

at cheerfulness, and appeared much progress of this grand national under-

Wilson, of the Cumberland Militia, from that Regiment, by order of his absent without leave the whole of the the Regiment was lately assembled for training and exercise at Whitehaven. the last chain of that stupendous piece the Menai Bridge, was fixed.

Canon for a wager of 1000 guineas. took place at Christchurch, Hants, last ory Court, on Thursday, Sir C. Robinson, ent in a suit of separation, by reason of anced Gretna Green marriages valid.

Eastwood, of the army, was yesterday Insolvent Court, for six months.

vest has already commenced in the neigh-ckmansworth.

est is irretrievably ruined in consequence weather. The price which this article consequence cannot be foreseen.

rling about Paris are killed by the Police.

DUBLIN, JULY 26.

and Marchioness of Thomond, family and sterday at the Royal Hibernian Hotel, from England.

, Lord Gosford, Lord Miltown, Hon. d Lord Dunally, have arrived in town Besborough is daily expected in the Co.

cott visited, on Thursday, the works of Gas Light Company. He was attended several of the Directors, and the Se-alter being the Chairman of the Edin-Light Company, rendered it unnecessary particularly the use of the various machinery himself, however, as being gratified by the and cleanliness apparent throughout, and eased on learning that the business and the establishment were increasing to a great Sir Walter was kind enough afterwards to ght refreshment.

cott arrived on Tuesday at Annsbrook, on a visit to Henry Smith, Esq.

Walter Scott dines with the Lord Lieute-de Castle, and on Friday, he proceeds to n, to fulfil an old engagement made to a.

his departure from Dublin he had the g presented with a Doctor's Degree from —and his freedom of the Guild of Mered to him, with a suitable address from which Sir Walter returned an appropriate K. C. is perfectly recovered from his n, and is about to proceed to give his pro-ere he was specially called.

of about forty members of the New c Association took place at the Corn Saturday, Mr. Dowell O'Reilly in the llon brought up the Report of the Com-l to make the rules, &c. of the Associa-laid on the table, and is to be taken into Saturday next.

ll was most flatteringly received by his fford—it was an aquatic entree—in the entertained by about 120—Sir Thomas Chair.

is to start for the Co. Wexford, on the interest.

to be built in Henrietta-street, for the tation establishment.

A Detachment of the 57th Foot is under orders to embark, in the Marquis of Hastings convict ship, for New South Wales.

Monday, a large Detachment of Officers and men of the 31st Foot, embarked at Chatham on board the Jane transport, for Bengal.

The 10th Hussars will, on the completion of the Barracks at Exeter, march from Bristol and Stroud to that station.

Major-General Bourke has appointed Major Ryan, 40th Regiment, and Lieutenant Coote, late 73d., on his staff, at the Cape of Good Hope.

Major-General Woodford, will be appointed to Malta, vice Lieutenant-General Sir Manley Power, K. C. B.

It is said, that Sir Gore Ouseley, Bart. a native of this City, will be elected to an English Peerage, in a few days.

The Marquis Waterford and family, Lord Ebrington, and Colonel St. George, have arrived in Waterford.

Lord Mountsandford has arrived in Cheltenham.
General King, M. P. has arrived at Sligo!

Mr. Kiely, Port Collector of Galway, has been selected by the Commissioners of Customs, London, as one of the Irish Officers to visit an English port, and by that means, as well as having already sent English Officers here, the more effectually to establish an uniformity of system. The Collector's first destination is to the extensive Port of Bristol.

Captain Cullen, Paymaster of the Leitrim Regiment, has been appointed Secretary to the Grand Jury of the County Leitrim, in the place of the late Robert Graham, Esq.

On Sunday last, as sub-constables Allen and Carry, of Mr. Balmer's Police, were serving Crown summon-ses, they apprehended Denis Ryan, one of the persons charged with the murder of Thomas Kennedy, at the Cross-Keys, near Castle-Connell, on the 9th of April last, and by their resolute and determined conduct, succeeded in committing him to Jail, notwithstanding the denunciations and threats of a large mob who thought to rescue him.

At the fair of O'Brien's-bridge, on Monday, a dreadful riot was expected between two parties, but by the persevering exertions of Sir Hugh Dillon Massy and John Wickham, Esq. with parties of Police, who remained about the village until a late hour at night, peace and order were preserved.—Lieutenant Bindon, and his well-conducted and efficient Police, were on the alert, and contributed much to the peace observed on the occasion.

William Teefy, returning from the Fair of Hospital, a few days ago, received a most dreadful beating, from the effects of which he died, this morning, in the County Infirmary. The Mayor has proceeded to hold an Inquest.

Patt Langatt was drowned whilst bathing, in Galway, on Monday.

A melancholy gloom was thrown on the pleasures of the Stag Hunt at Kiliarney, by a distressing accident which occurred after it terminated:—a party, consisting of the sons of Counsellor Leader, with their Tutor (Mr.
Vaughan) a very amiable young man, Mr. John Lynch, sen. of Tralee, and Mr. and Mrs. Dogherty (his son-in-law and daughter,) had gone to see the Upper Lake, after the amusement of the day was over. In consequence of the drunkenness of one of the boatmen, the boat was upset, and melancholy to relate, the Tutor perished—The sons of Mr. Leader, and the rest of the Company, pro-videntially saved themselves, by swimming to shore.

The ruffians who were acquitted on a mere point of law, on Saturday, in the City Court, for piracy in our river, had the hardihood on their return to their native place, Kiltrush, to go in quest to sea, as Pilots, and had the audacity to exhibit a white flag, as an emblem of marked their sense of the Defendant's condict for 50l. damages, and 6d. costs.

Miss Bateman v. Ellard and W.

This was an action for slander and dea statement having been made in Serjeant Gould, that the Defendant was for having said any thing unkind of the affair was mutually arranged, much to ment of several curious persons, who we regale themselves with a recital of the dothe parties concerned.

Fitz-Gerald v. Brady.

Counsellor Henry Maunsell opened the was a Scire Facias on a Bond for 300l.
Hugh Brady, Esq. to Garrett Hugh Fitz-Bond dated 24th December 1817. S stated the case.—In September 1817 Plain-Brady, on his Bond, 300l. on which judtered for the penalty, 600l. entirely. I in 1819, leaving his freehold estate in tru-Gibbon Fitz-Gibbon, and a large settle-his executrix. The stamp duty paid o-sufficient for 1,500l. assets. Several witduced who proved the payment of variou-Mrs. Brady, who, it was also proved, pa-of this Bond after his death, and M tended that in point of law, payment prima facie evidence of assets to pay the p-

Verdict for Plaintiff, 6l. damages and ing that the Defendant has available assenistration beyond the sum mentioned in t-

Counsel for the Plaintiff—Serjeant Bennett and Henry Maunsell, Esqrs.
Gabbett, Esq.

Counsel for Defendant—Joseph D. J O'Loghlen, Esqrs. Agent—C. O'Brien Westropp v. Bruce.

This was an Action of Assumpsit, and contained several counts, and two sets of It was for the recovery of 800l. a Polic effected by Thomas Westropp, Esq. with cial Insurance Company of Dublin, on th William Monsell, Esq. of Dunagroge-C
The Policy was effected on the 14th Nov an annual premium of 49l. 2s., and the the 22d November, 1824. The defence rested on two points, that the deceased was specified in the policy, and that he w rable life, because of a sore leg he had fo which it was contended they were not s-formed. The usual medical certificates health were drawn up by Surgeons Wilkilin, the former of whom, it was proved that Mr. Monsell was affected with a sore of years; notwithstanding this intimation completed, and the attempts to prove a age having altogether failed, the Jury refor 800l., the entire sum, with 34l. 1 from the day the Policy should have bee costs of suit. Another case of Insuranlife, with the same Company, for 1,100l.
O'Kelly, a Roman Catholic Clergyman, on precisely similar grounds, and is dis-Verdict.

COUNTY RECORD COU

SATURDAY, JULY 23.

Waller v. Hickey—An action of assump-payment of a promissory note for 70l. defence, and a verdict for the entire was Edward Wallace v. Roger Bourke—A recting a Watercourse off the lands Ballinacourty—Damages 500l.—Verdict and 6d. costs.

Michael Conroy v. Roger Bourke—This