

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE

the Anniversary of the Coronation of Sovereign, George the IV., was ob-with the usual demonstrations, and the de joi.

ing and sadlery, for the Constabulary nty, which arrived some time ago from General's Office, Dublin, to Mr. Balm-nell, have been delivered out by him to Constables, throughout this County.

Ennismore will be Foreman of the Jury, and Sir Nicholas Colthurst and will attend on the City.

op of Tuam, the Bishops of Cork,
as, will be the Irish Spiritual Peers in of Parliament.

ard Deane Freeman has compounded ers of Ardnageehy, Co. Cork, for the the rectorial tithes of the parish.

ary Meeting of the Clare Auxiliary held at the Court House of Ennis, on John Colpoys, Esq. took the Chair.—

most numerous and respectable, and Young read a very favourable report of The Chair was subsequently addressed Blood, Rev. R. Shaw and Thomas performed in Galway, on Thursday

a numerous and delighted audience,
a grand Stag hunt on the Lakes of Kilth inst.

will not be received after the 5th of Ja-

of road now in considerable forwardness to Valentia, for which Government assistance. A handsome hotel, at an exis to be erected at Valentia, by the Steam pany.

road between Killarney and Macroom, miles than that by Millstreet, is nearly upon which the Mail is expected to run are now at full work in the County and Inspector of Fisheries, on Friday last, ty of Police and other persons, went ague from Adare to the Shannon, in ral persons who were fishing with nets river, and, owing to the alarm given by ple as the party advanced, though the y close, he succeeded in only taking one e salmon he found concealed in a load of vening of the same day, Mr. Kelly, with ook the same course, and remained out all succeeded in taking a boat and several found laid across the river in different onging to the persons who escaped from ore.

of plundering Orchards and Gardens, at e year, has been latterly carried to a most nt; three fine dogs belonging to two gens City, were poisoned, last week, by some as poachers who infest the liberties, on t marauding they were, doubtless, too highly putrid state, brought to the market

yesterday, seized by order of Alderman publicly burnt.

Patients were admitted into the Fever-is City, since Monday morning; and the
of the last few days, must have added cone alarming progress of that destructive

DEATHS.

This morning, at the residence of her father, near this City, Millicent, daughter of Richard Copley Langford, Esq. She departed this life in the bloom of youth and beauty, leaving this consolation to her afflicted friends—that she died trusting solely in the merits of her Redeemer.

In Roche's-street, after a short illness, Mr. Denis Hogan, Publican.

At his house in Dorset-street, Walter Wade, Esq. M.
D., Professor of Botany to the Royal Dublin Society.

At Monk-place, Fhibbsborough, Phoebe, daughter of the late Christopher Smith, Esq. of Roscrea, County Tipperary.

At Fort Granite, County Wicklow, Catherine, wife of Thomas Stradford Dennis, Esq. and daughter of the late Morley Saunders, of Saunderson-Grove, Esq.

In Dublin, the infant son of Francis Blackburne, Esq.
Margaret, wife of Kean Smith, of Richmond-street.

The wife of Mr. Jas. Webber, of the Quay, Waterford.
At Ballynakill, Queen's County, Mary, wife of Joseph

O'Brien, Esq. of Marlborough-street, Dublin.

At the Manor-road, the relict of Lieut. John Flinn.
In Galway, the relict of Mr. John Hernan.

The wife of Doctor John Power, of Carrick-on-suir.
At Tramore, the wife of Mr. Michael Thomas.

At Kinsale, Catherine, eldest daughter of Mr. F.
O'Driscoll, of that town.

Mr. Robert M'Gowan, of Creggan, near Mountnorris.
In Dundalk, Mr. Joseph Jolly, Butter Inspector.

In Tralee, Mrs. Hurley, wife of John Hurley, sen. Esq.
At Athlone, of fever, Miss Catherine Tully.

In Dublin, Rev. James M'Cay, aged 67 years.
Lieutenant Humphry Nixon, of the County Meath

Police, and formerly of the 96th Regiment.
Michael O'Ryan, Esq. formerly an eminent merchant of Dublin.

Off the Havannah, on board his Majesty's ship Lively, Lieutenant Horatio Bennett Cock, R. N.

At Woodnorton, Norfolk, the Rev. Matthew Skinner, M. A.

On the 3d March, between Mount Sinai and Foron, in the Red Sea, the Rev. Joseph Cook, M. A. youngest son of the Rev. Joseph Cook, of Newton-hall, Northumberland.

In Cheltenham, Surgeon Thomas Freeman.
In London, the wife of D. E. Fry, Esq. letter-founder.

William R. Johnston, of Trinidad, Esq.
At Stockholm, Baron de Kantzour, late Swedish Minister to the United American States.

In his 74th year, Samuel Hoare, Esq. of Hampstead.
Anne Arabella, wife of the Rev. C. Packiry, of Grosford, Denbighshire.

In London, Mrs. Colville, daughter of Sir Charles Asgill, Bart.

On Thursday last, at his residence in Lamb's-Conduitstreet, George Calvert, Esq. Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, aged 30.

On the 13th inst. at her house, Mare-street, Hackney, Mrs. Richardby, widow of the late John Richardby, Esq.
of Grace-church-street.

TIPPERARY SCHOOL,

Vacation will end on the 30th Instant.

Abbey, July 18, 1825.

CLONMEL

SILK MERCERY, MILLINERY
LEGHORN WAREHOUSE

S. FITZGERALD

INTENDS to Remove her Establishment George's-Street, and open her Shop and on SATURDAY next, the 23d inst. previous she will receive, direct from London, an
MILLINERY, SHAWLS, DRESSES

ALSO A CASE OF LEGHORN

The Lodgings furnished, will be Assizes.

The House and Shop, 123, George's-excellent situation for any kind of busi-
net. Application to S. FITZGERALD.

Limerick, July

EIGHT BALES AND CAS

CLOTHS.

CASIMERES, NEW LONDON
COATINGS, SUMMER CL

White, and Drab Russia Ducks
FOR TROUSERS,

BEAUTIFUL BLACK AND DRAB

BEAVER AND SILK H

&c. &c. &c.

Arrived per the London Packet, W. RAM

DIRECT FROM LONDON TO T AND

FIVE DITTO, DITTO

Via Liverpool and Dublin.

RYAN BROTHERS

INFORM their Friends and the Public to the above, they have received a per the Hebe, Captain Hennington, a London to this Port, which completes ASSORTMENT, purchased in Engli
RYAN.

They respectfully submit to the Pub-possess not only the advantages of b
IMPORTERS, but also the ADDIT
of having their goods PERSONALLY
in the different Manufacturing Districts
one of their firm. They are enabled
NEW, FASHIONABLE AND EXTEN

OF THE

LIMERICK WOOLLE

19, GEORGE'S-STRE

CORNER OF THOMAS-ST

AT

DUBLIN WHOLESALE

Limerick,

TO BE SOLD CHE
A HANDSOME LONDON MA

PIANO-FOR

Very highly finish

To be seen during the Assizes, at Messrs
PATRICK-STREET.

Limerick,