At Armagh assizes, John Maguire was convicted of the murder of Henry M'Niece, an old man, seventy years of age, by giving him a mortal wound on the 24th of May last, of which he lingered till the 1st of June, and then died. Verdict manslaughter. Sentence not passed.
In the Record Court, at Cavan, there was only one case of any consequence, which was Lessee Lord Bective v. Sankey. This was an ejectment to recover an Island in Lough Bann, near Virginia, and was tried before Mr. Justice Moore and a special Jury. It occupied the Court for three days, at the expiration of which there was a verdict for the defendant.

At Wexford, in an action for seduction—Kavanagh v. Murphy—the verdict was one farthing damages. Counsellor O'Connell is attending Carrickfergus assizes, where he is engaged special in the great cause of O'Hara v. O'Hara.

TRALEE, JULY 27.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to transmit to John Hurly, jun. Esq. Clerk of the Crown, Twenty Pounds, to be paid to John Slattery, now of Clash, near this town, and late of Currovaugh, as remuneration for his spirited conduct, in resisting and beating off a banditti of robbers, who attacked his house at night, and making their leader (Quilter) prisoner, who has since been transported.

The Dublin mail will in the course of a few days reach this town earlier, and be dispatched later, by an hour.—The journey will be performed in 26 hours.

SATURDAY, JULY 30.

Yesterday, Patrick Kirby was executed in front of the County Gaol, for barbarously murdering Edward Hurst, Esq.;—on the platform, whilst in the act of being pinnioned, he stated, in the most firm and collected manner, that he had neither hand, act, or part, in the foul crime for which he was about to suffer; and that he forgave his prosecutors, and died in love with all men. After hanging nearly an hour, many minutes of which he appeared to be considerably convulsed, his body was given to the Infirmary for dissection.

It is very remarkable, that, a few moments before Kirby was taken to the gallows from the Cell, he was married to Margaret Dillon, who was tried with him for the murder; and that he did so to fulfil a solemn oath he had taken to her some time ago; the wretched female is far advanced in pregnancy, and she states that Kirby is not the father.

A meeting took place at Lickadon, yesterday evening, between Richard Ievers, jun. Esq. of Green-Park, in this County, and John Creed, Esq. of this City. On the signal being given, Mr. Ievers fired, and Mr. Creed discharged his pistol in the air—here the business terminated. Mr. Ievers was attended by P. Hayes, Esq. and Mr. Creed, by George Macey, Esq. of Glenwilliam.—Surgeon Franklin attended professionally.

On Tuesday, the shaft of the Caravan from this City to Ennis, struck a policeman named Thomas Adams in the breast, at Newmarket—his recovery is doubtful.

Michael Cluse was drowned, whilst bathing at Cappahard, near Ennis, on Tuesday.

A postilion of Sir A. D. V. Hunt, in returning from this City on Thursday, dropped dead, attributed to the oppressive heat of the weather.

Yesterday, the heat was so excessive that Serjeant Lefroy was obliged to retire from the Bench, into the Judge's Chamber, but returned in about ten minutes perfectly recovered, and resumed the case on trial.
