

TRADE—IMPORTANT.

Under the consideration of Ministers, of the utmost importance to the land. The Government of the said its readiness to remove all re- portation of British manufactured goods and colonial possessions of that that the Duty on Dutch Butter and England be withdrawn. It is cal- culated of this proposal being acceded, British Manufactures to Batavia and possessions of the Netherlands will be valued at several millions annually. However the question may be to the effect it can afford but slender conso- lation to the agriculturist, whose But- ter, even at the high protecting duties now in force, is a difficult competition in the En- glish market of Holland. We trust, however, for "free trade" and "liberal trade" may not be carried so far as to destroy the rumoured proposal—a proposal, if adopted, would save Sir James and trouble, by leaving no doubt to legislate upon.
