DEATHS.

On Wednesday last, at her father's residence near this City, Milicent, daughter of Richard C. Langford, Esq.
The premature death of this young lady has excited the deepest feelings of sympathy and sorrow amongst an extensive and highly respectable circle of relatives and friends. At that period of life when others are seeking the transitory enjoyments of fashionable life—the common place pursuits of the gay, the giddy and the vain—she had given up all the alluring amusements of the world, to which she was daily tempted—for few, if any, were ever gifted as she was, with such a rare combination of all those qualities of mind and person, which served to make her at once the grace and ornament of society—yet she counted all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, her Lord, with whom she now rejoices with joy unspeakable and full of glory.

On Thursday, at his house, Baal's Bridge, Mr. John Worrall, jun. an upright honest man, and sincerely lamented by his afflicted wife and family.

In Tralee, of typhus fever, Mr. John Mahony, many years an Officer of his Majesty's Customs at that port.

John T. O'Beirne, Esq. of Usher-street, Dublin.
At his father's house in Bandon, aged 24 years, John McCreight, Esq. Member of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland.

At Rathmines, the wife of Mr. Patrick D'Arcy, of Baggot-street, Dublin.

In Dublin, Mr. Francis Delamere, wine-merchant.
At Clancoole Terrace, Bandon, Colonel Hewitt, son of the late Rev. Charles Hewitt.

In London, James Randal Donaldson, of Claremont, County Antrim, Esq.

At Garvagh, J. Purviance, Esq. Agent to Lord Garvagh.

In St. James's-square, London, in the 60th year of his age, the Most Noble William Beauclerk, 8th Duke of St. Alban's, hereditary grand falconer of England. He is succeeded in his titles and estates by his eldest son, William, Earl of Burford, now Duke of St. Alban's.

At Edgar-House, Bath, Benjamin Terry, Esq. aged 75, formerly a Cornet in the 22d Light Dragoons.

On the 16th June, the Rev. Doctor Mountain, Bishop of Quebec.

Near Southampton, Edward Majendie, Esq. youngest son of the Bishop of Bangor.
