steersman and no aid could be afforded. It is stated ter boarding a schooner coming up, and was also near being lost, from her mast e vessel's rigging. No further account heard of this unhappy circumstance.

Galway Jail, named Lynch, was severely day, in several parts of the body, by fellow prisoner, who used a pen-knife
s purposes. The cries of the unfortun-
d the guard, and the sanguinary wretch astody.

tes assembled at Killenaule Petty Session, unanimously resolved to bring to punish-er against the Game Laws.

ashel, on Saturday, was well supplied Stock, which were in good demand.
y night, eight sheep, belonging to a man
e, near Killenaule, were maliciously bl.

se and out-offices of a Widow Dermody, re consumed on Saturday night, and ble damage would have been done, but the Police and a party of the 84th Regil.

James Corcoran, a collier, employed
g, was killed at Eailshill, by part of a n him.

ge was committed at Fermoy on Monaker named Tobin, who, in a state of ck his unfortunate wife with a knife une, to the depth of nearly three inches.
e weapon herself, and fainted with weak-icious wretch was apprehended, but no ained of her recovery.

convicted at the last Sessions before the alizing wearing apparel, was this day pubursuant to his sentence.

ss have lately been broken, and the nnoyed, in Cecil-street and houses ones thrown every night, supposed by oolish boys. A vigilant watch is now ction, in which case severe punishment

ng Good Friday, was observed in this becoming respect—the shops were closed
day, and the different places of worship excess.

being Easter-day, the Corporation will ervice at the Cathedral, in regalia.

, containing Bank notes to the amount und last night by two of the City Police, arket, and has been since restored to ers of New Whitechurch have compound-Lundy Foot for their tithes—the Com-nted by the parish for this purpose is a

was held at Kilmore Church, on Sun-st. by the Lord Bishop of Kilmore, at ons were priested; and five young Gen-dained deacons. The Rev. William Le as priested.

of the Customs Department in Dublin
ly presented an address, and a piece of manufacture, to the Hon. Abraham H. e Chairman of the Irish Board, and now General Board in London, for which the returned his grateful acknowledgments.
understand, has been issued from the intimating that every soldier in his Ma-all be provided with a Bible, and direc-
an shall produce a book with which

Royal Veteran Battalion, of a daughter.

At Duddington, the Lady of George Steed, Esq. of the 1st Royal Dragoons, of a daughter.

The Lady of Captain Jones, of Enniskillen, of a son.

In London, the Lady of Sir Charles H. Coote, Bart.
of a daughter, which died in a few minutes after its birth.

At Haines Hill, the Lady of Captain Garth, Royal Navy, of a daughter.

The Lady of Charles Calvert, Esq. M. P. of a daughter.

At Frankfort, the Lady of Major-General Graves, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

In Dublin, Henry Davidge, Esq. of Clonmellan, County Westmeath, to Ellen, daughter of the late David Mortimer, of Lakeview, County Cavan, Esq.

At Kilcolgan Church, County Galway, Captain Francis Maly Shawe, of the Coldstream Guards, to Albinia, eldest daughter of Major-General John Taylor, of Castle-Taylor, County Galway.

At Edinburgh, Archibald Wilson, Esq. to Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Tytler, lately of the North British Staff.

At Madras, Lieut. Gunn Collins, of the 13th Light Dragoons, to Augusta, daughter of the Hon. Mr. Murray, and niece to the Earl of Dunmore.

James Browne, Esq. M. P. for the County Mayo, to Elizabeth, second daughter of the late John Puget, Esq.
of Tetheridge, Herts.

At Stackliffe, Bedfordshire, Thomas T. Smith, Esq. to Emma, youngest daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel Gilpin.

DEATHS.

John Freke, late of Baltimore, County Cork, Esq.
Agent to Lord Carberry. The remains of this lamented Gentleman were deposited in his family vault in the Parish Church of Tullagh on Wednesday. By all who knew him, he was regarded and esteemed, for his generosity, candour, and urbanity. For many years he discharged the important functions of a Magistrate, with impartiality, honour, and independence; and the duties of his Agency were always performed with fidelity and kindness.

On Thursday, in George's-Street, very sincerely regretted, Teresa, youngest daughter of the late Edmond Hogan, of Cahahan, County Clare, Esq.

At an advanced age, in Anne-street, George Davis,
Esq. of O'Brien's-Bridge.

In Dublin, Daniel Clancy, Esq. aged seventy years.

Brent Neville, of Ashbrook, County Dublin, Esq.

In Ennis, Miss Jane Barrett.

At Park, near Ennis, John Foley, Esq.

At Castlebar, in the 87th year of her age, Mrs. Pasley, mother of the Rev. H. Pasley.

At Bristol, Mr. William Danson, merchant.

In London, Owen Putland Meyrick, Esq. of Morden
House, Surrey, aged 73 years.

At Kentish Town, Vincent Dowling, Esq. many years connected with the public Press.

At Charlton, Kent, Major-General Miller, late of the Royal Artillery.

At Glasgow, the Rev. Doctor William Taylor.

At Moscow, the Chamberlain Von Wlassow, one of the richest men in Russia.

At Gosport, Mr. Lynch, surgeon.

On his passage from Bombay to London, Capt. James McCallum, 4th Bombay Native Infantry.

At Dripsey Lodge, near Cork, Thomas Burdon, Esq.
of London.

Emma Catherine, only daughter of Sir George W.
Bampfylde, Bart.

Aged 105 years, Elizabeth Faunt, of Barton-upon-Humber.

Lately, near Parma, aged 138 years, Signor Gulmini, the first tenor of Italy, and leader to the band of Pope Benedict the 14th.

At Frome, Somerset, aged 81 years, Mrs. Church, widow of John Church, Esq. late Captain in the 38th Regiment.

BILLS ON LONDON

under a very light rent. It is the most r Limerick, having the roads of five countie
it. Immediate possession would be given.
Application at the House.
Limerick, A

TO BE LET,
EITHER IN THE WHOLE OR IN A nice Farm of Fifty Acres
Of the best quality Land in the County in full heart, of

KNOCKAROC

THE ESTATE OF
WILLIAM RYVES, ESQ. OF NEW
And late in the possession of William
ALSO, 20 ACRES OF CORBALL
OF THE SAME QUALITY
LATE IN THE POSSESSION OF SAMUEL
Proposals to be made to WILLIAM Garden, Castle-Connell.

TO BE LET,
FOR THREE LIVES, OR THIRTY YEARS,
From the First of May,
MULLOUGH

CONTAINING 153a. 3r. 16p. of g
Pasture Land, plantation measure, of Bog, situate within three miles east o
convenient to the Quay of Poulmagarree.
Also, the Farm of

KNOCKERRY WE

Containing 231 acres of like Arable Land, with 54 acres of Bog; all situ
being in the Parish of Kilrush, and Cou Proposals, in writing, may be addressed
of April, to SAMUEL COOPER, F Cashel, (with satisfactory references); an Knockerry, all she the lands

AUCTION
Of Silks, Tabinets, Muslins, B
Handkerchiefs, &c. &c.

MRS. CARROLL
PREVIOUS to removing to her new in George's-street, will dispose of her of GOODS by Auction, to commence o 5th APRIL, and continue from day to d sold.

This Sale will be particularly worth the Public, as the entire will be sold without Mrs. C. not having occasion for all the present House, will sell part of it on Fri
of sale.
The Purchasers to pay the King's duty
HERATIO N. SEYMOUR
14, George's-street
Limerick, April 2, 1825.

AUCTION OF
FURNITURE
TO BE SOLD BY AU
On WEDNESDAY, the 13
AND SUCCEEDING DAYS,
At the House of the late William T
GLENTWORTH STREET,
THE HOUSEHOLD FUR
WHICH is of the best descripti
being got from one of the first ho comprising Parlour, Drawing-Room