

he Mayor will take such means, or otherwise, as will prevent its continuance.

I remain, Sir,
Your most obliged servant,
A LOVER OF JUSTICE.

S.—What renders this matter the more grievous is, the very Pain Brokers, I am positively assured, ready demand all payments (due on articles pledged to them) in British money, though they gave it themselves in Irish. How are the Poor thus situated to act?

The new notes of the Bank of Ireland have been this day received in town, and vary very little from the old issue.

Lord Carbery presided at the Anti Slavery meeting, in Cork, yesterday, which was most numerous and respectably attended.

The Secretary of the Bible Society, acknowledges to have received per Rev. Pryce Peacock, 1l. 10s. a donation from a Lady, for which he returns his sincere thanks on behalf of the useful Institution.

The Rev. Richard Murray, Vicar of Askeaton, acknowledges to have received from the Earl of Cork Twenty Pounds for the use of the Askeaton Dispensary.

The Secretary of the Ladies' Society for Promoting Industry in the Parish of Askeaton, acknowledges to have received from Alexander Elliott, Esq. a donation of Two Pounds.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.—Mr. Evans's Fox-Hounds will draw his Miltown-Castle Covers, on Wednesday, 11, A. 10 o'Clock, commencing with the shrubbery, and terminating with Barna-Goss Cover; the woods are replete with game, not having been hunted this season.
