RTANT LETTER.

of the Limerick Evening Post.

Press of Limerick has already ang outrages that took place at the fair ay, the 23d instant. Will you pertention, and, thro' you, that of those d devolve as a necessary duty, to a of that frightful affray, whereas, n

Mr. Bennett, the Coroner, held another inquest, on Tuesday, on the body of Patrick Briann, who was killed by a gun-shot wound at the fair of Dromin.

Yesterday, six convicts from Galway, five men and a woman, arrived here under a guard of the 78th Highlanders, and this morning left town for the Surge Hulk at Cove for transportation, under a guard of the 26th Regiment.

Patrick Magrath the owner of a cook-shop in the Englightown, had his skull fractured in a fight at the race course on Sunday.

Tuesday evening a woman named Bridget M'Namara, was rolled over in Clare-street, by a gig returning from the races. Her chest was so badly injured that it was necessary to convey her to the Hospital.

Mathew Barry, a labourer, lost his eye by a blow of a stick received in a fight at the races on Wednesday.

An Inquest was held by the Mayor, on the body of one Ward, the poor woman who was unfortunately killed at Newcastle Race Course, on Tuesday, verdict—accidental death.

Wednesday night, a woman went into the shop of a Woollen Draper in Patrick-Street, and offered in payment for a cloak, a Three Pound Bank Note; from her ragged dress, she was suspected of not coming by it honestly, and mentioned a merchant's name, who proved he never saw the note before; on which she attempted to escape, but was taken and lodged in Jail, by Alderman Watson, with whom the Note may be seen.

The Church-Wardens of St. Mary's Parish received, on Thursday, Ten Shillings, on the conviction before Alderman Watson of a Carman, conveying a large beam of Timber on his Car contrary to Law.

Committed, this day, by Alderman Watson, to the City Gaol, Hannah Groves, for robbing James Cussen, last night, of 34s. in silver.

Committed, to the County Gaol, by John Wickham and Jeremiah Ryan, Esqrs., Jeffery Conneil, for cow stealing.
