

consequences will be dangerous.

The James Harris, lunes, arrived in the river from Jamaica, fell in with, on the 20th ult. in lat. 47. long. 16. the fore part of the Columbus; and the next day, in lat. 47. 28. long. 15. 40. fell in with her afterpart about 60 feet from the stern-post.

Wednesday, at noon, will be launched from Portsmouth Dock-yard, his Majesty's ship Princess Charlotte, to carry 110 guns, and the Myrtle brig, intended for the packet service. The Princess Charlotte has been built on the enlarged lines of his Majesty's ship Victory, having the dimensions increased; length, from 185 feet to 197 feet; breadth, from 51 feet six inches, to 52 feet nine inches; and burthen, from 2164 to 2417 tons. She is fitted on the new principle of working the cables in the middle instead of the lower gun-deck, and has the improved round stern, with, for the head, a whole length figure of the late Princess Charlotte, which is finely executed.

By sentence of a Court Martial held at Portsmouth, on Monday, Henry Harmsworth, acting second master of the Aurora frigate, was dismissed, and adjudged incapable of serving for two years, for misappropriating various articles of provisions.

The Church of Preobratshinsk, or the Transfiguration, one of the oldest but handsomest at Petersburg, was destroyed by fire, on the 20th ult., from the carelessness of plumbers employed on the roof.

The recent treaty between France and Hayti will prove in its details very injurious to British Commerce, which is placed by it under great restrictions.

The accounts in the late French papers, relative to a serious insurrection among the negroes at Matanzas (Cuba) are completely disproved. There were some slight disturbances three months ago, in which three negroes lost their lives; but the insubordination, or rather riot, was immediately suppressed, with the loss we have mentioned.

The second anniversary of the death of Pope Pius VII, was celebrated at Rome, with great pomp, on the 20th ult.

The King of France has addressed a letter to the Archbishop of Paris, ordering a solemn funeral service on the 16th inst. the anniversary of the death of the late King Louis.

The obstinate schismatics of Utrecht have seriously offended the Pope by separating from the centre of orthodox unity, by proclaiming a Bishop of their own election.

The Duchess of Berri danced in five quadrilles, at a ball to 400 fashionables, given by the Municipality at Dieppe, on the 5th inst.

Mrs. Coutts and the Duke of St. Alban's are enjoying one continued scene of festivity at Ramsgate.

An English medical gentleman, E. J. Clarke, has accomplished the difficult task of ascending the summit of Mont Blanc. In the last attempt of this sort made some years ago, several of the adventurers perished.

A lady, in taking a last farewell of her husband, at Margate, on Tuesday, and in the act of seeing him on board the steam packet, for London, suddenly dropped and died in a few minutes after.

On Friday, the Wellington Coach, from Hull to Scarborough, was overturned, near Frodingham, and the guard was killed on the spot.

George Chambers, an old man, was killed by falling down stairs at his lodgings, on Friday, in a state of intoxication.

Thomas Cooper, a young man of 24 years, was shot, last week, by Mr. W. Blowfield, of Windsor, while engaged in the act of plundering his gardens.—An inquest was held on the body, and a verdict of justifiable homicide returned. Mr. Blowfield was admitted to bail.

Mr. William Mason Harvey, principal Clerk to the New London Bridge, died suddenly of convulsions at Lime House, on Saturday, after leaving his gig.

The Talbot Inn Coach Office, at Liverpool, was broken into on Thursday morning, and robbed of goods and parcels to a large amount, besides 395*l.* in bank-notes.

Mr. Fenshaw, printer, in Stangate-street, Lambeth, when on a shooting party at Mr. Friend's farm near Bushey, was taken with a shivering fit in the field, where he died in a few seconds. He had been afflicted for some time with the cholera morbus, but not violently on the day of his death.

William Randolph, clerk on board the Hasty brig of War, has been committed for charging in his accounts 40*lbs.* of tobacco, for the ship's crew, which was never obtained, and for which he produced false vouchers.

The gentleman committed for forgery from Bow-street, gave his name as John Bergen, but has also gone by that of Clifford. He has a foreign appearance, tall, thin, of dark complexion, and very superior address. The check for 117*l.* was forged on the banking-house of Sansom and Co., in the name of Joseph Green and Co., of Upper Thames-street. He was a Field Officer in the Army, and sold out shortly after the affair of Waterloo, since which he has been a frequenter of all the fashionable gaming-houses.—He says the charge is a conspiracy against his life and honour.

A servant named Plunkett, a near relation of the Attorney-General for Ireland, was brought up to the Mansion House, last week, for attempting to get into the service of a gentleman of fortune Mr. Denies, by means of false discharges. The unfortunate man having heretofore supported a good character, was liberated, and the charge withdrawn.

That dreadful malady, the small pox, has made frightful havoc at Salisbury, and within the last fortnight only forty persons have fallen victims to its ravages.

On Saturday, a wherry was upset in the Thames by a Gravesend sail-boat, and one of the passengers Mr. John Harrison was drowned.

The premises of Mr. Bell, oilman, Norton Falgate, were destroyed by fire yesterday morning, and unfortunately the gentleman himself also fell a victim to the flames.

Captain Littlewood, of Mirfield, was thrown from his horse and killed near Wakefield, on Wednesday, by the stirrup leather breaking.

the 24th Veteran Battalion, has recovered a verdict for 51*l.* against Captain Thomas L. Prior, Paymaster of the 12th Royal Lancers, a sum paid by Plaintiff on the indemnity of Captain Prior.

The piety of Mr. Ward, the British Minister at Mexico, is greatly extolled in that capital.

The sixteenth anniversary of the Catholic Club was held at the Union Tavern, on Tuesday, when about sixty gentlemen attended. Mr. Thomas Murphy was in the chair, and the first toast announced was the health of Pope Leo the Twelfth.

There was a meeting of the Friends of Ireland, at New York, on the 19th July, Judge Swanton in the Chair.—Counsellor Sampson, and Professor M'Nevin, of Revolutionary celebrity in Ireland, addressed the Meeting in a stile which can only be reconciled with their former conduct, and resolutions were finally passed for collecting the Catholic Rent.

The approaching race meeting at Doncaster promises to be the largest ever known.

At the Hereford Musical Meeting, on Tuesday, the collection was 264*l.* and on Wednesday 240*l.*

The eight principal male and female vocal performers engaged for the approaching Grand Yorkshire Musical Festival, are to receive 1,748*l.* 10*s.* for their exertions on this occasion.—The lowest gets 105*l.*

On Saturday, Townsend, the pedestrian, completed at Hereford, his arduous task of walking 64 miles a-day, for ten days, successively.

A gentleman trotted in a single-horse gig 13 miles in an hour, round Ashburn Course, on Saturday, for 100 sovereigns, which he won.

Colonel Berkely and a set of fashionable amateurs performed at Cheltenham theatre, on Saturday night to an overflowing audience.

The will of the late Henry Fuseli, Esq. Keeper of the Royal Academy, was proved yesterday.—The property is sworn under 6000*l.*, which is left to his widow.

Seven gold coins of Constantine the great, have been found on Holyhead mountain in a perfect state, and must be at least 1,500 years old.

There are 1,560 temples dedicated to the great Philosopher Confucius, in China.

The Thermometer at Rangoon in February, was up to 120, and 60 at night.

Fauntleroy's house, at Brighton, is taken for the Oriental Galvanic Company.

Two magnificent streets of great extent are laying out in London.

Nearly 100 large porpoises were seen sporting for two hours and a half in the Downs, on Tuesday morning.

Horses have risen 20 and 30 per cent. in value, in the metropolis and its vicinity.

Mr. Ackerman, of the Strand, is about to establish in the City of Mexico an Athenæum on a large scale.

Mr. Canning's speeches are in the press.

Over one hundred and fifty public baths are supported in Paris.

Drury-Lane opens for the season on the 24th.

Seven hundred young persons were confirmed by the Roman Catholic Bishop, at Liverpool, on Thursday, and 2,100 are on Monday to receive that rite.

There are supposed to be 20,000 Welch people in Liverpool, half of whom are ignorant of the English language, and have no place of worship to hear divine service in their own tongue.

The happy consummation between a very wealthy widow and a young nobleman, lately advanced to a Ducal Coronet, will very shortly take place.

DUBLIN, SEPTEMBER 16.

On Tuesday, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant entertained a select dinner party, at which were present amongst the distinguished guests, the Attorney-General, the Surgeon-General, the Chief Remembrancer, Mrs. Patterson, Miss Keating, &c. This day his Excellency will also entertain a select party.

The Hon. William Brabazon, second son of the Earl of Meath, and Candidate for the County Dublin, has sailed for Paris, but will return in a few days.

Mr. O'Connell, and family, have visited his native regions at Iveragh, in Kerry, last week, and was received by the Aborigines like the son of an Irish King.

The Duke and Duchess of Richmond are daily expected at Woodstock, County Kilkenny, the seat of W. Tighe, Esq. on a visit to that gentleman and Lady Louisa Tighe, sister to his Grace.

Colonel Talbot, M. P., denies having formed a coalition with any party, in expectation of the approaching election for the County of Dublin.

On Monday last, the Countess of Glengall and Lady Charlotte Butler passed through Clonmel from Caher, on their way to Flood-Hall, County Kilkenny.

Miss Forde is recovering from her illness.

Lord Trimblestown, and other Catholic Proprietors of the King's County, have called a Catholic Meeting at Tullamore, on the 27th inst., to petition Parliament.

Colonel Pepper, of the Meath Militia, in a letter to Lord Killeen, regrets, his not being able to attend the late meeting in that County, at Navan, to petition for Emancipation.

It is understood, that an inquiry has been carried on for the last two days at the Paving Board, against an officer of that establishment, the result of which is to be laid before his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant forthwith, when we are satisfied that substantial justice will be rendered to the citizens of Dublin. It would be premature to say more at present.

The Rev. R. H. Ryland preached an excellent discourse at the Visitation of the Lord Bishop of Waterford, on Tuesday, and in the evening the Clergy dined with his Lordship.

The Hon. R. Westmore, Sir A. B. King, and Mr. Grattan, have expressed their determination to stand for the City of Dublin, at the General Election.

Henry Villiers Stuart, Esq. has given 10*l.* to the House of Industry of Waterford.

At a numerous meeting of the grocers and spirit retailers of Dublin, on Thursday, they pledged themselves individually and collectively not to transact any business on the Sabbath.

Last night, an attempt was made by 120 convicts, on board the Hulk at Kingstown, to surprise the guards, and effect their escape, which was very near proving successful. Before the insurrection was put down, one of the mutineers named Walsh, was shot dead, and another fell over board, and was drowned.

On Monday night, the house of John Goggin of Carrick-on-Suir, was robbed in his absence of 48*l.*

In the gale of Friday, many fine trees were torn up by the roots in the neighbourhood of Clonmel.

The demand for blankets at the fair of Kilkenny, on Monday, was considerable. Speculation in that article is expected.

One Gas Lamp in Dublin exhibits a light equal to six of the ordinary oil lamps.

The Limerick Chronicle.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Portarlington and suite, arrived in town yesterday evening, from his Lordship's seat, Emo-park, Queen's County, and this morning set off for the Lakes of Killarney, whose unrivalled, picturesque, and romantic beauties, are seen to most perfection in this month, in the fall of the yellow leaf.

General Sir William Parker Carroll, of the 18th, (Royal Irish,) has arrived in town for a few days on a visit to his friends.

We are extremely sorry to find that, amongst the killed at Rangoon, is Captain Rose of the 89th Regiment, brother to Mrs. Thomas Westropp, of Ross-hill. The death of this excellent officer is a source of great affliction to his family; for the last twenty years he had been on active service and had been severely wounded in an engagement with the Burmese last year.

The 2d Battalion of the 1st Royals, and the 45th, from Ceylon, have arrived at Rangoon.

By the last accounts, Brigadier M'Creagh was taking the Royals, and two native Regiments to reinforce Brigadier General Cotton. His Majesty's 59th Regiment was under orders to march at a minutes notice.

This day, seventy of the 10th Foot, under the command of Captain King, arrived here from Fermoy, on their way to Newport and Nenagh, to replace detachments of the 88th, ordered to Corfu.

The Diadem and Hope Transports will convey the first division of the 24th Regiment from Plymouth to Cork, and then embark the 88th.

It is uncertain whether the 28th or 36th will return from Corfu.

The 53d Regiment is ordered for garrison duty to Portsmouth, and marched from Chatham on Monday.

Detachments belonging to the 22d, 58th, 62d, and 63d Regiments of Foot, and the 3d Dragoon Guards, marched on Tuesday morning, from Westminster for Bristol, on route to Ireland.

The provisional Battalion, which has been formed at Portsmouth and placed under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Keyth, consists of the following Depots, viz. 18th, 28th, 36th, 51st, 52d, 80th, 90th, and 95th Regiments of Infantry; the depot of the 32d Foot did form a part of the Battalion, but on the arrival of the Regiment at the Motherbank, from Corfu, the Depot was embarked, in order that it may proceed with the Regiment to Devonport. We have reason to believe, that the only change at present contemplated in the stations of the Depots abovementioned, is that of the 80th Foot, which will be ordered to Manchester.

The Officer commanding the depot of the 23d Foot, at Brecon, has received directions from the Adjutant-General, to station Recruiting Parties at Carmarthen and Haverfordwest.

The detachment of the Royal Staff Corps, stationed at Grenville, Lower-Canada, has been reinforced by an addition of one company.

Monday the three squadrons of the 6th Dragoon Guards Carbineers, now in Piershill Barracks, were inspected and reviewed on Portobello Sands, by his Excellency Major-General the Hon. Sir R. W. O'Callaghan, Commander of the Forces in North Britain. The troops looked uncommonly well, and went through their various evolutions with great steadiness and precision.

Two Troops of the 10th Royal Hussars marched the 15th inst. from Exeter; one for Devonport, and the other for Truro.

The South Hants Militia are to assemble on the 28th inst. at Southampton.

Thomas Drury, Esq. is appointed Adjutant of the Radnor Militia, with the rank of Captain—and Joseph Mercer, Gent. Lieutenant in the 2d Lancashire Militia.

There are no Military Promotions in the London Gazette of Saturday.

The date of establishment of the three Veteran Companies which are to be raised for service in New South Wales is the 25th of September. The Officers are to receive the same pay as Cavalry Officers; and the men, all of whom must have served as Sergeants or Corporals, and be fit for actual service, will also receive the same rate of pay as Cavalry soldiers, in addition to their pension: the Companies are to consist of 50 men each, and will be detached from one another: their duty may be considered that of the Police: the Officers are to assemble at Chatham on the 25th instant, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Sir A. Christian.

All Half-pay Officers, who were in Holy Orders, have been ordered to sell out, and there is not now on the half-pay list a single one of that class, the last having appeared in the Gazette of the 10th inst.

All seamen and marines serving in the Navy, are now to be paid 4*s.* a month, advance of pay.

The Pensions of Officer's Widows due the 24th ult., are in course of payment since the 15th inst.

It is understood that a retiring list will shortly be made for the Navy, so that any Post Captain may retire upon two-thirds of his pay for life.

The Countess of Westmeath has arrived in Dublin. The band of the 58th Regiment from Waterford attended a splendid ball given by Lord and Lady Duncannon, at Bessborough, on Monday night.

they afford to the trading part of the community here, must, we are convinced, be duly appreciated, and it is hoped the exertions of this respectable Company may be crowned with the most ample success.

A gentleman, from London, left, at this Office, on Thursday last, 17, for the use of the distressed orphans, mentioned in a former publication.

Alderman Watson has received 5*s.* from a Gentleman, and 10*d.* from another, for the same purpose.

Committed, to the County Gaol, by the Rev. George Vincent, and John Creagh, Esq., John Sheahan, for assaulting Stephen Bradish, and robbing him of 8*l.* 14*s.* 10*d.* in money.—By the Rev. Rickard Lloyd, Penelope Walsh, for feloniously milking cows by night, the property of James Ryan, of Purtane.

W. G.'s letter is too long, and the subject not sufficiently interesting to occupy so much space.

BIRTHS.

On Wednesday last, in Waterford, the Lady of Lieut. John Jas. Sargent, 58th Regt., of a daughter.

On Tuesday last, at Bettyville, County Cork, the Lady of James Therry, Esq. of a son.

This morning at Bank-place, Mrs. M. I. Moore, of a daughter.

In Dublin, the Lady of Colonel Holmes, C. B. 3d Dragoon Guards, of a son.

In Lower Mount-street, Dublin, the Lady of Joseph Hamilton, Esq. of a son.

At Annstown, County Waterford, the Lady of Henry Cole, Esq. Barrister at Law, and one of the Divisional Magistrates of Dublin, of a daughter.

In Abbey-street Dublin, the lady of P. Collin, Esq. of a son.

In Rutland-square, Dublin, the Lady of E. C. Allen, Esq. Professor of Music, of a daughter.

At Springfort, County Cork, the lady of Thomas Wade Foot, Esq. of a son.

At Presham-House, Hants, the Right Hon. Lady Mary Long, lady of Walter Long, Esq. of a daughter.

The Lady of the Rev. Charles Wesley, of a daughter. Mrs. Spencer Perceval, of a daughter.

At Durham, the Lady of the Rev. Edward Egremont, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Mr. J. O'Gorman, of Bruff, Apothecary, to Miss Molony, of George's-Street.

At Lowtown-House, County Westmeath, George Arnett, Esq. of Mountrath, to Maria, second daughter of the late James Kelly, Esq.

In Waterford, Mr. Henry Sharpe, to Mary, daughter of the late Mr. Luke Masterson.

Travers Robert Blackley, Esq. of Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin, to Eliza, eldest daughter of William Lewery, of Clermont-Park, County Louth, Esq.

Richard Lalor, of Caskade, County Kilkenny, Esq. to Alicia, daughter of Garrett Brennan, of Eden-hall, Esq.

At Douglas Church, Cork, James H. Roche, Esq. to Isabella, daughter of H. P. Masters, Esq. of Blackrock.

At Cawnpore, Bengal, Townsend Somerville, Esq. of the 51st Native Infantry, to Miss Henrietta Kingston, late of Waterford.

In Cork, Mr. Alexander Callanan, to Catherine, relict of Mr. Thomas Sheppard.

At Northampton, Doctor Sillery, of the Medical Staff, to Frances, third daughter of the Rev. R. Williams, Rector of Houghton.

In London, the Rev. J. H. Sparke, eldest son of the Bishop of Ely, to Agnes, youngest daughter of the late Sir Jacob Henry Astley, Bart.

Randall Gossipp, Esq. of the 3d Foot Guards, to Christiana, only daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Marshall, of Newton Kyme.

At St. Mary-le-Bonne, John Potter, Esq. to Maria, second daughter of John Orrok, Esq. late Captain in the 33d Regiment.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday last, at George's-Quay, Jonathan Monsell, Esq. a gentleman sincerely and deservedly regretted by his family and friends.

In Corn Market-Row, Mrs. Sheahan.

On Wednesday, in Adare, Mr. William Bowen.

At Seville-place, Dublin, Captain Johnstone, late of the 9th Light Dragoons.

At Knock, County Clare, Timothy D'Arcy, Esq.

In Dublin, Robert Marshall, Esq. aged 69 years.

Sarah, second daughter of the late Richard Barter of Cooldaniel, in the County Cork, Esq.

In Newry, Anna, fourth daughter of J. Glenny, Esq. In Canal-street, Newry, Mrs. P. Quinn.

In Dominick-street, Cork, Mrs. Kearney, aged 75.

In Clonmel, the wife of Mr. Edward Bushel.

At Union-hill, County Westmeath, Frances Maria, wife of Captain Harrison, 69th Regiment.

The Rev. John Fitzsimons, P. P. of Ballymena. At Fortwilliam, County Wicklow, Elizabeth, wife of William Wheatley, Esq.

At Walmer, Kent, Philippa, daughter of Rear-Admiral Thomas Harney, C. B.

At Malta, on the 23d July, in the 38th year of his age, and sincerely regretted by his brother officers, Lieut. John Molony, of the 80th Regt.

At Albro', of Cholera Morbus, the beloved wife of John Tempest, Esq. and only surviving sister of the late Duke of Buccleugh and Queensbury.

PRICE OF IRISH STOCKS—SEPT. 15.

Table with 2 columns: Stock Name and Price. Includes Bank Stock, Government Debentures, Government Stock, Government Consols, Royal Canal Stock, Grand Canal Loan, Ditto ditto, Royal Irish Mining, Irish Mining Company Shares, Hibernian Banking Company, Provincial Bank, and Bank of England Post Bills.