

consequence of these Proclamations, it is removed from every part of Ireers of Customs have been pleased to (late Landing Surveyor at Limerick,) of the Customs and Landing Surveyor room of Mr. Follingsby, removed to Collector.

s from the 16th and 30th Regiments, the Fair of Newport on Friday, were ber of country people with stones and ly ill-treated. The parties had their pieces by the mob, and the Serjeant of ar suffered severely, and had his head Two fellows have been apprehended for age, and informations sworn against his City, executing a decree in Ballin-, were attacked by a riotous mob and The interposition of the Police pre-, fatal consequences, but some of the rn.

the Lord Bishop of Limerick conse- at Mungret, near this City, in the e congregation—a suitable sermon was casion by his Lordship's Chaplain, the The Church is a very neat building, ed to afford accommodation to the nts in that vicinity.

the Rev. Francis Synge, A. M. was Union of O'Mullet, County Clare, th of the Rev. George Macartney, e has been presented by the Earl of e has arrived in Dublin. and family embarked at Waterford, on land.

Lady Chatterton have left London for rt and the Hon. Henry Curry are can- nancy in the representation of the County he death of Sir John Stewart, Bart.

y, of Foata, will not stand for the he City of Cork, as reported.

remont has not arrived in Ireland, as n Papers; his Lordship is partaking of the Royal Lodge, Windsor.

ast, after an examination of two days, ntlemen were declared the succesful vacant sizorships in Trinity College: McCullagh, Levelle, Moloney, Moore, n, and Browne.

quired a Bill as amended by the Com- use of Compons, for supplying the of Limerick with water, which can be s Office, at the Exchange.

now engaged in a scientific survey of ralee, preparatory to the intended im- port, by Government.

miners belonging to the Irish Mining in Tralee, viewing Mr. Bateman's vicinity of that town, with a view to aging proprietor of the George the et, in the most handsome manner has neration for carrying over the entire mbus, 72 in number, from Cork to nt appears in a London Paper of e Mercantile Agency-Office, No. 25, ondon. for a "considerable number" opers, "who will have constant em- al wages.

e shortly started for conveying goods Dublin.

e, a Lady's reticale containing money, n the counter of a shop in Patrick as purchasing some lace, supposed by red under pretence of buying.

now in the pound of Murroe, near ounty, stopped by the Police statione of being stolen. See advertisement

Thomas Murta, Esq. of Stokestown, Westmeath, to the daughter of the late Joseph Carroll, of Dublin, Esq.

In Paris, Lieut.-Colonel Witherington, late of the 9th Lancers, to Miss Anne Eugenia Chiles, of Malta.

At Mary-la-bonne Church, the Hon. Edward Geoffrey Stanley, M. P. eldest son of Lord Stanley, and grandson of the Earl of Derby, to Emma Caroline, second daughter of Edward Bootle Wilbraham, Esq. M. P. of Lathom House, Lancashire.

At Brighton, Arthur Haywood, Esq. of Stanley-hall, Yorkshire, to Mary, eldest daughter of the late Colonel Duroure, of the Coldstream Guards, and niece of Sir Edward Winn, Bart.

DEATHS.

On Sunday last, Mr. Richard Hall, teacher at the House of Industry.

In Thomas-street, the wife of Mr. John Tuthill, Cabinetmaker.

At Killaloe, aged 65 years, much regretted, Roderick Ryan, Esq. M. D. father of Doctor Ryan, of CloghJordan.

Yesterday, in Ennis, of typhus fever, very sincerely regretted, the Rev. Michael Molony, Curate to the Right Rev. Doctor O'Sheughnessy.

In Dublin, P. J. Halpin, Esq. step-father to Sir R. Steele, Bart.

At Dungarvan, Mary, daughter of Michael Dodd, Esq. of Sterling, County Meath.

In Dublin, Joseph Wright, Esq. of Belfast, solicitor.

Robert Jenkin, Esq. son of the late Alderman Meredith Jenkin, of Dublin.

On Saturday last, of typhus fever, William Thompson, of Roscommon, Esq.

At Coulagh, County Cork, Morto O'Sullivan, Esq.

At the Chapel-house, Liffey-street, Dublin, the Rev. Joseph Nugent, in his 30th year.

John Silk, Esq. of Mount-Catherine, County Cork.

At Boardmill, County Down, the Rev John Shaw.

In Newry, Mr. William Glenny, aged 18 years.

At Cottage, near Cork, aged 14 years, Maria Frances, eldest daughter of Mr. Peter Reeves.

William Swanton, of Ballydebob, County Cork, Esq.

At the South Terrace, Cork, John Cotter, sen. Esq. an old and respected merchant in that City.

At his seat, near Cork, James Jackson, Esq.

On Saturday, Mr. George Edwards, many years Stamp Distributor in Ennis.

At Sandymount, aged 15 years, Frances, youngest daughter of Edward Hardman, Esq.

At Drumcondra-hill, Susanna, third daughter of Joseph T. Haydn, of Parliament-street, Dublin, Esq.

Wednesday, at his seat, Ballygawley House, County Tyrone, from a contusion on the brain, caused by a fall from his pony phaeton the preceding Saturday, the Right Hon. Sir John Stewart, Bart. M. P. for the County Tyrone, and formerly Attorney-General for Ireland. Sir John was married in 1790, to Miss Archdall, sister of General Archdall, M. P. for the County Fermanagh, by whom he had two sons and one daughter. He is succeeded in his titles and large estates by his eldest son, Hugh.

In London, George Chalmers, Esq. Chief Clerk of the office of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations.

Christopher Redington, of Kileolgan, Co. Galway, Esq.

The Rev T. B. Woodman, Vicar of Brackley, and Chaplain to the Duke of Clarence.

At Deal, Henry M'Culloch, Esq. brother of Captain M'Culloch, of his Majesty's ship Ramillies.

At the Vicarage house, Cannington, Somerset, the Rev. Charles H. Burt, Chaplain to the Duke of Sussex, and retired Chaplain to the 24th Light Dragoons.

At Greenwich, Major-General George Bridges, of the Corps of Royal Engineers.

The Rev. Doctor Andrews, Dean of Canterbury.

At Lichfield, on the 30th ult. in the 78th year of his age, General Richard Vyse, Colonel of the 3d or Prince of Wales's Dragoon Guards.

CRESCENT THE HOUSE AND CONCERNS NOW OCCUPIED BY

bour purposes.—Also, a new finely

FORT E., and the Stock of WINES.

For particulars a reference is desired to Esq. Barrack-Master, Harstonge-street, SEYMOUR, June 4, 1825.

PAWNBROKER'S

TO be Sold by Auction, on Tuesday, at the Office of T. BUNTON, The variety of House Linen, Quilts, Counter ing, Cloths, Cassimeres, &c. &c. some excel Apparel, with a variety of Plate, Plated edged, Gold and Silver Watches, and a v tion of beautiful Jewellery.—Those hav from one to three years, we will accomod the interest thereon, to prevent their being BUNTON, anxious to oblige those to Sums have been advanced, is willing to treat terms mutually advantageous.

N. B.—The Property of Persons who advantage of these offers, unpleasant as it Proprietor, must be unavoidably exposed fo Letters, Post paid.

Limerick, Jun

WOOL

PUBLIC STORES, 25, USHER'S

LUKE DILLON returns his most sin his numerous Friends and the Public, rence he has, for so many years, experienced of his Trade, and trusts to merit a continu He continues to sell Wool on Commission, per Cent. insuring Debts, and free of delivery of consignments, shall be always vance, in Cash, the probable value, to those quire it, charging interest at the rate of 5 p Annum. He would recommend those wh parcels of strong Wools, to have them pack say Hoggets, Wethers, and Ewes, specify scription in their Invoices, and marked on th Clothing, or weak stapled Wools, need not as these sell better together; and, as there ca of Wool bringing a good Price this sea Growers may be particular in having their in the most cleanly manner possible.

He can always supply, at the shortest quantity of Wool Packing, or new Bags, 8s. 8d. to 9s. 9d. each.

Office, 7, Parliament-st.

LUKE DILLON has just had in a the newest and most fashionable Articles in Drapery Line, which he pledges himself liberal terms as any other respectable House Dublin, Jun

STOLEN

FROM NEWPORT on FRIDAY night a middle-sized brown striped COW, ris old, with a pearl on one of her eyes. Any information so as that the Cow may be fo ONE POUND reward, on application to Newport, Jun

STOPPED,

SUPPOSED TO BE STO

TWO COWS—one a yellow stripper, i tion, with high horns, five or six ye other a milch-cow (seems to have calved earl or six years old, red and white, with cock three letters branded on the left horn.

Any person having lost such will get their property and paying the expences of advert are detained in the pound of Murroe, near this County, where they can be seen.

The man is in custody. Petty Sessions of Owneybeg, 7th

LIMERICK D