

on, of the 49th Regiment, who died turn from the Cape of Good Hope, was Excise Surveyor-General Johnston, of O'Brien, Bart. M. P. arrived in town Dublin, and shortly after left town for land.

ove harbour, on yesterday se'night, after arty days from the city of St. John, New ship Agamemnon; during her passage she mendous and continued gales, which did e, but no lives lost—the only passenger was ontgomery West, the zealous defender of cyan Methodism, who had been advancing that system for nearly the last two years, le success, throughout the provinces of
er Canada, the United States, Nova Scotia,
k and several of the Indian settlements;
him some interesting information relative religion and morals, which he collected vels on the Continent of America, and s shall receive publicity thro' the medium
On Saturday last he arrived in this city, in e the warm congratulations of numerous Sunday evening, at the hour of 6 o'clock, appropriate missionary sermon to a large audience, in the beautiful house of worship opened in this city before his departure, collection evinced the satisfaction of the his return to his native country—and on ing, he proceeded on his way to Dublin.
g shoe and boot makers of this City have disputes with the employers, after a stand of months.

deahy of Carrigsheehan, near Middleton,
ed M. Esq. 3d. for the extreme regularity, cleanliness of his farm, by the Inokilly
ty, at whose meeting the Marquis of Tho-
a few days ago.
of Ennis are to be lighted with fifty oil
e 5th inst.

each from Tralee to this City, was delayed
by a slight injury to one of the springs
e Mayor held an inquest on the body of ane, a pensioner from the 49th Regiment, ny apparent indisposition, fell dead near arket, this morning.

last five weeks, upwards of seven hundred Whiskey have been imported into Belfast otland.

clock cup was run for on Wednesday last,
fineness of the day great amusement was was won in a canter by Mr. Doonan's ork, rode by Mr. McDonough. Puddin' from ht to be the best steeple-chase horse in would be matched against any horse, five arting country for any amount.

Winter Fair, generally considered one of r the season, was held on Monday; it was usly attended by purchasers and sellers; the
was considerable, and a vast portion of bu-As no other Fair of any consequence is to at of Tipperary, on the 10th of December, iers being satisfied, with the prices that were ains were made to a large amount in the early
ay. For Cork there were about 500 head nded for slaughter; they consisted almost ows, and sold from £10 to 14. according to ne lot of Bullocks, 25, went to 18. 15s. there 0 Cows bought for market at the same aveould appear from our respectable informant rices have not been under those obtained at receding Fairs, that the business of the day

DEATHS.

On Tuesday, at Beechmount, the seat of her son in-law, Thomas Lloyd, Esq. in the 86th year of her age,
Mrs. Evans, widow of Eyre Evans, Esq. of Miltown-Castle, County Cork, and mother of Eyre Evans, Esq.
of Ash-Hill, in this County.

This morning, at Richmond, near this city, at an advanced age, Sarah, relict of the late James Fisher, Esq.
one of the Society of Friends.

In Clentworth-street, on Friday, much lamented,
John, eldest son of Thomas Taverner, Esq.

On Merchant's-Quay, the Widow Faulkner.

At her son's, in Broad-street, Mrs. Molony.

On George's Quay, Mrs. Meade, relict of the late
Mr. Patrick Meade.

At Woodford, in the County Galway, much regretted,
on the 23d inst. Eliza, second daughter of T. Williams, Esq. Chief Constable of Police.

On Arran-quay, Dublin, of fever taken in the discharge of his professional duties, Thomas Roney, Esq.
Surgeon, Member, and one of the Censors of the Royal College of Surgeons, in Ireland.

In Ballina, County Mayo, at the advanced age of 101 years, Mrs. Ormsby, relict of the late Charles Ormsby, of that town, Esq.

In Carrick-on-Suir, Ambrose H. Manderille, Esq.

In Dublin, aged 70, Jemima, relict of George Clarke,
of Parsonstown, King's County, Esq.

In Penrose's-lane, Waterford, Mr. James Phillips.

In Belfast, Mr. Charles Kennedy, merchant.

In Dublin, the facetious Mr. Edward O'Farrell, of Carlow.

In Clonmel, Mr. John Tinsley, master builder.

Mr. Nicholas Power, of Michael-street, Waterford.

George Wilson, of Darkley, Esq.

In High-street, Ennis, Patrick, third son of Mr. John Considine, tobacconist.

In Princess-street, Cork, aged 86 years, Mrs. McDonnell.

In Dublin, Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev. Wm.
Faussett.

At Belfast, John Gregg, Esq. for many years one of the principal clerks of the Irish House of Lords. By the death of this worthy Gentleman, a pension of 800l.
per annum, granted to him at the time of the Union,
falls in to Government.

At Paris, on the 18th November, the Hon. Michael Brown, youngest brother of the Earl of Kenmare. The wounds which this young officer received at the battle of Waterloo, ultimately proved the occasion of his death.

The Very Rev. John Plumtree, D. D. Dean of Gloucester.

William Wiseman, of Kilerceagh, County Cork, Esq.

At Cheltenham, Ellen, Dowager Lady Smith, relict of the late Right Hon. Sir Michael Smith, Bart. some time Master of the Rolls in Ireland.

In Half Moon-street, in the 41st year of her age, Julia Ann, youngest daughter of the Hon. Washington Shirley, (brother to Earl Ferrers), and of Frances, his late wife.

At Valparaiso, on the 5th of August, Harriet, wife
of Captain Maling, of his Majesty's ship the Cambridge,
and youngest daughter of the late celebrated Doctor Darwin.

PRICE OF IRISH STOCKS—NOV. 30.

Bank Stock,	256
Government Debentures, 3½ per Cent.	94
Government Stock, 3½ per Cent.	90½
Government Consols, 3 per Cent.	82½
Government Stock, New 4 per Cent.	27½
Royal Canal Stock,	48
Grand Canal Loan, red. 4 per cent.	70½
Ditto, ditto, 6 per Cent.	70½

GLOBE INSURANCE COMPANY

FIRE, LIVES, AND ANNUAL

PALL-MALL AND CORNHILL, LONDON
And No. 3, Tontine Buildings, George's Street

DIRECTORS:

ST. GEORGE ABERCROMBIE ROBINSON, Ba.	JOSEPH DOWNS, Esq. Deputy-Chairman
William Abbott, Esq.	Edward G. ...
Cs. Raymond Barker, Esq.	Isaac L. G. ...
Thomas Barrow, Esq.	Matthew Isa ...
Jonathan Birch, Esq.	John Lath ...
Thomas Blair, Esq.	John Neave ...
Sir C. Cockerell, Bt. M. P.	William Phi ...
Thomas Colby, Esq.	Frederick J. ...
Bayce Combe, Esq.	Philip Rip ...
John Fawcett, Esq.	Sir Walter ...
George Fraser, Esq.	James Tadd ...
George Carr Glyn, Esq.	Edward Va ...

CAPITAL ONE MILLION STERLING

The whole paid up and invested, there the Proprietors Security against further C Assured an immediate available Fund for the most extensive Losses.

This Company have determined to ma
or PREMIUM on the three ordinary Class
ranchise, and all Policies of those Classes hit

2s. are reduced to 1s. 6d. per cent.
3s. 2s. 6d. ...
4s. 3s. 6d. ...
(By order of the Board.)

JOHN CHARLES
Secretary

London, 25th Nov. 1825.

Books of Rates, and every inf
Insurances, will be given, by applicat

D. F. G. MAHON

Globe Company Agent, L

GRAND AND EXTENSIVE

Winter Assortment

ARRIVED THIS AND THE

AT THE

WEST OF ENGLAND

COMMISSION-HOUSE

10, CHARLOTTE'S

Celebrated for its strict adherence to

ROBERT MAHON

THE Public are respectfully invit Stock, which, for variety and excelled by any House in the Kingdom

It comprises several thousand y
SUPERFINE, REFINE and LI

Ladies' HAT, PELISSE and CL

Double-Milled Drab, Grey and Blu

for pantaloons; Scarlet & Green HUN
NAPS, FLUSHINGS and LAMB
Milled DRAB CLOTHS and BAT